Resignation of Secretary Bryan.

In view of the announcement of the resignation of Mr. Bryan, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, we direct the attention of our readers to an article we re-publish on the third page of this issue from the Boston Transcript, under the caption of "Demands an Ultimatum." It throws a light on the differences between President Wilson and the Secretary over whose name the former American Note was sent to Germany. The Boston Transcript says: "For the last three weeks the country has received almost daily assurance from the White House that the President was not consulting his Secretary of State even indirectly regarding the Government's course in dealing with Germany, and we hope that admirable example there set will be adhered to in the Government's subsequent steps." Apparently President Wilson and Secretary Bryan do not see eye to eye as to the course which should be pursued by the United States in its relations to the German Republic. That probably accounts for the interview which took place between the President and the Ambassador and the despatch of a German attaché from Washington to Berlin, said to be prompted by Bryan. It also accounts for the fact that the despatch of the American Rejoinder, to which Bryan apparently declined to attach his signature, and it moreover indicates that President Wilson's despatch will be firm and determined, and will not accord with Bryan's wishes that the Note should be of such a character, that would in no circumstances involve the United States in grave complications with Germany. Secretary Bryan's resignation takes effect to-day and we may expect to learn the tenor of the American Note immediately.

To Help the Blind.

A meeting to consider some means of assisting the adult blind of Newfoundland was held at the Grenfell Hall yesterday afternoon. Lady Davidson, who presided, in opening the meeting referred to the work done by a close friend of hers who was blind, and then introduced Mr. J. Weir, the speaker of the evening. Mr. Weir, whose work is devoted to the service of the blind, stated that his work was a labor of love, as had been Lady Davidson's when attending her friend, and wished to express his appreciation for her sympathy towards the movement. He then reviewed the work of the Halifax School for the Blind since its inception 46 years ago. He traced the good work done by the founder, Mr. William Murdoch, the results achieved by the masters and pupils of the school, and paid a glowing tribute to Dr. C. F. Fraser, whose achievements in educating the blind have been recognized by many seats of learning, particularly Dalhousie University, and whose work had a few days ago been recognized by His Majesty the King, who conferred on him the honor of Knighthood. He referred to the work accomplished by many who are, though deprived of sight, occupying important positions in various trades and professions. He quoted incidents to show that by neglecting to provide education for our blind there was great danger of the afflicted ones losing their reason because of the lack of occupation. In conclusion he made a strong appeal to all present to do all possible to assist in promoting the welfare of their afflicted friends.

It was decided at the meeting to form at once the Newfoundland Auxiliary Society for the home teaching of the adult blind, those present to be the general committee with Lady Davidson as Honorary President; Mrs. M. Winter, President, and Mrs. T. J. Duley, Secretary. This auxiliary will be affiliated with the W. P. A., with the approval of that body, which is confidently hoped. The officers will be elected shortly and the auxiliary will work with the extension movement of the Halifax Institute for the Blind. The matter of raising funds will be fully discussed at a later meeting.

The movement is a most laudable one and it is expected that every woman in the Colony will do her share towards providing means of assisting our adult blind.

Obituary.

WALTER JOHNSTON.

There passed peacefully away at Roxbury, Mass., U.S.A., on May 26th, one of the old time coopers of this city in the person of Mr. Walter Johnston. The deceased will be remembered by the coopers of this city who plied the adze during the 'sixties'. He served his time with the firm of Walter Grieve & Co., and left here for Montreal some forty years ago. Leaving Montreal he proceeded to Roxbury, where he worked for many years with the Highland Brewery Co. of that city. We understand that his father was a native of Scotland and came to this country as book-keeper for the firm of Baine, Johnston & Co., and was a relative of his employer. Mr. Johnston was always pleased to meet Newfoundlanders who visited Boston, and in many cases has been known to befriending many whom he found in need. As far as we know the only surviving relative of his brother William, who resides at Boston, to whom the Telegram extends sincere sympathy.

