THE REPORTER

ATHENS, ONT., MARCH 26, 1889

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Reported by Our Knight of the Penell—Local Amusements

Methodist Church.

New Sateens, 10c a yard—

at G. W. Besch's.

This week, we welcome into our relations as citizens Messrs. Horace and Aoley Brown.

House to let on Reid street. Apply to G. W. Brown.

On Sunday evening next, the first of a series of revival services will be held in the Methodist Church.

50 pieces new spring prints arrived this week at G. W. Besch's.

The correspondence of "Plentiful Corners Paddy" is unobjectionable, but we must know his name before it will be published.

Fearman's sugar-cured hams at James' Grocery.

Mrs. Cameron, of Westport, relict of the late Asbury Cameron, and sister of Mrs. Samuel Grey, of Addison, died at Westport on Sunday last.

Scotch beef ham at James' Grocery.

Mr. W. Beatty, P. L. S., a few days ago completed the survey of about thirty islands in Mud Lake, near Newboro. The islands have been applied for principally by local parties.

16 lbs. of bright sugar for $1 at James' Grocery.

Mr. John Canley, late of New Boyne, has rented his farm there and moved to Athens, and has entered into partnership with Mr. T. Berney, in the farm machinery agency. We welcome Mr. Canley to our midst.

Elegant lot of new wall paper at A. Parish & Son's.

While attending a circular saw the other day, Mr. Frank Ireland, of Frankville, met with a very painful accident. The saw caught his hand between the thumb and forefinger, tearing away a large piece of flesh.

The place to get crockery or glassware cheap is at James' Grocery.

Jan. Murphy, a former well known resident of this village, died at his residence in Brockville on Sunday afternoon. His remains passed through yesterday on the B. & W., to Elgin, where the deceased's son Richard resides. He will be buried in the Elgin cemetery to-day.

Fresh fish, cheap, at James' Grocery.

Mrs. Horace E. Tupper, of Chicago, daughter-in-law of Mr. E. Tupper (well known in this county as a teacher of vocal music), is a successful newspaper writer. Her contributions to the Chicago Herald and other papers are very readable and interesting.

Timothy, clover, and millet seeds cheap at James' Grocery.

We understand that the firm of Lamb & Davidson, of this village, who have been in financial difficulties during the past few weeks, have offered to compromise with their creditors at 60c. on the dollar, and that quite a few of them have consented to accept the offer made.

Go to A. Parish & Son's for fresh Timothy and Clover seed.

It is said that arrangements are almost completed for finishing the laying of the track on the B. & W. from Brockville to Lyn. The iron for the overhead bridge will probably be on the ground this week. If these rumors are correct, another month will see that section of the road in running trim.

Wanted—a boy, not younger than 16, fair education, for store. Apply at G. W. Besch's.

The Court of Queen's Bench opens at Brockville on the 9th of April. There are several very important cases on the docket, including the Kaufman trial and a case regarding a horse sale brought by J. B. Hill, of Algonquin, against S. J. Boyd, of Prescott. The docket case of Sanford v. Sanford will be of interest to parties living in the Addison neighborhood.

On Monday, the 18th inst., a Scotch Act meeting was held in Plum Hollow Baptist church. Speeches were delivered by Mrs. G. Nash, Rev. B. Bowden, and Mr. Phelps, of Philadelphia. The audience, which crowded the church, was very large.

The net proceeds of the fair, which will be $10, which will be for the fund.
