Ottawa, Jan. 23.—A fine point in law was raised in Hull to-day in the case against Revillon Bros., of Montreal, charged with having 400 beaver skins illegally in thier possession.

The case opened this morning before Magistrate St. Julien. Mr. Brosseau, K. C., at the opening of the case, said the intention of the defence was to fight the prosecution on the case, said the intention of the defence was to fight the prosecution on the ground that the Indians from whom the skins were bought had the right, under an old treaty from the Dominion, to kill and dispose of beaver, and that, therefore, the provisions of the provincial law were ultra vires as applied to Indians.

The point was new to the magistrate and to others in the court, and as Mr. Brosseau said he had just arrived from New York, and had not had time to put his case in proper shape, an adjournment was granted until Feb. 6th.

Count Lynar was found guilty of abusing his authority on six counts, four of which related to insults to insubordinates, and on five other counts charging moral lapses, and was sentenced to fifteen months in jail. Count Von Hohenau was acquitted.

Hohenau a short time ago was obliged to resign his position in the army because he was accused of being one of the so-called "court camabilla" exposed by Herr Harden, editor of the Zukuft. The names of both General Von Hohenau and Major Lynar were brought constantly into the testimony during the recent Harden-Von Moltke trial.
