Meeting of Patriotic Association.

A meeting of the Patriotic Association was held at the Board of Trade Rooms last night, at which His Excellency the Governor presided, and some fifty members were present. The reports of the various committees were submitted and adopted. The report of the Patriotic Fund Committee showed that up to June 30th $35,563.22 had been paid to the beneficiaries in Newfoundland and $938 in Canada, which leaves a balance on hand of over $90,000.00. The total number of beneficiaries of the fund is now 194. Up to the present no information has been received from the Admiralty regarding allowances for the dependants of the Naval Reservists lost to date, and pending the receipt of this the Patriotic Fund will pay an amount equal to the allotment and separation allowance to the dependants of these men for a period of six months after death, and in cases where no allotment was made help is being provided in the same way, until some definite arrangements are made by the Admiralty. The Government has stipulated that all such payments are to be regarded as part of any pensions or allowances to which the dependants may be found to be entitled.

The Finance Committee reported that the cost of conveying company F across had been paid, and the providing of equipment for Company G had been authorized and measures taken to provide ammunition for rifle practice. Up to June 30th $353,173.02 had been paid on account of the First Newfoundland Regiment and $150,697.80 on account of the Reserve Force. The Reserve Force Committee reported that they had held eight meetings since the last general meeting of the Association, and expressed their gratification at the splendid arrangements made for the transport of the last Company which were mainly due to His Excellency the Governor, and which resulted so satisfactorily and with the saving of considerable expense to the Colony.

Some 65 men are already on the Volunteer Roll and training for No. 7, or G Co. The usual instructors are doing good work and the officers commanding the over-seas force have been requested to nominate and dispatch officers to take charge of the new company. The total number who have volunteered since the formation of the Reserve Committee is 2018, of whom 1100 have been sworn in for service abroad. These numbers do not include those who enlisted in the First Contingent. All departments connected with the training of Co. G are very efficient and credit is due those in charge, particularly of the Equipment and Musketry Committees. The report continued a tribute of praise to the work of Capt. Montgomerie in connection with F Co., and referred to the satisfactory reports being received continually of the conduct and efficiency of the men in Scotland.

After the adoption of the reports Mr. W. G. Gosling, chairman of the Civic Commission, referred to the communication recently received from the Overseas Club, re the contributing of an aeroplane to the Aviation Service, and stated that the Commission would meet this evening to consider details regarding the matter. It is thought that two machines may be supplied, one from the Colony and one from the Municipality. His Excellency was thereupon empowered to nominate a committee to raise the necessary funds.

After the business of the meeting was finished His Excellency delivered an address on "Some Developments of the War" dealing with the subject under the following headings:—
(1) Present Military Position.
(2) Submarines.
(3) Warfare in the Air.
(4) Effective strength of the Armies.
(5) War Losses.
(6) The Dangers which beset Germany.
The discourse was a most interest-

CATARRH NEVER STOPS IN SAME PLACE
REACHES THE LUNGS—DEVELOPES CONSUMPTION

TO STOP A COLD QUICKLY AND PREVENT CATARRH, USE "CATARRHOZONE."

Nothing more serious than the common cold.
If it gains headway you can't stop it from running into Catarrh, deafness, or serious throat trouble.
Catarrh spreads very fast.
From nose to throat it goes in a day. Soon the Bronchial tubes are affected—and before you know it, unless very healthy the lungs are hit, and it's too late.
While you have the chance, drive colds and Catarrh right out of the system.
You can quickly do so by inhaling the rich play vapor of Catarrhozone.

ing one, and at the close, a vote of thanks, proposed by Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris and seconded by Sir W. H. Horwood was tendered His Excellency by acclamation.

Must Have $25

OR PROOF OF ASSURED EMPLOYMENT.
July 6th, 1915.
Dear Sir,—By reason of the representations made to the Government at Ottawa by the Government of this Colony, the Immigration authorities have decided to admit the entrance of Newfoundlanders who are going to assured employment, but who may not have the necessary money qualifications. In order to guard against the over-supply of labour from Newfoundland which might occur if the money qualification were entirely waived, the Immigration authorities of Canada have stipulated that those coming forward, without the $25 in their possession, must satisfy the Agent that they are going to assured employment. All persons from this Colony therefore, going forward to take up promised employment must see that they have with them documentary or other evidence to show that work awaits them at some specific point immediately upon arrival. Without such evidence, the authorities will not admit them unless they possess the necessary $25.
Yours truly
J. R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary.

