

Farmer Edward Crane, of Kinburn, Ont., writes:—"I was driving three horses on a disc-harrow when the harness broke and while fixing it, one of the horses kicked me against the sharp edges of the harrow. I sustained a nasty cut on my elbow and wrist, and as I could not leave work to get the wounds dressed, dirt got into them and my arm became very painful. It looked for some time as if I were going to have some very bad sores, but I was advised to try Zam-Buk. I did, and in a few days my arm was much better—less painful, and the stiffness less troublesome. I continued using Zam-Buk freely and in a short time the wounds were entirely healed. I believe Zam-Buk to be the best ointment obtainable. It should always be at hand ready for emergencies."

Mothers and fathers should bear this in mind. In the home, on the playground, at school, or in the workshop accidents will happen, and Zam-Buk is the "first aid." It is strongly antiseptic—kills the germs which cause inflammation, festering and blood-poison. The rich herbal essences of which Zam-Buk is composed, soothe pain and quickly heal any injury. Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for eczema, ulcers, abscesses, piles, blood-poisoning and all skin diseases. 50c. box, all druggists and stores of post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. AIR RAID ON LONDON.

LONDON, To-day. The Home Office, shortly after midnight, issued the following report of the raid: A Zeppelin raid made yesterday evening over a portion of the London area, when a certain number of incendiary bombs were dropped. The material damage done was small. A few fires resulted but they were quickly put out by the fire brigades. The Admiralty will issue a statement to-day when particulars are available. At present it is only possible to say that no public buildings were injured, that the casualties so far reported number two women and six men killed, and about 30 injured. With the exception of one soldier killed all these were civilians. These figures include all casualties reported up to 11.45 o'clock on Wednesday evening.

KING CONSTANTINE'S APOLOGIA.

ATHENS, To-day. The Greek reply to Serbia's representations that the Bulgarian attack on Serbia completes the act of aggression, contemplated under the treaty of alliance between Greece and Serbia, and asking if the Greek army is ready to enter action against Bulgaria, was delivered to-day. Beginning with the declaration that the Royal Government greatly regrets it is unable to accede to Serbia's request, the reply explains that the alliance of 1911 while foreseeing Bulgaria's aggression was limited to preserving the equilibrium among Balkan States. The preamble treaty, the reply continues to define it as purely of a Balkan character and not applying to a general conflagration. Both the treaty of alliance and the military convention concluding it, prove first that the contracting parties contemplated only isolated attacks by Bulgaria against one of them. The note minutely argues that the treaty does not cover the situation which has arisen to-day, a situation in which the Greek army is to destroy herself without hope of saving Serbia, which cannot wish for such result. It is added that common interests demand that the Greek army still be kept in reserve for a better use later. The note concluded with the declaration that Greece intends to remain armed neutral and assures Serbia that Greece will continue to give her every assistance and facility compatible with Greece's exclusively international position.

CARSON DENIES RESIGNATION.

LONDON, To-day. A report having become current yesterday that Sir Edward Carson had resigned, the Attorney General this evening, issued a denial of the report of his resignation.

THE LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, To-day. In the near east with the Austro-German and Bulgarian invasions of Serbia and the Anglo-French landing at Salonika and the promised active intervention of Russia, and the diplomatic possibilities in Greece and Roumania, continue to be the centre of interest throughout the belligerent countries. The Serbians, although greatly outnumbered by armies with superior equipment, are making a stubborn defence of their country, while the Austro-German progress though steady is very slow and probably will become slower still when the mountains where the Serbians are strongly entrenched, are reached. Of the Bulgarian campaign nothing new has been received since Nish reported the repulse of invaders, while the movements of the Anglo-French and Russian forces have thus far been kept from the knowledge of the public. The Russians have no easy task before them if they intend to land at Bulgaria. Varna and other where a landing might be made, have been strongly fortified under the direction of German officers and are protected by minefields. The Russians could sail down the Danube as that is an international water way, but it is doubtful if they have the necessary transport, while to come through Roumania would require the consent of the Government of that country, which although considered friendly to the Entente Powers might not wish to risk the displeasure of Germany. Some disappointment is expressed here at the decision of Italy not to participate. Italy laid claim to great influence in the Balkans, and is known to have aspirations in Asia Minor which the junction of the Germans and Turks, it is pointed out, would virtually bring to an end. With superfluous forces and excellent transport facilities, the view is held in London that Italy is in a better position than any of the Allies to lend a hand. The hope is expressed that she will yet do so. Meantime the Allies are closely watching developments of the internal situation in Bulgaria, where many people are adverse to fighting against the Allies, particularly Russia. It is reported from Paris to-night that General Savoff, former Bulgarian Minister of War and former Commander-in-Chief of the Bulgarian army, has resigned his command rather than fight against Russia. It is thought that the landing of Russians in Bulgaria might result in a change of policy in that country, even thus late in the day. There is little or no change on the western front, fighting again being for the trenches with fluctuating successes. The Allies maintain all their larger gains and are pressing the Germans in Flanders and Champagne. In the east the Russians have won an important victory in Galicia, routing three Austro-German divisions on the Strips River. In the north they have pushed Field Marshal Von Hindenburg several miles farther west of Dvinsk and are again approaching the Dvinsk-Vilna railway. The activity of British submarines in the Baltic continues and Germany is now conveying steamers to and from Sweden.

