FROM A FALSE PREMISE.

The Advocate, our genial and esteemed evening contemporary, is ever posing as the one and only friend of the fishermen of Newfoundland, but its philosophy is unsound and its arguments based on false premises. Bluster and bluff are its chief characteristics, and whenever and wherever it can hoodwink the toilers it invariably seizes upon the opportunity. Straight argument and presentation of facts have no place in the Advocate's category. It is ever denying statements made by those opposed to its policy, yet never presents an affirmative, or proves its position. The reason is not far to seek. To beguile is its one desire. "The serpent tempted me and I did eat," is ever the excuse put forward by the organ of the Fishermen's Protective Union, or rather should it be said the organ of Hon. W. F. Coaker, whose instructions are issued daily, and beyond which none of the editorial staff may presume to go, under dire penalties. The most recent attempt to deceive the northern electors is by a series of articles calculated to show that the abrogation of the infamous Fishery Export Regulations, imposed hardships upon the men who wrest their living from the bosom of the sea. But Mr. Coaker himself was the instrument through and by whom these regulations were repealed, as he also was the cause of their operation. Had they been good and performed all that was claimed for them, would Mr. Coaker have sanctioned their annulment? It is scarcely credible. Was he then afraid of public opinion and whether good or bad decided to throw his own regulations overboard. That may be the answer, but why use them or their original purpose now in proof of his initial sincerity. Either they were good or either they were bad. Which? Had they been beneficial to the colony at large, is it conceivable that they would have been abandoned? But the very fact of their abandonment by and with the consent of Mr. Coaker, proves uncontradictorily that they were bad and injurious to both the local and foreign trade of Newfoundland.

In its issue of October 17, the Advocate uses the following language:

"The fishermen know now that (since) the regulations have dropped, the price of fish has fallen off considerably. The West Coast fishermen now realize that they are worse off this year with no regulations, than they were last year with regulations."

Is it the object of the Advocate to again deceive the North by declaring that the Fishery Export Regulations were advantageous to the West Coast and maintained the price of fish? If it is then let us ask the Northern people to institute enquiries amongst West Coast exporters and ascertain their opinion. Let them communicate with Harris, Ltd., of Grand Bank, Marytown, Lamaline and Hermitage; let them enquire of Patten & Forsey of Grand Bank and Burin; let them ask of Lake & Lake, Fortune; of Moulton, Ltd., and Clement & Co., Ltd., of Burgeo; of J. Penny & Sons, Ramscay; of Harvey & Co., Ltd., Belleoram; of Emanuel Pike, Ltd., Port aux Basques, of the numerous small dealers who went down into commercial oblivion because of Mr. Coaker's prohibition that no new fish was to be exported from the West Coast in 1920, until all the catch of 1919 (Labrador) had been disposed of. Let the people of the North refer themselves to their brothers of the South and West, and get their opinion of Mr. Coaker's regulation and their relation to the matter of prices, locally or abroad. These are the men who can tell the story, and who will repudiate the dicta of the Advocate "that they now realize that they are worse off this year with no regulations, than they were last year with regulations." Let the Advocate staff go up West and preach this doctrine. Afterwards they can relate their experience. In conclusion the 27th verse of the 26th chapter of Proverbs is commended, not alone to the Advocate, but to Hon. W. F. Coaker as well.

"Pollyanna."

