

PACKAGES.

So many articles of food, especially breakfast foods, have been put up in packages, that it is getting to be a perplexing matter to know what to choose. Outside of this is the fact that packages of necessity increase the prices of the foods. The cost of packages, the price of boxes, and the labor of packing these does increase the cost of breakfast foods to the user. The old way of getting breakfast foods in barrels is just as clean, and just as convenient for the user as getting it in packages. Of course it must be carefully handled, and kept covered as we always do. You can rest assured that when you buy BULK OATMEAL HERE you are getting the best possible.

BAD FIRE NEAR DUART.

The residence of John McKim, a well known farmer near Duart, was totally destroyed by fire in the early hours of Friday morning. Mr. McKim and family retired at the usual hour on Thursday night, leaving, as was the custom, a fire in the dining room heater. About four o'clock they were awakened by the bursting out of the flames and their noise and roar as they made rapid headway toward the house. All the members of the family fortunately escaped from the burning house in their night clothes and made their way through the deep snowdrifts to the barn, where they found shelter.

The daughters saved their jewelry, watches and a couple of fur jackets. All the other contents, valued at $1,800, were totally destroyed. Suffering from the severe cold of what was perhaps the most disagreeable night of the winter, the family was forced to remain in the barn until daylight, when the son managed to hitch up a rig and driving to Mr. Sinclair's, notified him. That gentleman hitched his team to a bob-sleigh filled with straw, and taking with him blankets and clothing, went after the remaining members of the family and took them to his home.

The loss is a severe one to Mr. McKim, as the contents were insured for only $300, and the house, valued at least $1,000, was insured for only $500. The present condition of the weather and the mountains of snow make it impossible to do much towards rebuilding, and the chances are that it will be some months before a new home is in readiness.

Mr. McKim has the sympathy of all in his misfortune.

The insurance was in the Howard Farmers', and as usual a prompt settlement was made. The fire was on Friday, and by Tuesday noon the amount of insurance stood to Mr. McKim's credit in a Bidgetown bank.

FATHER LOISELLE

he Pastor of Big Point Left for a New Field of Labor on Thursday—Receives Many Tributes

It is greatly regretted by all the people of Big Point, that their pastor, Rev. Father Loisel, is to be removed from their midst. The sad news was received on the last day of January, and he will leave on Thursday, a petition was at once sent by the parishioners to His Lordship Bishop McEvay, praying him to let their dearly beloved pastor remain with them; but it was in vain; it was already too late.

When this response was announced the people wished to show their appreciation in some other way, and on Sunday an address was read on behalf of the congregation by Mr. Zephire Chiff, accompanied by a well-filled purse. Sorrow was plainly evident in the faces of all at the thought of separation from their priest, who had been their faithful friend and holy adviser for more than nine years.

Fr. Loisel, who was deeply touched by the beautiful sentiments expressed in the address but was too overcome to reply at any length. He said that this was the saddest day of his life, but that having a superior he must obey the divine call. He thanked them for their love and thoughtful-ness, saying that he had never found more pleasure than with the children.

He advised them to study hard, although he would be far from them, he would follow them in their studies and would know who gained the medals which he had presented to them this year. He said he wanted them to grow up perfect men and women and to be an honor to the country.

Father Loisel goes to take charge of the parish of St. Joseph, Huron County.

CATTLE CASE

Daniel Payne, appeared this morning at the police court to answer a charge of selling lumpy-jaw beef.

O. L. Lewis appeared for Mr. Payne and admitted that the client was technically guilty. The Ontario statute specifies lumpy-jaw beef. The report of the Dominion Minister of Agriculture for 1884, says that lumpy-jaw is not contagious.

Dr. Joe Kime, V. S., testified that he had told Payne that the meat was fit for food. Dr. Kime is an inspector under the Dominion Government.

Mr. Payne consented to be fined, and the court was adjourned to enable the judge to find out the least possible fine.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

The Japs for mine.

Will I now have to drink Ceylon Tea?

Now for the big show and the big crowd.

Those Wallaceburg people wanted to see the Big Show, too.

"Remember the Main" is the war-cry of the new alderman.

Everybody wanted Robin Hood tickets. The Satellite did it.

I think Ald. Westman's buried treasure is the "main" thing.

I wonder if the County Council expect the city to feed their pupils, too.

Russia, you may think you have whipped the Japs, but the great difficulty will be in convincing the Japs.

If you want a little light on the street just now use the Satellite. He's right enough for most anything.

The Council has a petition from the cattlemen for seals and in consequence are duly weighing the matter.

They had rather a scummy time at the Council meeting Monday night and still the cattlemen waited for weights.

Joe Sagram is sick at Waterloo. Gee, I hope my friend Joe gets better. There's more than me drinking to his health right now.

I think that buried treasure isn't on the McGeachy farm at all. It is out in Raleigh and Ald. Westman has located it in $10,000 worth of old buried waterworks man.

CURE FOR GRIP.

Three fingers of Sagram taken three times a day. Repeat if necessary.

NEW USE FOR PILLOWS.

Owing to the prevalence of ice on the sidewalks the family bed pillows can be put to good use as pads in the daytime.—Detroit News.
