Tuesday, and at St. Michael's Palace held a conference, at which many clergy of the diocese were present. The object of the meeting was to select three names to be sent to Rome, from which the pope will choose a successor to the late Archbishop Walsh. The names selected are kept secret.

REGATTA IN SIGHT.
The rowing committee of the London Rowing and Canoe Club has decided to hold a regatta on the river near Springbank on the afternoon of Thursday, Sept. 22, if matters can be arranged. The Country Club have placed their premises at the disposal of the Canoe Club, and the races will start and finish at the club's grounds, instead of at Springbank, as formerly.
The committee having the affair in hand comprises: Col. John Macbeth, chairman; James Colerick, secretary; T. St. L. Mackintosh, H. Cotton and S.
Taylor.

A NOVEL CLUB HOUSE.
A novel club house is in course of erection opposite Springbank Park by Mr. John Pocock. It will be three stories in height, and have a foundation of field stone, worked in with pretty effect. The balance will be frame. The River road entrance will be from the third story, while from the river one will enter on the first floor. The club house being erected on a hillside, makes this possible. The structure will be completed by next spring.

QUARTER'S RETURNS.
During the last quarter the summary convictions before Magistrate Parke numbered 102, and the fines imposed amounted to $408. Three fines of $50 each were imposed upon offenders for indecent exposure, selling liquor without a license and selling liquor to Indians. Two fines of $20 each were imposed for infraction of the liquor law.
The longest term of imprisonment, two years in the Mercer, was given a 16-year-old girl for vagrancy.

shown on the north side of the river, on Mr. J. Pocock's property. Some 500 lights formed a large Union Jack, which was very pretty. A bell-shaped tent made entirely of colored lights was located on one of the islands in the river, and beneath this tent the Musical Society Band rendered an excellent programme of sweet music. The male quartet gave a number of ap-and everyone was well pleased with their evening's outing at the River Park.

LAST SAD RITES

Remains of the Late James Anderson Borne to the Grave.

Cortege the Largest Ever Seen in Westminster—Over 400 Present and 200 Vehicles—Funeral of the Late Thos. Churcher.

All that is mortal of the late Henry Anderson was conveyed from his late home, lot 14, con. 5, Westminster, to the grave yesterday. Few men in this section of the country were more honored than he during his lifetime, and when death came a gloom was cast over the township of Westminster, which had been his home for over half a century. He had held all the prominent positions his country could bestow, which is one of the best evidences of his worth. Over 400 people attended the obsequies. Among them were many old men, who shed tears as they stood around the orchard and told of incidents and happenings of younger days, and seemed naturally impressed with the fact that death must soon claim them, too. Two of the oldest residents of the county at the funeral were Wm.
Hendry, of Lambeth, aged 88, and Andrew Weldon—the latter too feeble to leave his carriage. Representatives from all the organizations of which the deceased was a member were present.
The services were conducted at the house by Rev. E. H. Sawers, of Westminster, and by Rev. S. E. G. Ed-stein at the church at Lambeth. The theme of the latter was the immortality of the soul, and in his remarks the reverend gentleman referred to the late Henry Anderson as a man who always sought and longed for more light and guidance from the God whom he had faithfully served. Mr. Anderson, untiringly from church to church, had proposed that those who "ask shall receive; who seek shall find, and that unto those who knock the door shall be opened."

The cortege was over a mile and a half long, and was the largest ever seen in Westminster, being composed of nearly 200 vehicles, which followed the remains to Glanworth cemetery.
The pall-bearers were George Riddle (reeve of Westminster), Wm. Munro, Haveshaw, Neil Munro, John Munro, Adam Nichol and Dugald McPherson.
Among those present were: Burelligh Burch and James Murray, of the county council; Col. Robert McEwen, of the
