One Victim Will Die and Attempt at Suicide May Be Fatal.

Yorkton, Sask., Feb. 20.—The following facts in connection with a terrible shooting tragedy at Canora, on the C. N. R. line, west of Kamsack, have been obtained from Sgt. Junget of the Northwest Mounted Police.

A man by the name of Schlitz shot last Saturday a man by the name of Price, a neighbor, and failed in his attempt on the lives of his own wife and son.

He then shot himself with probably fatal results. He is supposed to be insane.

FIVE YEARS' DYSPEPSIA CURED

"No one knows what I suffered from stomach trouble and dyspepsia," writes Mr. A. P. Agnew, of Bridgewater. "For the last five years I have been unable to digest and assimilate food. I had no color, my strength ran down and I felt miserable and nervous all the time. I always had a heavy feeling after meals and was much troubled with a dizziness and specks before my eyes. Dr. Hamilton's Pills were just what I needed. They have cured every symptom of my old trouble. My health is now all that can be desired." By all means use Dr. Hamilton's Pills; 25c. per box at all dealers.

Attempt to Assassinate a President.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Minister Russell at Caracas, cables the State Department:

"The United States Minister at Bogota requests me to send the following: On the morning of the 10th, while the President of Colombia was riding in a carriage in the suburbs of Bogota, three mounted men attempted to assassinate him, firing eight shots, five of which struck the carriage. The President was uninjured. The assailants escaped. Much excitement and indignation at the cowardly attempt. The city is quiet."

A MILLION DOLLARS SQUANDERED.

It is estimated this sum was wasted last year by people trying to find a cure for catarrh. Foolish for sufferers to experiment when it's so well known that "Catarrh" is the only remedy that cures permanently. Other treatments only relieve, but Catarrh cures and prevents the disease from ever returning. "I had Catarrh in its worst form," writes G. F. Fadden, of Royan, Que. "I was so bad that ordinary remedies even failed to relieve. No Catarrh cured perfectly." No chance of disappointment with Catarrh—'tis certain as death to cure your Catarrh—just try it.

Mr. Williams is native of Valleyfield, 39 years of age, and speaks and writes French and English fluently. Mr. Williams was in the service of the Canadian Secret Service Agency, Montreal, from April, 1885, to April, 1902. In 1902 he served in South Africa as a lieutenant in the 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles.

AFRAID OF STRONG MEDICINES.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. Rev. Amos Parker, of Magnolia, North Carolina, suffered for eight years with a lame hip, due to severe rheumatic pains. He has been permanently cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by all druggists.

It is hard to get what you want when you don't know what you want.

SELECTIONS

THE WONDERFUL ETHER.

A startling conception of the Universe, a new Medium.
Of all the theories of the ether that lately promulgated by Professor Osborne Reynolds is perhaps the most startling. It inverts all our previous ideas on the subject. According to this, the youngest theory of the ether, we must look upon the ether as the one really substantial thing in the universe, its density being 10,000 times greater than that of water, while matter, which seems so substantial, consists, so to speak, in an absence of mass and has the character of a mere wave in the ether. On this newest view "we are all waves," as the author of the theory, bursting into poetry, exclaimed at the close of the eighth section of his Rede lecture. This astonishing proposition, which has cost its author, no less than twenty years of labor, asks us to imagine that the universe, except those minor portions which constitute matter, is built up, like a bag of sand, of grains of definite shape and in size so inconceivably small that their diameters are no greater than the seven hundred thousand millionth part of an inch, and so closely packed that, though not absolutely immovable, the four hundred thousand millionth of one sixty thousandth part of an inch—i. e., the four hundred thousand millionth part of their own diameter—would represent approximately the mean free path through which these particles are free to move. Professor Reynolds tells us that the density of this medium, far from being almost indefinitely small, is nearly 500 times as great as that of the densest matter known to us on earth and its pressure more than 3,000 times greater than that which any material yet tried has been known to sustain.

To get some idea of this conception of the ether picture to yourself a billiard table carefully packed from one end to the other with line after line of billiard balls, each line so nicely fitted or geared into the next that the balls are packed almost as close to each other as is possible, yet not so very tightly as to prevent absolutely all motion among them. Imagine again that you have not one layer of balls, as on a billiard table, confined by the sides of the table, but layer upon layer piled one above the other and extending absolutely without limit in every direction. Remember that these balls or grains are so minute that, say, 11,200,000,000,000,000 of them laid side by side along a line would only occupy a single inch, and you will have a picture so far as may be of Professor Reynolds' conception of the universal medium, ether—W. A. Shennstone, F. R. S., in Cornhill Magazine.

The Venerable Eugene.

The rumor as to the grave indisposition of the ex-Empress Eugenie happily proves to have been unfounded, but it must be remembered, all the same, that her majesty is now nearly an octogenarian, having been born in 1826, only seven years later than Queen Victoria. It argues marvelous vitality that she has been able for so long to resist the sorrows which began to fall on her so thickly just five and thirty years ago, when she and her consort lost their empire, and the heavier blow of nine years later, when her only son fell under the assassins of the Zulus. But, then, the ex-empress has always shown herself to be possessed of a certain amount of iron in her composition, derived no doubt from her Scottish grandfather, a Kirkpatrick of Closeburn, who settled at Malaga as a wine merchant.—London Chronicle.