The Play for Children of all Ages.
Do you desire a laugh? Then see Miss Gladys Klark in "Pollyanna." Have you lost the power of tears? Then go to the Casino Theatre to-night and let "Pollyanna" restore it. Do you wish to take part in the glad game? If so hear and see the exponent of gladness—Pollyanna—in the play of that name, dramatised from Eleanor Porter's novel by Catherine Chisholm, as produced by the Gladys Klark Company with Miss Klark in the title role. The philosophy and theme of this play is to be "glad," no matter what happens, for there can be no serious misfortune without its redeeming feature, and if there is nothing else to it, we can be glad because it might have been worse. That is the moral that Pollyanna points, and backed by a sympathetic cast, forces home. The characters in this play are Mrs. Carmody (Miss Ellen Andrews), Mr. Gregg (Mr. Harry P. Ford), Nancy (Miss Nita Pearl), Polly Harrington, the aunt (Miss Dot Jewel), Pollyanna Whitfield (Miss Gladys Klark), Jimmy Bean, a reclaimed orphan, who eventually marries Pollyanna (Mr. LeRoy T. Butler), John Pendleton, who remains true to a lost love (Mr. J. E. Balfour), Blocker, the impeccable butler (Mr. Fred Carmel), Dr. Tom Chilton, who finds happiness after twenty years of misery (Mr. Louis Lytton), and the chauffeur (Mr. W. Everstone). Go and witness the play to-night. It is a panacea for gloom, and the music of the C.L.B. Cadet Band will further help to roll the clouds away. "Pollyanna" will be the mainstay play for Saturday afternoon, and Saturday evenings, the "Unkissed Bride" will be presented.

Mr. Garland's Engagements.

Rev. Carl H. Garland, of Bangor, Maine, has consented to remain in the city for the purpose of assisting in the completion of Gower Street Church Silver Jubilee until Sunday next, when he leaves by express en route for home. To-night at 8.30 o'clock Mr. Garland will address the Young People's meeting at Gower Street church, and at nine o'clock will meet the Gospel Mission at the Hall, Adelaide St. To-morrow (Friday) night the roving grand gentleman will be present at a mass meeting to be held in Gower St. Church auditorium, and on Sunday morning may possibly preach at Gower Street, if time permits.

School Game a Draw.

FIRST ROUND ENDS.

The final game in the first round of the Inter-Collegiate Football Series was played yesterday between the St. John's and the Felician teams and ended in a draw, neither side obtaining a goal. The game was the best of the series and no advantage could accrue to either side through weather conditions as there was practically no wind and the ground was quite dry. The forwards of both teams played excellent football and repeatedly attacked the opposing goals, only to be repelled by the back divisions. There seemed very little to choose between the teams and although the Felicians were lighter, they pressed last year's champions keenly, and gave them the worst score they have had for several years. At the end of the first round the Felicians and St. John's have three points each and the M.C. have 0.

The first game of the second round will be played on Saturday afternoon, and it is expected that it will provide far more excitement than did the preceding ones, as the M.C. are anxious to make up for their defeat whilst the Felicians are after the silverware.

Presentation to Mr. Ayre

On Tuesday night, a party of friends called upon Mr. George W. B. Ayre at his home, Circular Road, and presented him with a gold mounted fountain pen and an address in honor of his having won his first jury case. The address was a work of art and was printed by embossed lithography, in red and black. Mr. Ayre was completely taken by surprise and in a brief speech, he expressed his appreciation of the thoughtfulness of his friends. A very pleasant evening was spent before the party finally broke up.

Stole From Grandmother

A young boy was charged before Judge Morris this morning with the larceny of a roll of paper and several coats from his grandmother, who keeps a second hand store. He pleaded guilty to taking the coats, but said the paper, which he had sold to a shopkeeper, had been given him. Head Constable O'Neill went into the witness box and read the statement made by the accused. The youth was then put in the box and denied stealing the paper. He was remanded until word could be received from his grandmother as to whether or not she would prosecute.

Lecture on Church History.

The second of a series of lectures on the History of the Presbyterian Church was delivered last night before a capacity audience in the Presbyterian Hall by the Rev. R. J. Power. The lecture was an interesting one and Rev. Mr. Power held his hearers' attention throughout. These lectures are held fortnightly and are attracting large crowds, who are anxious to hear the powerful and eloquent arguments of the Rev. Doctor. They will be continued for some time.

Line Repaired.

The railway line in the region of Tuesday's derailment has now been permanently repaired. The work of removing the wrecked box cars is still continuing, and will probably be finished to-day. No serious difference in the schedule of the various trains has resulted from the accident.

Express Derailed.

