

WARE-LOVE NUPTIALS

This afternoon St. Andrew's Church was filled to overflowing with guests and spectators when one of the most brilliant nuptial events of the season took place, the marriage of Isabel Cameron Love, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Love, to Francis Bethel Ware.

The church, where the ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. James Ross, D. D., was simply and artistically decorated with palms, rubber plants and ferns, the pews reserved for the guests being marked by knots of white American twine.

Mr. Charles E. Wheeler presided at the organ, playing appropriate music, while the guests were assembling. During the signing of the register, Miss Irene Love, sister of the bride, who has recently been studying in New York, sang "Love's Enchantment," by Hawley. Mr. W. D. Love also sang a solo, "Because" by H. Harlow.

The bride, one of London's most popular and charming girls, was very winsome in her lovely nuptial robe of Irish lace mounted on ivory satin with berthe of duchess and rose point lace, her only ornament being the groom's gift, a pearl necklace. The conventional veil was draped beneath a coronet of orange blossoms and white heather, heather also mingling with the white roses of the bridal bouquet.

The maid of honor, Miss Irene Love, and bridesmaid, Miss Mary Love, sisters of the bride, were gowned alike in maize and white striped chiton voile over taffeta made in semi-empire fashion. Graduated dots of yellow satin were applied to the plaited skirts and kimono sleeves of net and bands of satin edged with duchess lace. The bridesmaids wore white liberty satin, girdles of satin and V's inlet back and front of duchess lace. Hats of ecru net, with draped crowns and brims edged with black velvet and trimmed with huge bows of yellow liberty satin, yellow shoes and white gloves completed the striking costumes. Their bouquets were sheaves of yellow chrysanthemums tied with maize satin ribbon. The flower girls, Stirling and Jessie Love, were veritable little fairies, in fluffy frocks of dotted white tulle, d'espri, shirred poke bonnets wreathed with daisies and carrying baskets of white roses.

The groom was supported by Mr. Gordon Ingram, and the ushers were Mr. W. D. Love, Winnipeg, brother of the bride; Mr. J. Innes Carling, Mr. Frank Spry and Mr. James Woods.

The groom's gift to the maid of honor was a four leaf clover of pearls; to the bridesmaid, a gold signet ring; to the flower girls, gold bar pins set with pearls; to the ushers, gold-mounted silk umbrellas.

Amongst the beautiful wedding gifts were sectional bookcases in weathered oak from the directors of the Monarch Fire Insurance Company, handsome bronze candlebrases from the office staff, and an after dinner silver coffee service from the men of G. Company, Seventh Regiment.

After the service in the church, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Love, Wellington street. Congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the happy young couple, who received in the front drawing-room, standing in front of the mantel banked with asparagus, fern and white mums. A buffet luncheon was served, the color scheme in the decorations of the table being dainty white and green, carried out in white roses and smilax. An interesting ceremony was the cutting of the wedding cake by the bride with the groom's sword.

Tony Cortesi's orchestra played on-living strains throughout the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ware left on the east-bound express to spend a honeymoon in Montreal and Quebec, and on their return will reside in the pretty new home, which has just been completed, on Wellington street north.

Going away the bride wore a modish tailored suit of brown velvet, a modish plumed hat, and stole of Persian lamb and royal ermine.

Amongst the very handsome costumes worn was that of the bride's mother, a gown of mulberry silk with berthe of rose point lace, and French toque of shirred mauve net with garniture of panies and pale pink roses; Mrs. Stanley Williams, sister of the groom, wore cream poplin de sole and cream-plumed hat; Miss Ware, gray silk and gray hat; Mrs. W. J. Christie, Winnipeg, aunt of the bride, empire gown of pastel blue broadcloth trimmed with Irish crochet lace, black pie-crust hat, and chinchilla fur; Mrs. W. J. Cummings, Toronto, gray silk voile and gray-plumed hat.

The following were the invited guests from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Currie, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cummings, New York; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fitzgerald, New York; Mrs. J. B. Vining, Jersey City; Miss Annie Currie, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Symington, Mrs. James Symington, E. W. 237 NAMES WERE ADDED TO LISTS

Registration Is Proceeding Daily—The Qualifications Required.

Registration for the coming by-election is under full sway, but so far only 237 have been enrolled. This is not considered a very heavy registration, but it is anticipated that during the next few days the number will increase a very great deal. The booths will be open today, Thursday and Saturday.

Those entitled to register must comply with the following requirements: (a) He must be a British subject by birth or naturalization. (b) He must have resided in the Dominion of Canada one year prior to Oct. 15 last. (c) He must have resided in London three months prior to that date.

Every male person 21 years of age, whose name is not entered on the last municipal voters' list as being entitled to vote for both municipal and provincial purposes, may register, provided he possesses the above-named qualifications.

Places to Register.

For registration purposes the city has been divided into seven districts, and persons desiring to register must appear personally before the registrar for the district in which he resides and make oath to the required qualifications. There is, however, a provision in the manhood suffrage act for registering persons who are unable to attend personally owing to sickness or absence.

District No. 1 comprises subdivisions 1 to 7, inclusive, of ward No. 1, being all that part of the ward lying south of the river. Place of registration, city hall.

District No. 2 comprises the whole of ward No. 2, including West London. Place of registration, Smith's carriage shop, corner Richmond and Maple streets.

