> COMMERCIAL. Local Market. Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Nov. 28.

There has been a more favorable market for sellers this week. Both the wheat and oat markets have made gains in their interest, and although farmers who still have both to sell have not yet increased their offerings, we think that within a few days they will. The small receipts at country points is not confined to this section alone, but is general all over the continent. The result has been an advance all along the line of wheat and oats. Stocks here and elsewhere have been depleted more or less, and it now looks as if present values might continue. The closing price for wheat was: Red, 90c to 92c; whire, 93c to 95c; oats, 85c to 87c, ruled this market at the close; some warr proported at 88c to 90c on Tuesday. were reported at 88c to 90c on Tuesday. Peas have not changed any since last week

The bulk of receipts are both poor in color and about as far to the other extreme and would indicate that there are good'samples throughout the country, but they are being held back.

Sales were 76c to 82c for poor; 85c to 90c for Corn has offered more freely, but the demand was quite equal to it, and all offerings were quickly picked up at 90c to $1. The difference in price in this cereal was not owing to varia-tion in quality but depended upon the urgency of buyers' needs.

Earley was quiet, about the only receipts being poorish grades. Sales were mostly at 80c. Some few good samples came in; they brought 85c to 99c.

There was nothing done in rye, and quotations are based on transactions about a week ago, but there is no indications of any change. Only a few loads of buckwheat came in, the price paid ranging from 75c to 90c. The quality presented just as wide a difference as Beans were steady, with only moderate offerings. Prices run from 75c to $1, according to quality.

Eggs were lower toward the end of the week. There was a good inquiry and heavy receipts. Strictly fresh sold at 15c to 16c per dozen by basket; 17c to 18c by the dozen; racked and store lots brought 14c to 15c. Butter was weak and declined Ic per lb in all grades and makes. The supply was probably a little heavier than the demand, but when concessions were made the market was kept well cleaned. Pound rolls, 18c to 20c; large rolls, 14c to 18c; crocks, 14c to 20c.

Turkeys were again plentiful and much depressed, although there was not the drug that existed last week and few loss were left unsold any day. Still, sellers found it required constant energy to dispose of their stock at the Chickens have felt the effect of the lowpriced turkey even more this week than last, and had it not been for considerably smaller receipts the bottom would have gone com-pletely out of them. As it was, 25c to 40c was the ruling prices by quantity and 30c to 50c Ducks and geese steady at 40c to 60c for the former and 5c to 6c per lb for the latter.

Meef and lambs were steady, offerings all week were good. The demand was steady though limited, and the amount of trade done about the steady and the same and the steady though limited. about the same as a week ago, sales of beef, 11c to 6c; lamb, 6c to 7c by the quarter and 5c were obtained the trade done was not so sluggish.

Among the vegetables we note little change, barring one exception, that being potatoes. Eaturday's receipts were a whole host in themselves, to say nothing of the other days. The price broke on Friday and continued down all week, 50c by the load ruling at the close and nothing but choice stock being accepted; 60c

by the bag.

Hay deliveries were light, and the price made fewer changes this week than we can remember for some time; $9 to $9.50 was about its value all week. Quotations:

British Grain Trade. LONDON, Nov. 26. - The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of British grain today, says English wheats rose 9d in London in the last week, but in the country markets prices remained firm and did not share in the increase. Foreign wheats were steady. California cargoes sold at 25s per quarter; Duluth, 24s 6d; hard Mani oba, 24s 3d. Corn was 6d dearer. Barley and oats were inactive. To-day English wheats in London lost 6d. Of foreign wheats, American is firm, the others weak. Flour is quiet, with the tendency favorable to buyers. Corn holds its own. Oats have dropped 3d.

Canadian Butter and Cheese Exports. The Canadian exports of butter fell away be-low those of former years, amounting to 32,-065 in 1894, as compared with 76,944 in 1893 and 93,139 in 1892. The average price was about 21c for creamery, which realized probably $500,000. Last year the ruling figure was 201c, but as Last year the runing agure was 204c, but as the exports were larger the returns amount to about $1,000.000. In 1892 both net price and exports were larger. The butter business hus therefore been going back during the past three years. The cheese export trade shows some improvement over last year. The export prices and probable apparents realized for the some improvement over last year. The export prices and probable amounts realized for the past three years were as follows: Quantity—1894, 1.712.715; 1893, 1,682,916; 1892,—1,448,353. Cost price—1894, 93c; 1893, 93c; 1892, 97-16c. The Hog Market. Canada is gradually becoming a great hog aising country, as farmers are beginning to realize that there is no more profitable induspacker in this city, who has just returned from a tour through the principal hoz sections of Canada, says that notwithstanding the large quantities of hogs shipped from the west for summer packing, the country still seems full of them, which are selling at points west and north of Toronto at $5 per 100 lbs f. o. b., quite north of Toronto at $5 per 100 lbs I. O. D., quite a number of car lots having been sold at that figure, while car loads on track have been placed at $5 25 to $5 35, as to average weight and quality. These prices are quite a contrast from those of a year ago, which ranged from $7 10 to $7 15 on track here. The present low price of hogs has created a weakening tendency in pork, which is fully 50c lower on the week, $17.50 being the highest price quoted for single barrels of heavy short cut mess pork, while larger quantities could be had at $1650 to $17 as compared with $22 a year ago. The recent advance of $1 per bbl in Chicago mess pork was quite a surprise to the trade, more especially as it occurred at a time when the receipts of hogs began to increase at a tremendous rate. A disparch from Chicago credits Armour with making the statement that he bought 60,000 hogs last week; for the purpose of making the product to fill his short sales; but whatever Armoursays, depend upon t, the trade is quite welcome to make all it can out of it. It seems that a Newfoundland firm was inclined to purchase a good round quantity of Chicago mess pork during the late spurt; but it was advised not to act hastily, and as the advice was taken it was saved quite a round sum. Most of the pork for Newfoundland, which was formerly bought on this market, is now purchased direct in Chicago. - [Montreal