Vanished Red Dog.

Files of the Nevada Transcript of 1860 tell of the visit of a certain company to the mining town of Red Dog. The company, headed by McKean Buchanan, Virginia Buchanan, Frank Mayo, Charles Wheatleigh and Elizabeth Saunders, all of whom occupy prominent places in the history of the American stage, played three nights in Red Dog to an average business of $1,200 a night. The plays produced were "Cassidy," "The Robbers," and "The Octoroon." Today not a vestige of a house is to be found on the former site of Red Dog, which was about nine miles from Nevada City.

Speed Mania.

Speed mania is getting to have scientific recognition. The medical superintendent of the Montrose asylum mentions motoring as the latest addition to the list of predisposing causes tending toward insanity. He reports two victims of the new "motor mania" at his institution. "He gives no details to enable us," says the Hospital, "to determine what form the craze assumed or whether the tendency was homicidal, suicidal or of a less personal character. But in any case the new menace to mental stability is disquieting."

Literate Kansas.

Governor Hoch administers an eye opener to cultured Boston when he affirms that of all the states Kansas has among her people the least percentage of illiteracy, excepting only Iowa. The census doesn't half know what President Roosevelt thoroughly learned in his recent tour—that the west and southwest are most active and liberal in the promotion of school education. Our colleges and universities are also numerous and in the average as good as the best.—St. Louis Republic.

Nursery Furniture.

Nursery furniture should be small, but it should be light in weight also. The little bent wood chairs are very good. They can be lifted and carried about by very small people, and they have no angles to bark shins on or un-awares. Do not overdo the nursery idea. Let the decorations stop with the walls. Children tire of Mother Goose, nursery furniture and china. Fresh white curtains that wash are better than picture muslin.

$25,000.00 GIVEN AWAY.

In the past year Dr. R. V. Pierce has given away copies of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, at an expense to him of $25,000.00 exclusive of postage. This standard book on medicine and hygiene, contains 1008 pages and more than 700 illustrations. It treats of the greatest and gravest problems of human life in simple English, from a common sense point of view. It answers those questions of sex which linger unspoken upon the lips of youth and maiden. It is essentially a family book, and its advice in a moment of sudden illness or accident may be the means of saving a valuable life. This great work is sent absolutely free on receipt of stamps to defray the cost of mailing and customs. Send 3 1-cent stamps for book in paper binding, or 50 stamps for cloth covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HOUSE SITS FIVE MINUTES.

An Exceedingly Short Session of the Legislature on Monday.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—The Legislature has sat for five minutes. The day, and it was done in less than five minutes. Few members were in place. To-day the debate on the address will be continued by the Opposition leader, but it is expected Mr. Whitney will conclude the debate before 6 o'clock.

Among the petitions presented were several asking that section 606 of the Municipal Act be repealed. This is the section under which municipalities are made liable for damages arising from defective sidewalks and roads. Col. Matheson laid on the table a formal report showing the amended regulations regarding the working of the Succession Duties Act.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt action, have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children, for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

Old Man Burns to Death.

Metairie, Feb. 20.—On Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock the residence of Michael Wallace, an aged farmer of the Township of Osgoode, was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are both about 80 years of age, and their daughter-in-law and three small children were all that were present. The old gentleman spoke of going into the house for something, but his daughter-in-law warned him not to go, but while she was taking her children out of danger into an adjoining field he went in. He perished about four feet from the front door in the hallway. His body was almost totally consumed; house and contents totally destroyed.

SORE THROAT AND COUGHS.

A simple, effective and safe remedy to all throat and lung troubles is Crescine Antiseptic Tablets.
They combine the germicidal values of Crescine with the soothing properties of slippery elm and licorice.

To Apply Lotions.

One very good way to apply a lotion to the face, when time is not taken into account, is to pour as much as is needed into a saucer and use sterilized absorbent cotton or gauze, which can be purchased for a trifling sum of the chemists. Make some little balls or pads of the cotton and keep them in a clean, wide mouthed jar with a screw top and use as needed. Dip them into the lotion and gently wash it over the face, using fresh ones from time to time during the process.

Coughs, Colds, croup, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Crescine tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

THE IMMIGRANT.

A foolish little immigrant
Has crossed the unknown sea
And landed on the shore of life
A citizen to be.

He did not bring a single cent,
No baggage was revealed;
Upon what scenes he turned his back
His lips are ever sealed.

He may be homesick—who can tell?
The tears are in his eyes.
No doubt he finds this foreign shore
A land of strange surprise.

Ah, foolish little immigrant!
What tales were told to you?
Did you believe that work was light
And gold on bushes grew?

Good luck to you while you are here,
And long the time you roam;
You cannot take a dollar back
When you go sailing home.

McLaurburgh Wilson.

CAUSE FOR THANKS.

Rev. Dr. Herridge of Ottawa Preaches on National Affairs.

Rev. Dr. Herridge of Ottawa preached a notable Thanksgiving sermon this year. Here were some of the things for which, in Dr. Herridge's opinion, Canadians should be grateful:—"We have an immense asset in our timber, our minerals, our native industries, and especially in these wheat-growing lands of the west, only a small fraction of which have as yet been cultivated. Though wealth may not be increasing for some of us, there can be no doubt that it is increasing as a whole in every part of the country. We are free from any acute form of social or political disturbance. No desolating plague has come nigh our dwellings. We enjoy peace throughout our borders. The quality of our immigrants, as a rule, gives good hope that they will do useful work amongst us. The beginning of a new transcontinental railway will open up fresh districts for settlement, and those two commonwealths which have been created this year in the west are bound to play no unimportant part in the future history of the Dominion.

"Canadians surely did not need to be told," went on Dr. Herridge, "that material wealth alone would never make this nation great. If that was what we aimed at, the result might be a kind of vulgar prosperity, but nothing more. Unless the growth of manhood kept pace with the growth of money, wealth would only make the littleness of soul more plainly, more pathetically, more grotesquely evident. We were accustomed to speak of Canada as having a great future, but that depended upon the Canadians themselves. Among our various enterprises none required more care and none would prove more lucrative than the raising of manhood. The spread of education among our people was necessary, for true culture had a value in itself, apart from any material results attending it. With our schools we must give to our children a sense of duty, a sense of responsibility, a sense of the value of the national heritage. We ought to see to it, of course, that they are properly qualified. The trustees of our schools should be men of broad intelligence and sympathetic insight into the character of a teacher's work; but if we almost starve those who train our youth, and this is what in some cases we do, does it not look as though we regarded their task as quite a secondary matter? Now education is a primary matter; if our schools and colleges were destroyed, or even crippled in their efficiency, we might bid farewell to any hopes of national greatness. The growth of self-culture was a hopeful sign, but it was not enough to insure a nation's greatness. Canada needed men of steadfast industry and broad intelligence, and most of all men who feared God and worked for righteousness."

We are beginning to see this more and more clearly.

We are beginning to see this more and more clearly. We are finding out that such a thing as a public conscience is not superfluous. It is true that commercial dishonesty and partisan creed and base desertion of principle are not unknown amongst us. Philanthropy is still in the land, but we seem more resolved than ever to conquer them, and if necessary to drive them out. We begin to see that self-respect will not allow us to be rebuked; even although it does not directly affect our personal interests we have something to do. We are emerging out of the selfish indifference which will tolerate almost anything, and are learning to insist upon it that our commercial and civic and political methods shall at least bring no discredit upon the name Canadian. We feel that we cannot afford to have a doubtful reputation in anybody's eyes, but that, on the contrary, with our vast Dominion, our free institutions, and our fine possibilities as a people, we ought to set the example of a people who think too much of themselves to be taken up with mean, petty and sordid aims, but are determined rather to work out their destiny in the spirit of God's gentleness.

"I do not think that the most sanguine prophet is likely to exaggerate the outlook for Canadian life during the next half century. The tide of immigration is at last flowing towards us. Our magnificent resources are becoming better known both to ourselves and to others. We discern with growing distinctness the part we have to play in that Imperial dream, which moves toward a great unity of the British race, and yet at the same time we are more and more conscious of our own individuality. Now if we are but true to the trust committed to us, if we are resolved that Canada shall lose nothing through our selfishness or our folly, if these vast plains of ours can be filled with the best of the world's energies, men of clean hands and pure hearts; if we fuse our various creeds into a simpler creed, which teaches us to love God and to love our brother; if we have no fear for the future of this Dominion; if our big country will be also a great country, and with deeper reverence and more ardent faith we shall return thanks to the source of every blessing for the good land which He hath given us."

The Lord's Prayer.

The question having arisen as to whether the English version of the Lord's Prayer is a true reproduction of the original as found in Matthew, a native Greek scholar proceeds to answer it. He deals with the petitions in order, translating each word with all the shades of meaning of the original and then presents the whole in this form:—"Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name—thy dominion come—thy (fixed) purpose be done, as in heaven, so, too, on earth. Give us this day our mere (or simple) bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors theirs, and let us not fall into a tempter's snare, but deliver us from the evil one."

KIDNEY DISEASE AND ITS DANGERS

CAN BE QUICKLY CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Kidney disease comes on quietly, it may have been in the system for a long time before you suspected the real cause of your trouble. There may have been backaches, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as, brick dust deposits in urine, highly colored, scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent urination, stone in bladder, etc.

Perhaps you did not know that these were symptoms of kidney disease, so the trouble kept growing worse, until Neuritis, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Dropsy, and worst of all, Bright's Disease have taken hold of your system. Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken at the first sign of anything wrong. There is no other safe way, (plasters and liniments are useless), as the trouble must be eradicated from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills go to the seat of the trouble, strengthen the kidneys, and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble. Mr. Thomas Mayhew, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with my kidneys, and my back got so lame I felt miserable all over. After taking five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was as well as ever." Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.