LIVELY ELECTION FIGHT IN SOUTH AFRICA.

CAPETOWN, To-day. A lively campaign for the election of members of the Assembly of the Union of South Africa is being waged throughout the country. The chief fight is between the followers of Premier Botha and the Nationalists, having opposed operations against the German South West Africa, and being against the despatch of a contingent of Union forces to Europe. Many political meetings degenerate into free fights. Botha who is speaking in the districts where his policy is strongly opposed, is accompanied by mounted burghers. The Nationalists have candidates in every constituency where they have the slightest chance of winning, while many independents have retired from the race in order to make it a straight contest between the two principal parties.

WILL PUBLISH TEXT OF GRECO-SERBIAN TREATY.

BULGARIA SHORT ON SHELLS.

ATHENS, To-day. Bulgaria has in stock only 1350 shells for each gun, according to information from Serbian sources. It is absolutely essential for its troops to effect a junction with the Austro-Germans who have invaded Serbia within a fortnight. It is reported from Sofia that German officers and a number of German workmen, who went there from Constantinople, erected a large munition factory which is now working night and day.

The heights which fell followed lasted all day but the Serbs were finally repulsed and the Bulgarians themselves occupied the heights.

GERMAN STEAMERS MISSING.

LONDON, To-day. Seventeen German ore steamers which ply in the Baltic Sea, are missing, according to a Stockholm despatch, and it is believed they have been sunk by British submarines.

RUSSIAN MUNITIONS GAVE SUCCESS.

THE HAGUE, To-day. Russian munitions, as declared by a Dutch correspondent in the eastern war theatre, to have been due to the overwhelming superiority of her supplies, which were taken by the Austro-Germans completely by surprise, and with which it is stated they were unable to cope.

KITCHENER AND CONSCRIPTION.

LONDON, To-day. No decision on the question of conscription was reached at the Cabinet Council yesterday according to the Daily News, which was pronounced session and conscriptionist Ministers pressed hard for a decision but failed to carry their point. There is little doubt, says the Daily News, that Lord Kitchener's sympathies now are definitely on side of conscription. The Times asserts, however, that the War Secretary has declined to assume responsibility of deciding what course shall be followed. He is reported to maintain that he entered Cabinet as a soldier not a politician and therefore does not regard himself as responsible for choosing the method for raising men. Lord Kitchener has reported to his colleagues that recruiting lately has dropped off seriously and that men must be found somehow, but that he is unfamiliar with social and industrial conditions in the country and that it is for him to state his requirements and for the country to fill them. Hence the Times declares that the real responsibility now rests upon cabinet. Apparently the efforts of labor leaders to induce men to enter the army is not meeting with the success expected and the likelihood of some form of conscription is becoming stronger.

Reports having been circulated that the Austrians are preparing to make new air raids over Venice, the authorities have ordered that stricter precautionary measures be adopted by the populace. A military order has been issued that windows shall be so screened that the light will not show through them. If a light is seen at a window the military guard will order it extinguished. Failure to comply with the order of the guard will result in a shot being fired through the window.

Died From Exposure.

By the S.S. Erik we learn of a tragedy which occurred at Pack's Hr. on Friday last, and resulted in the death of two young women named Fraser, daughters of Mr. Pequet, a trader of that place. Mrs. Pequet and her daughters, it appears, went in the country berry-picking, and not returning within a reasonable time, Mr. Pequet went to search for them. Having found them he started to bring them home and on the way they had to cross a small tickle. A storm came on and their little boat became swamped and all four were thrown into the stream. Mr. Pequet after a desperate struggle succeeded in bringing his wife and daughter safely to land, but the two girls who had been much fatigued died from exposure shortly after being rescued. The sad affair has cast a gloom over the settlement of Pack's Harbor, and much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Pequet over the loss of their daughters.

Many Go to The Front With The 85th—Many Have Offered to Go Forward on Active Service.

There will in all probability be a section and perhaps a platoon composed entirely of clergymen forming part of one of the companies of the 85th Nova Scotia Highlanders battalion for overseas service. Information to this effect is contained in the circular issued to recruiting officers reproduced below. Lt.-Colonel Borden, the officer commanding the new battalion, has stated that as so many clergymen have been offering to actually go to the front, either as chaplains or as soldiers, that he is quite willing to give them the opportunity and make things as congenial for them as possible by reserving part of his battalion for them so that they can all go together. Needless to say the new move is a popular one and its effect will be watched with interest. The official letter from Lieut. Ritchie, the chief recruiting officer is as follows:

The Chief Recruiting Officer has been requested by the commanding Officer, Lieut.-Col. Borden, to announce that all Clergymen so desiring shall be drafted into this Section or Platoon, and notice has been given to all Recruiting Officers according to:
