ADELLA SCOTT, Teacher. Wednesday Half Holiday.

For some time there has been an agitation in Brockville for a half holiday every Wednesday during the heated term. Surprisingly little opposition to the very sensible proposition has developed. Nearly all the businss men have fallen in line and, commencing to day, will close their places of business at 12.30 on Wednesday of each week during July and August. Respecting this matter, Messrs. Robert Wrgibt & Co. say: We wish to an nounce that we have decided it is in the interest of our forty employees to close our store every Wednesday afternoon during July and August. We believe that, in the holiday season, lot it is to work those whose should not be forgotton—and we propose to make the summer pleasanter for our staff. The welfare of the employee should concern the employer, and we feel that a weekly half day of recreation will be a physical benefit to the salespeople, and will be a help to better store service. We feel satisfied that the buying public will appreciate do their shopping during the five and at hard times. a half days of business. Wednesday. July 11th, will be the day-we close at 12.30
