DIRECTIONS

For the Guidance of Electors in Voting. Each Elector on entering the room where the poll is being held, shall declare his name, surname, and addition.

After so doing he shall receive a ballot paper in the above form. Each elector, if required by the Deputy Returning Officer, the Poll Clerk, one of the Candidates, or one of their agents, shall, before receiving his ballot paper, take an oath of qualification.

The voter is not to vote for more than six candidates as Councillors. After receiving the ballot paper the voter shall go into one of the compartments and with a pencil, there provided, place a cross in the divisions containing the names of the six candidates for Councillors for whom he intends to vote thus—X.

The voter will then fold the ballot paper, so as to show a portion of the back only, with the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer and hand it so folded up to the Deputy Returning Officer, and the Deputy Returning Officer shall, without unfolding it, ascertain that it is the ballot paper which he furnished to the elector, and then immediately place it in the ballot box. The voter shall forthwith leave the Polling Station.

If a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he may return it to the Deputy Returning Officer, who will give him another. If a voter votes for more candidates than he is entitled to vote for, or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted.

If a voter takes a ballot or ballot paper out of the Polling Station, or fraudulently puts any other paper into the Ballot Box than the paper given him by the Deputy Returning Officer, he will be subject to punishment by a fine of five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a time not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

F. J. DOYLE, Returning Officer.

Downs Wins the Walking Match.

The annual walking match held under the auspices of St. Andrew's Club, took place yesterday afternoon. There were ten competitors, viz:—

G. Downs, J. Steele, W. Duff, C. Renouf, W. Larner, W. Tucker, A. King, J. Halfyard, J. Duff and J. Tucker.

The start was made from St. Andrew's Club Rooms at 2.15 in presence of a large gathering of people who lined both sides of the street right over to Rawlins' Cross.

The weather was quite suitable for walking as there was a steady easterly breeze prevailing which made the air cool.

When Robinson's Hill was reached the competitors began to get detached and W. Tucker, J. Steele and George Downs were ahead of the other seven a sufficiently long distance to predict that one of them would be the winner.

Near Ricketts' Bridge the two Duffs came to the front on a sprint. W. Duff being first and J. Duff second. Steele held the third place.

Downs had dropped to fifth place now began to come up and by the time Windsor Lake was in sight he had come up to third place and was bent on beating the two Duffs that were before him.

When Hughes' Pond was reached Downs had taken second place and Steele came third. From this time on Downs got in his work, and when Broad Cove Road was reached he had taken the van with Duff close at his heels.

He continued to gradually increase his lead; Duff being still second and Steele third. It now looked almost certain that Downs would be the man. He was in good condition, and gradually getting the distance broadened between himself and the next two men.

At the Thornburn Turnpike he gained at a great rate on Duff and Steele, and coming down the ridge was fully 150 yards in advance of Duff, Steele being still in third place. The other seven men were so far behind now that the spectators of the race did not pay any particular attention to them.

At Power's Pond the race was conceded by most of the spectators to Downs, barring accidents. He still looked in good condition and went along at a swinging pace; Duff and Steele were now nearly a half mile behind him. This did not make Downs relax, and taking the Freshwater Road, by Baird's Cottage, he put on a beautiful spurt which delighted his friends and backers. Duff had now dropped to third place and gave way to Steele. From Baird's Cottage to town Downs kept up a good pace and retained it all the way to town coming in the winner of first place.

Time: 3 hours, 14 mins. and 52 seconds, thus winning the gold watch presented by Mr. F. J. Martin; Steele came second. Time: 3 hours, 20 minutes and 7 seconds; and W. Duff third. Time: 3 hours, 22 mins., 2 secs.; W. Tucker fourth, 3 hours, 23 mins. and 45 seconds. The others did not get in under the time limit, and two dropped out of the contest near Broad Cove and drove to town in carriages.

The judges were:—T. McNeil, W. J. Higgins, C. W. Ellis, F. J. Martin, M. Chaplin, R. Templeton, A. Munn, J. W. Morris and J. Baxter.

Downs was only 1 minute and 15 seconds behind the time made by O. W. Steele last year.

The following are the records since those contests began:—1906.—J. W. Morris. Time: 3 hrs., 36 mins., 27 secs. 1907.—H. Hayward. Time: 3 hrs., 31 mins., 4 secs. 1908.—W. Fynn. Time: 3 hrs., 26 mins., 26 secs. 1909.—O. W. Steele. Time: 3 hrs., 13 mins., 37 secs.

1910.—George Downs. Time: 3 hrs., 14 mins., 52 secs.

Downs deserves great praise for his pluck and persistence. This is the third attempt on his part to win the prize and such perseverance is well worthy of success.

THAT YOUNG GIRL NOT STRONG. Perhaps she is fourteen, sixteen, twenty. Something has gone wrong in her system. It may be blood-making power or digestion, or some of the intricate elements essential to robust, vivacious womanhood.

Any way her strength fails, her eyes lose their lustre, her color fades, and thin, watery, ill-nourishing blood results. How her spirits droop! You are alarmed. Is there any remedy? You anxiously ask. Yes, all may be corrected speedily by Ferrozone; (blood food). Give her Ferrozone; in a week note how her color returns. Her appetite by this time is vigorous, she eats well and enjoys everything she eats for her digestion is fine. Her eyes grow bright and clear, she is all sunshine and vigor in blood, nerves, brain and muscle in young or old, not by stimulation, but by its power of reconstructing the blood and restoring buoyant vitality. Ferrozone, per box, 50 cents.

Patronal Service.

To-morrow being St. John the Baptist Day (Patronal Festival), the following special service will be sung in the C. of E. Cathedral at 7.30 p.m.:—Hymn 601—"The God of Abraham praise."

Proper Psalms, cxxxiii, cxxxiv. Magnificat, Nunc Dimittis—Stanford in B flat. Anthem—"How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place," Brahms. Hymn 414—"Lo! from the desert homes." Hymn, after sermon, 145—"Glorious things of thee are spoken." Solemn Te Deum. The Blessing. Hymn 379—"Now thank we all our God."

Supreme Court.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. F. E. Collingwood vs. J. J. Rossiter. J. A. W. McNelly for plaintiff moved for a day. M. F. Gibbs for defendant concurs. By consent of parties the other case of Rossiter & Co. vs. Collingwood will be transferred to the Master.

Arthur Mannel, respondent vs. Rodder Supply Co., appellant. This is an appeal from the judgment of Mr. W. J. Scott, the Magistrate at Twillingate. Mr. Furlong, K.C., for appellant is heard. Mr. Gibbs for respondent is also heard. Furlong is heard in reply. C. A. V. Nfld. Steam Whaling Co. vs. W. O. Waage.

Application for cancellation of bonds. W. J. Higgins for plaintiff is heard. W. E. Wood for defendant is heard in reply. It is ordered that the application for bonds be cancelled.

TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

(Before the Full Bench.) J. J. Minilla, Administrator of Geo. Barry, vs. James Barry and others. J. A. W. McNelly for plaintiff moves for a day in October next, but if the Circuit Court opens at Greenspond he would ask that the trial go on there. Mr. Furlong objects to the case being transferred. The Chief Justice suggests to Mr. McNelly to write to the Minister of Justice asking that the practice of the Supreme Court going on circuit be continued.