In Milady's Boudoir.

CONTROL YOUR NERVES.
If women built up their bodies by outdoor exercise and at the same time cared for delicate complexions and fine hair, Americans would be the most beautiful women in the world. There is only one thing that may prevent this ambition and that is the nerves. You may think because the Frenchwoman is quick and slim, that she is a bundle of nerves but that is not so. She is temperamental and her emotions are near the surface, but her nerves have rest because she never worries from one day to the next.

The American does such a host of nerve racking things to mar her beauty. I know a woman who is free every hour of the week, and yet she will shop on Saturday when the mental tension of a crowded store is at its height. We Americans have a rest for we fill our spare moments in reading exciting fiction, watching intense dramas, or playing bridge as if our lives depended on it.

You must learn to control your mind when there is real need of physical rest, for worry only too quickly leaves its stamp on the features. If you have missed a train don't pace the platform and search the face of the clock, and frown at the gateman.

Do your best to cultivate repose and nerve control and you will conquer our national weakness. Follow the English habit of taking cross-country walks in the open air, and study the French woman's clever maneuvers to improve her natural looks. The combination of these three should give you real claims to that elusive quality known as beauty.

BISURATED MAGNESIA

For dyspepsia, indigestion, souring of food, gas, and hyperacidity of the stomach (acid stomach). A teaspoonful in a fourth of a glass of hot water usually gives INSTANT RELIEF. Sold by all druggists in either powder or tablet form at 75 cents per bottle.

REMARKABLE RESULTS OF IN-OCULATION FOR TYPHOID.

London, July 1.—Remarkable evidence of the efficacy of inoculation against typhoid was furnished by Harold J. Tennant, Parliamentary Under-Secretary for War in the House of Commons this afternoon.

In the British Expeditionary Force in France, he said, there had been only 827 cases and 128 deaths up to May 27. Of this number 608 cases were persons who had not been inoculated and 106 of these died. There were only 22 deaths among the 308 men inoculated who, despite inoculation, contracted the disease.

The Beothucks.

Treatise by Mr. Howley, F.G.S.
We have received from Mr. James P. Howley, F.G.S., a copy of his work on "The Beothucks or Red Indians. The original inhabitants of Newfoundland." It has just been published by the Cambridge University Press, at the price of One Guinea. It is a quarto volume of nearly 400 pages. It is the result of forty years work in gathering up information on the subject. It is illustrated with pictures and drawings of what is known of the Beothucks, containing thirty-seven plates, and a copy of the original manuscript by them used by them as weapons for warfare, hunting and domestic purposes. The subject matter of the treatise we have not yet read, but we hope before long to give a more extended review of this important contribution to the prehistoric story of the aboriginals of Newfoundland.

DADDY'S LETTER—TALK OF A HERO FOR A LITTLE GIRL.

The following touching letter, dated May 25, has been sent by a British officer at the front to his little daughter, aged eight, in Dublin:
"Daddy cannot send you a gift for your birthday. He is too far away from shops. He will try and tell you of one of his men which will make you proud of the man. He is in charge of two of daddy's guns in a trench, when all of a sudden the Germans put some of their poison over him. He stayed with his guns as long as he could and then had to crawl away into a road. When he was picked up by a motor-car the next day he was nearly dying.
"He was put into a hospital, and to-day daddy said that, but poor man, he could hardly talk. But he was very worried and seemed so glad to see daddy. I talked to him for a long time, and at last he managed to say: 'Get the guns back. One is in action in the communicating trench and one at the back. Tell Lieut. Cook; he will explain to you.'
"That was all he could say, and he never thought of himself. He only thought of the guns, because it was his duty to look after them. Was not that a fine man, Ruth, and was not he a man to be proud of? And was not it well that daddy could see him and let him get his one thought known? So must you be, my dear. If ever you should have something to do, think of that something and not of your little self at all.
"Daddy wishes he could be like that himself. When he sees such grand men around him it makes him wish it all the more, and it makes him so proud of his men. This poor man has been sent to England, and I hope he will live and get a V.C. His name is Sergeant Watson, R.F.A. So, my dear, remember him, if ever you should come across such a good man. That's my story, and it's a true one."