The incoming express, which left Port aux Basques yesterday morning with the Kyle's mail and passengers, was derailed between that place and Cape Ray, the engine and baggage car leaving the track. No one was hurt. The derailment was only a slight one, but some difficulty was experienced in coupling the train on the track, and it was not until seven hours after the accident that the journey could be continued. As a consequence the express is not due here until 7 p.m.

Big Demonstration.

The demonstration which is to be held in honor of the return of Jack Bell, our long distance champion, from Halifax, where he covered himself with glory, promises to be the highest ever held here. Bell will be met at Deschamps by the National Sports Committee and newspaper representatives, and will proceed to town later in the evening. President Ayre of the N. A. A. A. has some original "stunts" up his sleeve for Bell's reception, and there is much conjecture as to what they consist of. It is expected that the whole town will turn out in Bell's honor on Monday night.

S. S. Lobelia Homeward Bound.

The Minister of Shipping has been advised that S. S. Lobelia left Indian Tickle to-day with a full load of fishing crews and freight. The ship is not making any other calls at Labrador. It is not unlikely that either the Senat or Sebastopol will make another trip to the coast.

Vegetable Sale Closed.

The second day of the Vegetable Sale held in St. Joseph's Parish Hall attracted a large number of people, who busily bought up the grand collection of vegetables that were on sale. The sale terminated last night with a most successful dance, in which a large number participated. The proceeds, which were up to expectations, will be devoted to parish funds. Rev. Father Pippy and his assistants are to be congratulated on the successful outcome of their efforts.

Personal.

Flags are flying on the premises of the Newfoundland Produce Company to-day in honor of the homecoming of Sir John and Lady Crosbie and Miss Vera Crosbie, who are on the homeward express which should arrive at 7 p.m. Sir John has completely recovered from his recent illness, thanks to the medical attention which he received when in Montreal.

Miss Phelan of Rothwell and Bowring's office, leaves on the Manoa on an eight months holiday, two months of which will be spent in Canada and six months in Bermuda as the guest of her cousin, Hon. J. F. Hand.

Successful Sweepstake.

Mr. Claude Hall, the well known baseball pitcher, and Captain of the Cubs, a member of The National Sports Committee, originator and Chairman of the National Sports Sweepstake, is to be congratulated on its success. The last few days before the race the tickets sold like hot cakes and all were disposed of. The net proceeds of the sweepstake, together with the money taken at the Sports will amply cover all expenses connected with sending to Halifax our athletes and their managers. It is unique that in this connection no one had to be asked for money.

Ping Pong Tournament.

A team of Old Comrades will play the Officers of the C.L.B. Cadets at ping pong to-night and an exciting contest is bound to ensue. Most of the former team are members of the C.E.I. team which recently defeated the C.L.B. Officers and the latter intend to wipe out their defeat to-night. The C.L.B. team will probably consist of Lieut. Colonel Goodridge, Capt. Henry Lewis, H. C. Hayward, Perlin, Ragsdale, Reid and Mott. The Old Country team will include Messrs. Foster, Godden, Farndale, Edwards. It is hoped that several of these ping pong tournaments will be held during the coming season.

Anxious About Race.

On the way here, when the Rosalind was on the eastern end of the Miramichi Bank yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, she was hailed by a Lunenburg fishing schooner, whose captain was anxious to know the result of the Nova Scotia schooner race. The information was signalled, and papers containing an account of the affair were transferred in a canvas bag.

Head Cut by Stone.

A young boy, who was coming down McBride's Hill this morning, was hit in the head with a stone thrown by another boy, and was badly cut. He was discovered by a police constable who took him to a doctor to have the wound dressed. This stone throwing habit on the part of young boys is becoming altogether too prevalent and steps should be taken to put a stop to it, before an accident of a more serious nature occurs.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

STRIKING STATEMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 19.
In outlining the Government's proposal to alleviate unemployment, Premier George made the following striking declaration: "Peace and good understanding among nations is vital. Let us get out of the atmosphere, where, if you talk about Germany without a frown on your brow, you are no patriot. Trade cannot start in such an atmosphere. If you intervene to make peace, your motives are misunderstood, but if Great Britain will not do it, who will. We stand for stability. We want to see the nations begin again their tasks of peace." In the debate following the Prime Minister's speech, Mr. Asquith said that in his judgement the question of unemployment raised the necessity for a reconsideration of the entire problem of international indebtedness, including the indebtedness of the Allies to one another, and the indebtedness of their late enemies to the Allies.

