

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for July contains a timely paper by W. H. Bieleing, entitled "Jack Ashora." An illustrated article on "National Standards and Emblems," by H. K. W. Wilcox, is novel and interesting. A paper on the "Signers of the Declaration," contains twenty-three facsimiles of the signers' handwriting, and forms the basis of a very entertaining article by Mr. Lossing. This subject will be concluded in the August number. A series of illustrated papers descriptive of General Sherman's recent tour in Europe and the East, written by the General's aide-de-camp, Colonel J. C. Anderson, is begun in this number. That part of the first article which relates to Sicily is very ably supplemented by Mr. Junius Henri Browne's beautifully illustrated paper on "Sicily and the Sicilians." Emilio Castelar, the Spanish Republican leader, continues in this number his instructive and eloquent exposition of the Republican movement in Europe. A brilliant and ably considered contribution by T. W. Knox, entitled "Russian Policy in Asia." The "Old Stager" continues his interesting recollections. D. B. Castleton contributes a very interesting character-sketch, entitled, "Was it a failure?" and Mrs. Frank McCarthy gives us a very humorous story, "The Rev. Gabriel M'Murray's Conversion." Chas. Reader's story, "The Stimpson," is continued. The poetry of the number is contributed by Bayard Taylor, Kate Putnam Osgood, Mrs. M. D. Brine, Tracy Robinson, Miss Constance F. Woolson, and Miss Fannie R. Robinson. The editorial departments are excellent as usual, including a contribution from Dr. Samuel Osgood for the Easy Chair, an exhaustive summary of scientific progress, a very complete Historical Record, and an entertaining Editor's Drawer.

A ROYAL VIOLINIST.—The aristocracy of England have recently been greatly shocked by the appearance of Prince Alfred, otherwise known as the Duke of Edinburgh, in the role of a musical amateur. Fiddle and bow in hand he came upon the stage with the other performers, to the astonishment and indignation of the music circle, who, while they consider such conduct scandalous in the Queen's own son, nevertheless admit that he acquitted himself ably.

MINISTERIAL EXCURSION.—The G. W. Railway Company have placed a special train at their disposal free of expense, about two hundred ministers of the Wesleyan Conference, with their hosts and hostesses, making a party of some three hundred persons, went to Port Stanley on Saturday afternoon to refresh themselves on the shore of Lake Erie.

Iron in the Blood. PERUVIAN IRON TONIC. MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protochloride of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with a food as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and "vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and waste, searching out and ridding the system, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon. This is the secret of the successful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, invigorating strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and in all cases cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.