SANTE FE.
By GEORGE FITCH
Author of "At Good Old Sivash"
Santa Fe is one of the two cities of North America which have already celebrated their 300th birthdays. Boston and New York are proud of their age and of the amount of action which has been crowded into their careers. But little Santa Fe, which had 6,500 people twenty-five years ago and has been growing rapidly backward ever since, has had a livelier time than either, and is old enough to be the parents of both. In its 310 years it has been under five governments—the best captured several times by Indians—has had Spanish, Indian, Mexican, Confederate and United States governments—and has been capital of half a dozen varieties of States, territories and nations.
Santa Fe was founded by the Spaniards in 1605, and is now capital of the State of New Mexico. It is located almost 7,000 feet above the sea in the mountains and the transcontinental traveler has to climb off his train and travel eighteen miles to find it. Its old section with its narrow, crooked streets and mud houses which last longer than stone, is as picturesque as anything in America. Its new section is as up-to-date. It has the capitol, the historic library, two Spanish papers, an interesting Plaza, a monument to Kit Carson and many relics of American history which were getting old before the Mayflower furniture landed.
Santa Fe has citizens who can trace their ancestry back to the founding of the town. They would be just as proud of it as the Boston people if they knew how to read.
Santa Fe was captured and ruled by Indians for twelve years from 1690 on. It was captured again in 1823 and the governor was killed. General Lewis Wallace lived in its quaint 300 year old abode governor's palace and finished "Ben Hur" there. It was the western terminus of the Santa Fe trail which began at Kansas, Ill., and in the first half of the last century saw more miscellaneous excitement and dodged more bullets from bad Indians and worse white men than any other American town.
Those of us who cannot go to Spain will do well to stop off at Santa Fe, where we can see the ruins of many a Hidalgo and can learn more of the early struggles of the wonderful Southwest than we ever suspected before.

YOUR BOYS AND GIRLS

Your baby should spend most of its indoor life in a nursery free from damp, exposed to sunshine and with free ventilation. There must also be freedom from dust gathering—carpets and furniture, arsenic papered walls, and filth harbouring cracks in the floor. There must be absolute cleanliness in every condition surrounding the child's life.
It's bed must be far enough away at night from that of the adults to avoid breathing their breath, avoidance of currents of air to avoid rheumatism, painted toys on account of possible poisoning, the avoidance of woolen or feather toys.
You should weigh the infant carefully each week, on a correct standing scale, to determine if its gain is what it should be, if properly fed. Unless there is some definite contraindication, a child should be bathed every morning in water adapted to its vitality, never so cold as to cause blueness or cold extremities, or so hot as to prove injurious.

Embroidered garments should always be ironed on the wrong side up on several thicknesses of flannel. This makes the pattern stand out quite boldly.
Watch with care the bread box during the sultry season. Flour is too expensive to be cast out, and mouldy bread is the result of careless housekeeping.

THE MEAT QUESTION
is readily solved when one has something to guide them. This market assists in solving the problem by placing at the disposal of the public THE BEST LINE OF MEATS day by day that can be had. Weather conditions don't alter the high grade quality of our meat. As to price, it is always consistent and reasonable.

VENIZELLOS' ROLE.

Philadelphia Evening Ledger:—It seems that only the hesitancy or objection of the other Balkans can stop Greece now. Yet we must remember that it was this great Premier, Venizelos, who brought the Balkans into league against the Turk. Once Greece is in—and with her, doubtless Rumania and Bulgaria—the possibilities are definite enough. The forcing of the Dardanelles, the fall of Constantinople, and driving of the Turk from his last European provinces will come quickly. They will also bring a clear advantage at last to Russia in her Austrian game of seaway.
BOY OF FIFTEEN A VETERAN NOW.
The adventures of a lad of fifteen years and eight months are recounted by Rifleman Ernest V. Arron, 8th City of London, who writes to his home from the Howard Ward, Lewis-ham Military Hospital.
The lad's name is Private Patrick McCann, 2nd Battalion Royal Scots Fusiliers.
August 13—Enlisted (then only fifteen years eight months).
October 4—Went to France.
October 18—Fought at Ypres. In battalion when nearly surrounded. Only seventy-three left out of 1,100.
December 7—Went to Baileux.
December 18—Went into action with Warwick's, and helped capture three lines German trenches.
March 10—Went into battle of Neuve Chapelle; fought six days. April 29—Went back to Neuve Chapelle trenches.
May 5—Relieved.
May 6—Entered the engagement of Fleurbaix.
May 9—Came out of that.
May 16—Attacked on right of Aubers.
McCann is now in hospital through straining his back by falling on a barricade while crossing German trenches.
The lad gave Rifleman Arron, the above account while both were in hospital at Merville. The boy had just had his boots and socks off for the first time in eighteen days.