Football.

The Football League is meeting to-day, principally to draw up the season's fixtures. It is understood that the Stars will not be represented in the League this year. The Star team always took a foremost place in football heretofore and it is a regrettable fact that they are dropping out this season. The C.E.L. Fieldians and St. Andrew's teams are fast getting into shape and each, of course, are going to be champions. The St. Bon's and B. I. S. have also lined up and practicing hard. The Casuals are also having a few spasms those evenings.

College Rugby.

The opening Rugby game for the season between the Fieldians and Collegians took place on St. George's Field yesterday afternoon. A large gathering of spectators were present. The contest was very exciting and resulted in the Fieldians winning by 18 points. Mr. N. A. Outerbridge refereed and the personnel of the teams were:

B. F. C. Forwards—E. Cheesman, J. Hefferton, C. Blackmore, E. Parrott, P. Hiccock, L. Thorne, A. Ralph.

Amusements.

SIDNEY DREW AND JOHN BUNNY.

Sidney Drew and John Bunny appear at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day in two notable comedies. Drew in "A Model Young Man," and Bunny in "A Change in Baggage Checks." There are three fine dramas: "The Crime of Cain," "With His Hands," and "The Song of Sunny Italy." "With His Hands" is an Edison production the story of a man who disappears; see the regular advertisement for an outline of the stories. Mr. Delmonico sings a new ballad: "When you were a Tulip and I were a Rose." This is Mr. Delmonico's last week in St. John's, hear him sing this fine song to-day. Open afternoons at 2 o'clock, and evenings at 7 o'clock.

AMBUSHED.

Those who witnessed the production of "Ambushed" at the house of masterpieces last night were treated to an excellent show. It is so absorbing that the spectator's attention never leaves the canvas. The masterful manner in which Mitchell thwarts the villains in his rescue of Mabel and the brilliant and clever way in which he afterwards protects her are scenes that are full of excitement and romance. This great photoplay will be repeated to-night and those who have not yet seen it should not miss the opportunity which is now offered.

THE BRITISH THEATRE.

This popular theatre has an attractive mid-week programme that will be sure to please. The magnificent two-part, photo-play, "The Quicksands" is a masterpiece by the Kalem players; the acting is superb and the scenery which is amongst the Philippine Islands is most interesting. "The Unwritten Play" by the Vitagraph players is an intensely interesting drama, and "Broncho Billy's Duty" is a strong western drama featuring the celebrated cowboy actor G. M. Anderson. The two farces, comedies "Love and Hash" and "The Chief's Love Affair," which are included in the programme will appeal to all lovers of good comedy. Mr. Arthur Priestman Cameron will be heard in favorite comedy numbers and Miss Keeping will preside at the piano. Patrons of the British will be pleased to learn that a new passage way has been made up the centre of the hall which will greatly add to their convenience and comfort.

LITTLE BO PEEP AND BOY BLUE.

There was a big house at Rossley's last night and each patron deserved a medal for sitting indoors on so warm a night, but Rossley's is certainly one of the coolest spots on a warm night, well ventilated. The Irish act, "Paddy Boy," was delightful and loudly applauded. The tickets for Friday night are selling quickly, and on Friday there will be some fun as several new comedies have entered their names, there are several lady dancers. Get your tickets while there is time. The beautiful production for Monday has the town talking because in this production there are several very great novelties; the farmyard scene, the transformation scene, representing the four seasons: Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. Rossley's ahead all the time in good shows and originality.

MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY.

Harold MacGrath's wonderful story, "The Million Dollar Mystery," will be continued at the Nickel Theatre to-day, and it being the first holiday there promises to be a larger attendance than usual. All are interested in the picture especially the young folk. There are other splendid pictures to-day, too. "The Hazard of Helen" will be shown on Friday, this is a splendid series. Forbes Law Duguid is coming to the Nickel shortly. He is Canada's foremost baritone.

Red Cross Sailings.
