WHOLESALE AND RETAIL SEEDSMEN.

Queen Street, Charlottetown.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, entertained the members of the Legislature to dinner tonight and tomorrow night.

The German steamer Mars which sailed from Pensaola for Leer, Germany with a crew of twenty on Feb. 1st is reported as missing. It is likely she foundered with all hands.

The steamers Northumberland and Princess as well as the Minto, are now plying between Charlottetown and Picton. The Stanley is running between Georgetown and Picton.

The golden jubilee of St. Dunstan's College will be celebrated at the College on Wednesday July 19th. There will be a religious celebration in the forenoon and a picnic in the afternoon. Make no other engagement for that date.

While a party of eight young men were enjoying a walk on the beach near Manchester N. H. Sunday a small steamer, the boat, when 200 yards from the shore, causing a panic among those on board and swamping the craft. The result was the death of two of the party viz: Charles Kettle, aged 22; Louis B. Bedard aged 21. Kettle became exhausted in trying to swim ashore and was unable to get back. Bedard was not seen after the accident. It is believed he was struck by the boom.

Two of Quebec's big men have passed away: Hon. Gibernou, Attorney-General in first Government formed after confederation, and later on Prime Minister, is dead, at a ripe old age. He had also been Superintendent of Education, and a Legislative Councillor. L. P. Tardivel, editor of La Verite, Quebec is also dead. When he entered St. Hyacinthe College at nineteen years of age, he knew no French, having been born in the United States; yet he lived to be perhaps the most correct French writer in the province of Quebec.

A man named Thomas Forrest, hailing from Halifax and holding a through ticket from Halifax to Reno Nevada, fell off the G. T. R. train going west and was killed. The body was found between the double tracks, two miles east of Prescott, Ont., about ten o'clock Saturday morning. His head was stove in on one side and his face was scratched. He must have been instantly killed. From papers and postal cards found in his possession it would appear that there was a lady travelling with him—probably his wife. A recommendation was found in his pocket from Kelly and Glassie, Halifax; also postal cards giving the address of Miller Forrest, Ellershouse and William Davis, Halifax.

One woman was badly burned while a score of women and children had a narrow escape from death in a fire in a tenement house, 24 Billerica St., Boston, in the west end of the city last Sunday night. The fire which is believed to be of incendiary origin started beside the front stairs in the hall and the draught carried the flames up to the top of the house. Bridget Whalen, 45 years old was terribly burned. She was found lying on her face in an upper hallway, with the flames about her and her clothing on fire. Firemen took her down the ladder to the street. Many other persons were rescued by the firemen. The damage is estimated at several thousand dollars.

Fifteen dead, and five injured is the result of a fire which destroyed the convent of the Sisters of St. Anne at St. Genevieve near Montreal Good Friday morning. When the inmates of St. Genevieve convent retired to bed there were ten sisters and thirty seven pupils and five old ladies. Of these, one reverend lady, nine pupils and four old women perished. One old woman who fell a victim to the flames, Madame Tolvin would have been 100 years old had she lived till next month. The Parish Priest of St. Genevieve is Rev. J. B. Bourget was on the ground early and did splendid work attending to the wounded. Early in the morning the reverend gentleman received the following despatch from the Archbishop of Montreal "stricken down by the terrible catastrophe which has brought mourning to so many families, to the Sisters of St. Anne and to the whole parish. I pray God may console you, fortify and strengthen you. Tomorrow I will repair to your village in order to extend my profound sympathy. Paul, Archbishop. The loss sustained by the Sisters of St. Anne by the destruction in their convent reaches about $15,000 the amount being covered by insurance.

The Solemn offices of Holy Week and Easter were well carried out in St. Dunstan's Cathedral. The Te Deum was sung in the Cathedral on the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, by his Lordship, the Bishop, the Cathedral clergy, the Cathedral choir and the priests and Students of St. Dunstan's College. His Lordship celebrated Solemn Pontifical Mass and blessed the Oils on Holy Thursday, assisted by the priests of the Cathedral and the College. The Blessed Sacrament was borne in solemn procession to a repository suitable adjoined at the altar of the Sacred Heart. At the adoration of the Cross and the Mass of the Pre Sanctified on Good Friday, his Lordship officiated assisted by Rev. B. D. McDonald, D. D., as deacon and Rev. Father Gaudet as sub-deacon, and Rev. Dr. McLellan as master of ceremonies. The Passion was sung by Rev. Dr. Morrison, who sang the narrative part, Rev. Dr. Curran, who sang whatever was said by our Lord, and Rev. Theodore Gallant, who sang whatever was said by a third party. On Holy Saturday, Rev. Dr. Morrison was celebrant; Rev. Dr. Curran was deacon and sang the exultet, Rev. Joseph Gallant was sub-deacon and Rev. Dr. McLellan master of ceremonies. His Lordship, the Bishop celebrated Solemn Pontifical Mass on Easter Sunday, assisted by Rev. Dr. Curran as arch-priest, Rev. Dr. McLellan and Joseph Gallant as deacons of honor, Rev. Fathers McPherson and Gaudet as deacon and sub-deacon of office. The ceremonies were directed by Rev. Dr. Morrison. Rev. Dr. Morrison was also the preacher of the occasion. His sermon was a powerful presentation of the miracle of our Lord's resurrection. Solemn Pontifical Vespers and Benediction were given in the evening.
