Butler says, "A gentleman's taste in dress is upon principle the avoidance of all things extravagant; it consists in the quiet simplicity of exquisite neatness." My new fall suitings and overcoatings are very attractive, of Cashmere, plain and wale, Black Cheviots and Worsted. These goods are carefully handled in the manufacture, and are properly cut and trimmed. No city merchant tailor turns out handsomer, better fitting or more durable suits. TESTIMONIALS.

WALTON, August 1st, 1888.

J. M. McLeod, Goderich. SIR,—I had more benefit from your medicine, Renovator and Specific Cure, this time than any of the preceding prescriptions. I have gained five pounds in weight and feel stronger.

J. McFADZEAN.

WALTON, Dec. 10th, 1888. DEAR SIR,—I got the medicines all right. I am feeling splendid and gaining strength. My Stomach, Liver and Kidneys seem to be getting in good order. I can walk two miles easily now. Gained over forty pounds.

Yours, &c., J. McFADZEAN.

NOTE:—ONE YEAR AFTERWARDS.

WALTON, Dec. 10th, 1889.

DEAR SIR,—I am very thankful for the health and strength I have got. I can walk all day long at ordinary farm work. I can eat a good square meal of plain food and feel good after it; I am gaining steadily yet. Now, I must thank you for what you have done for me, because I was restored to health—it was the general opinion I was going.

Yours, &c., J. McFADZEAN.

BLTNE, Jan. 18th, 1890.

J. M. McLeod.

DEAR SIR,—As you were anxious to know how I would be getting along, I may tell you that I am getting nearly all right now. The bottle of Renovator which my father got from you did me much good; it gave me a great appetite. Miss M. Pickers, who was to see you last summer and took your Renovator was cured by it. She is now in the States and doing well. Your friend, J. NESBITT.

OUR QUIET CHAT!

last week was duly appreciated by a number of our customers, who, taking the opportunity offered, made their purchases of wall paper, and made money by so doing. Our bargains are not confined to wall paper alone, but we have the largest stock of household necessities west of the cities. And, as we said last week, this being the last year of our partnership, we have no desire to hold goods and any reasonable cash offer will not be refused. Now, if you are going to a wedding, for instance, what more appropriate than one of those handsome cruet sets, $3.50, which we used to sell at $5, or one of those elegant cake baskets for $5, which were considered bargains at $8 or $10; but these are only a sample of the bargains we offer. Call and see us, next door to post office.
