CHICAGO. Chicago, March 28.—Today's wheat mar-ket was a somewhat narrow affair, with ket was a somewhat narrow affair, with the general tone showing more or less nervousness. There was a dip in prices soon after the opening, and a disposition to even up over Sunday. There is a distinctly bearish tone to all crop reports, and for the moment this is the dominating influence. Cars for Monday, 20.

Corn—At times a little depression came from commission houses, but the local demand took care of offers. There was no decided pressure on either side of the no decided pressure on either side of the market, but the general tone might be called easier. Cars, 120. Oats-The market was generally steady.

When the men, about 20 in number, stopped work, they de-manded 20 cents an hour, which they said was the union scale. They were not all union men, but those who were not affiliated and said firmly that they would not work unless the firm granted what they asked. The latter held that the Government specification was their law and it was only with a desire to see the work go on smoothly that they agreed to give the desired 20 cents. A verbal agreement was made, and the DISPLAY WILL BE FINE men who struck and several new ones went back to work.

The growth has been rapid, especially with Easter lilies, and florists in many places have been forced to get rid of some of their plants already. The London florists, however, are gleeful over the fact that they never had lilies bloom so opportunely as this season's will.

Mr. Cammage told an Advertiser reporter that the lilies that are timed to bloom for Easter Day are in the majority, and are the choicest they have every cultivated.
