A most exciting runaway occurred on Dundas and Richmond streets yesterday.

A young horse attached to a covered cart, and belonging to Mr. Thompson, of Evelyn, started in front of Shoebotham & Coteoran's grocery store, owing to the top falling on the horse through a defect in the gearing. The animal ran west on Dundas, and in front of J. C. Treblicock's store collided with another rig, leaving one wheel and the top of the cart behind. No other obstructions were met until Richmond street was reached. Here the runaway took a startling course, and crossing the sidewalk ran into Wilson Bros'. Grocery store, owing to the top falling on the horse through a defect in the gearing. The animal ran west on Dundas, and in front of J. C. Treblicock's store collided with another rig, leaving one wheel and the top of the cart behind. No other obstructions were met until Richmond street was reached. Here the runaway took a startling course, and crossing the sidewalk ran into Wilson Bros'. Grocery store, ower, fruit, etc., were strewn of the store, unity reached and run over, but no damage of any account was done. The horse was captured at the rear of the store, uninjured. Mr. Thompson, in attempting to stop the horse on Dundas street, was knocked down and run over, but was not hurt. A great crowd gathered around and the invasion of the shop was considered very funny.
