The fire en-gine worked admirably, as alvo did one of the small hand-pumps, manufacture 1 by Nun & Co. The Preston Fire Company was tele-graphed for, and arrived in a remarkably short time. They are entitled to the best thanks of the whole village for the alac-rity with which they answered the call for assistance from Hespeler, not only upon this occasion but upon several for-mer occasions. The fire is said to have originated from four or five little boys going into the stables and experimenting with matches. Loss said to be about $1,600. Insured in the Waterloo Mutual for $400. A Cruise Among the Northern Lakes, Six years ago when the Press Association undertook a trip to Lake Superior, this now popular route was but little known, and still less appreciated. Now, thanks to the efforts of the conductors of the press, to the onward westward march of civilization, and to a fuller knowledge of the splendid scenery that abounds through ut all this north region, thousands of pleasure and health seekers visit the shores of the great northern lakes yearly, some to indulge for a time in the primitive, lawless life of fishermen under canvas, who know no law but their own sweet will; while Mr. Elliott said an investigation was others content themselves with a view of absolutely necessary, because money the scenery from the steamer as it sails charged on streets had pever been or-over these great inland seas. over these great inland seas.