-A defective chimney caused a fire in an ipstair bedroom at Mrs. Westcott's house, 441 Ridout street, yesterday afternoon. The mantel draperles and curtains were almost totally destroyed before the blaze was extinguished by Mr. A. J. Hewitt, a boarder in an adjoining house. Mrs. Westcott had a narrow escape from being badly burned. She is an invalid and was in the bedroom at the time. When the blaze started she gave the alarm, but several minutes elapsed before her cries were heard. Mrs. Westcott was wheeled out in an invalid's chair. The firemen were not summoned.

Dressed hogs op med for the week steady at $4 50 to $5 25, the latter being outside for choice weights of $1 30 to $1 60 lbs by Tuesday. Receipts for the week showed sure indications of a falling off, and bidding became more active, and by today's close a gain of 25 had been made. The close was $2 50 to $5 50.

Very little change, if any, could be noticed in the hide and tallow trade. Receipts were probably a little heavier, but the demand was good. Prices held firm.

Invaded by Tramps. The officers in charge of the Salvation Army Workingman's Hotel were very much surprised last night to find the dining-room and lunch counter invaded by about 20 lusty tramps. They were marched to the woodpile but at the sight of it they all concluded that they had the necessary 10 cents to pay for their meals. The members of the Arlington Club nearby held a tramp smoking concert during the evening, and the visit to the army eating house in tramp costume was a laughable impromptu windup to the affair. The officers in charge can all vouch for the enormity of the appetite of the average Arlingtonite.

London Mas as at Chatham. Wellington and Parthenon Masonic Lodges of Chatham gave a banquet at the latter place last night to Palestine Lodge, of Detroit, Mich., at which over 400 were present. Several Londoners figured prominently on the toast list. M. W. Daniel Spry, P.G.M., R. W. Bro. A. E. Cooper, G. J. W., and R. W. Bro, R. B. Hungerford, replied with R. W. Bro. Wm. Gibson, M.P., D.G.M. (Hamilton), and R. W. Bro. T. Malone, P.D.D.G.M. (Toronto), to the toast of the Grand Lodge of Canada. W. Bro. A. G. McWhinney, P. M., replied to the toast of the visiting brethren, and W. Bro. W. T. Vanston, P.M., made an appropriate reply on behalf of Masons' wives and Masons' bairns. The London brethren were loud in their praise of the treatment afforded them by the Chatham Masons. The "Eastward" Position.

The following letter appears in the Canadian Churchman: Having lately settled in this town, I have noticed, when attending St. Paul's Cathedral here, a marked peculiarity in the actions of some of the members of the choir. During the repeating of the respective Creeds some seven or eight members (one of them, by the way, always wearing a gaudy hood) invariably adopt the "eastward position," while the remaining 50 or 60 remain facing in the ordinary way. It appears to me that in this matter there is certainly a grave breach of Church etiquette involved, in not following the example of the efficiating elergy, who I know are opposed to the "eastward position," and I think I may venture to add that the gentlemen in question show decidedly bad taste in their unique action, which surely is not warranted by any weighty promptings of conscience, but should this be the case I should be very glad if any one of them would express his convictions thereon, as up to the present the only argument I have heard in defense of the "eastward position" is that it is the keeping up of an old custom. "CLARA HAS A REVOLVER!" Startling Testimony in the West-

wood Murder Case, Clara Ford Had a Weapon on the Night of Westwood's Death-She Said She was Going to Parkdale. TORONTO, Nov. 28 .- Clara Ford, the mulatto woman arrested on the charge of murdering Frank Westwood on the night of Oct. 6, on the doorstep of his father's house in Parkdale, came up for preliminary examination in the Police Court this morning. An enormous crowd of people were outside waiting to gain admission, but only a very few were able to get into the court-room, The prisoner did not appear excited. Important evidence was given by Flora McKay, the illegitimate daughter of the prisoner, who stated that her mother had told her she was in Parkdale the Saturday evening on which young Westwood was shot, but requested her to state, if asked about the matter, that she had been with her to the theater. Flora said when the detectives called to see her she had stated this. Asked why she had not told the truth, she said she feared the detectives might think her mother had shot Westwood. The girl made the still

STARTLING STATEMENT that her mother had told her since her arrest that she had told everything to the detectives. The last witness was Mrs. Crozier, of Cameron street. She stated that the prisoner was in her house on the evening of the murder and told her she was on her way to Parkdale to fetch her daughter Flora to take her to the theater. Clara made this statement though she knew her daughter was on Richmond street in a direction opposite to Parkdale. While Clara was there one of the daughters of Mrs. Crozier | wwwwwwwwww playfully opened Clara's jacket and saw the