BLOODLESS REVOLUTION.

LONDON, Oct. 19.
The Portuguese Government has resigned as the result of a successful military movement without bloodshed, says a Reuter despatch from Lisbon. The new ministry will probably be formed with an ex-Revolutionist, Manuel Maria Coelho, as Premier.

FRENCH PREMIER'S STAND.

PARIS, Oct. 19.
The Opposition in the Chamber of Deputies boldly seized upon the proposed Washington trip of Premier Briand as the basis of attack in a debate on interpellations, which was resumed to-day, drawing from the Premier a declaration that he thought France must be represented there, and ought to be represented by the President of the Council. "If Mr. Lloyd George goes," he said, replying to a question, "it will be a pleasure for me to meet him in Washington, but if circumstances should prevent him from going I do not understand why we should preoccupy ourselves with that fact in this debate. If he does not go, it will be because of certain imperials. But here you have to do with me, and I consider it in the interest of France that I go. It is possible that Parliament may raise obstacles to that interpretation, and it is for it to say whether I go to Washington or not."

GOOD NEWS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 20.
Flour touched seven dollars a barrel here yesterday, the lowest level in six years.

NABING THE END.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 20.
The British mission is proceeding to Anatolia to sound the Turkish patriots regarding peace, and feeling that the end of the Greek-Turkish conflict is in sight.

QUESTIONNAIRE.

DUBLIN, Oct. 20.
The Irish Bulletin, official organ of Dail Eireann, has invited Sir James Craig to answer the question as to whether in Ulster Belfast there has not been more bloodshed, destruction of property, rioting and looting than in any other Irish city, and with the exception of the burning of Cork by British forces, than in all other cities of Ireland put together. Inquiries also are made as to whether thousands of workers, expelled from shipyards, and left to starve, were not all Nationalists.

A MACSWEENEY ANNIVERSARY.

LONDON, Oct. 20.
Arrangements are being made for a demonstration at Trafalgar Square on Monday commemorating the first anniversary of the death of Terence MacSweeney, Mayor of Cork, following a hunger strike of seventy days.

TURKS DEFEATED.

ATHENS, Oct. 20.
Turkish Nationalist forces have been defeated in a sharp battle on the southern battle front in Asia Minor, says an official statement issued here.

HIS MAJESTY ECONOMIZES.

LONDON, Oct. 20.
Owing to the great need of economy, King George will not fit out the Britania next year, and there is great disappointment, as he is an enthusiastic yachtsman.

SOLOMONIAN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 20.
A controversy over the religious affiliation of Lloyd George, who has been claimed by both the disciples of Christ and Baptists, was settled to-day by Lloyd George himself, after the manner of Solomon. The sagacious Welshman wrote that he "is a member of the Disciples of Christ, but attends the Baptist Church."

IN ANTICIPATION.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.
Despite the Railway Labor Board's efforts to settle the strike, members of the Eastern Presidents' Conference were to-day laying plans for meeting the threatened walk out.

REMOVED RESIGNATION.

It is rumored on the street to-day that Hon. W. F. Coaker has resigned from the Government. Although no official announcement has been made, the report is given much credence in high circles.

Everybody Buy a SHIRT. 316 Shirts at $2.

Fresh from an optimistic manufacturer, who believes good times are here, Kearney noshed him out. Said to him: "Old boy, I want 30 dozen good Shirts; I want them to be so good that they'll be worth $3.50—and I want to sell them for $2." And with the flash of the long green "kale" the deal was closed.

So, they are here. When you see them you'll admit that George just hits things right at the right time. All the same patterns and the same quality that you used.

All the Shirts in the window—yes, sir, $2 for any one. The colors won't wash out; new stock, no odd sizes; no "bargain" dope, just value. Peerless quality bought right by a man who knows how.

Now everybody buy a Shirt.