District No. 3 comprises subdivisions 8 to 13, inclusive, of ward No. 1, being all that part of the ward lying south of the river. Place of registration, Treblecock's hall, corner Wortley road and Bruce street.

District No. 4 comprises subdivisions 1 to 8, inclusive, of ward No. 4, being all that part of the ward lying east of Adelaide street. Place of registration, 241 Colborne street, corner Horne street.

District No. 5 comprises subdivisions 9 to 13, inclusive, of ward No. 4, being all that part of the ward lying east of Adelaide street. Place of registration, East End town hall, corner Dundas and Rectory streets.

District No. 6 comprises subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7 and 8 of ward No. 4, being the southerly and eastern portions of the ward. Place of registration, 644 Dundas street.

District No. 7 comprises subdivisions 5 and 9 to 14, inclusive, of ward No. 4, being the northerly portion of the ward. Place of registration, Harding's Hall, corner of Colborne and Piccadilly streets.

Registration this morning was very light. There is a much better movement than yesterday, but there is still very little doing. At the present rate the registration will be the lightest in years.

BETTER Baking Powder

There can be no better baking powder than Strong's. In making baking powder, there are certain definite materials to be used. A cheap powder can be made by using unwholesome ingredients; a good powder by using pure and healthful materials.

The leavening properties of an alum powder may be equal to a cream tartar one, but we prefer cream tartar. You should use Strong's Baking Powder. It is a cream tartar product, and it costs you less than any other pure powder you can buy.

Two years. The liabilities will be in the neighborhood of $8,000. Leg Amputated.

Mr. Glen Williams, of Brian, had his leg amputated at Victoria Hospital yesterday. The limb has been affected by a malignant disease for some time. Dr. Hadley Williams performed the operation.

Going to Winnipeg.

Rev. E. E. Shields, of Hamilton, late pastor of the Baptist Church in Kincardine, has accepted a call to the Niagara Street Baptist Church, Winnipeg. Mr. Shields is a brother of the pastor of Adelaide Street Baptist Church, Rev. T. T. Shields.

Hunting Parties.

Hunting parties for the deer shooting season in the north are being organized, and it is expected that a larger number than ever before will take to the woods shortly. Deer are reported plentiful in the north country, and as Londoners have always been successful in the sport there is every indication that they will bring home the venison again.

A Local Case.

At Osgoode Fall Tuesday in Photo Engravers' Company, S. E. Gallager, for plaintiffs, moved for summary judgment under rule 603. Motion dismissed. Costs in cause.

The Police Court.

Joseph Morton paid $10 this morning to the police court for being drunk. Morton was up yesterday, and was allowed to go. He apparently thought he could go as far as he liked, and promptly acquired a bigger jag. Magistrate Love showed no leniency. Two vagrants were remanded for a week.

Court Defence Concert.

A concert that was greatly enjoyed by a large audience was given by Court Defence No. 7, Canadian Order of Foresters, in their room in Sherwood Hotel last night. The programme consisted of selections by the Howard male quartette and a slight of hand performance by Professor Nicol. Mr. A. R. Galpin officiated as chairman. The was a great success.

Welcomed the Pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Vining, of Talbot Street Baptist Church, were tendered a reception in the church last night by the members of the congregation. A number of local clergymen were present and gave addresses, among others being Rev. J. Ross, Rev. D. S. Lamb, Rev. W. H. Lamb, Rev. T. T. Shields and Rev. Mr. C. H. G. Webster and Miss Mina Taylor, was rendered.

A Painful Injury.

Mr. Richard Fonger, of the firm of Rowntree & Co., located at the corner of Main and Grey streets, this morning met with a peculiar and very painful accident. Mr. Fonger put his hand in a sugar barrel and ran a silver beneath the nail of the middle finger of his right hand. An effort was made to pull the silver out with a pair of pliers without success, and the sufferer was obliged to go to Victoria Hospital, where the finger was frozen and the nail removed entirely.

Errington-Robbins.

A quiet wedding took place this afternoon at the rectory of St. Matthew's Church, when Miss Mabel Robbins, daughter of the late William Robbins, of Dutton, was married to Richard N. Errington, a well-known painter of this city. Rev. Mr. Love officiated at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Errington left this afternoon for Dutton and after a short stay will return to this city where they will reside in the future. The couple received many valuable presents, they being very popular in London.

Mrs. G. W. Ross' Reception.

Toronto Globe: Mrs. G. W. Ross, Elmsley Place, received for the second time this season yesterday, when many friends availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing both Senator and Mrs. Ross. Mrs. Ross wore a dress of olive green, with delicate embroidery on the corsage. Mrs. Belden, sister of Mrs. Ross, with the Misses Clara and Mildred Belden, with Miss Belton, London, granddaughter of Hon. G. W. Ross, were kindest assistants at the tea table, with its pretty decoration of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ross will not receive again this season.

school and at the same time to refer in warm words to the address which the senior classes had treated his year when they were taking their first steps in the study of medicine.

The toast to "The Freshmen" was replied to by President Gordon of the year, who briefly and graciously extended of their hospitality. During the evening, Mr. E. W. G. Quance very acceptably acted as accompanist.

At a seasonable hour the gathering dispersed, carrying away memories of what was voted the happiest evening of many terms.

Decided Success.

The decided success of the function is due in great part to the untiring efforts of the committee, composed of the following: Messrs. Herb McGuffin, Charles Kelly, Wm. Burgess, Gordon Jepson and George Ramsay.

CARS RUB AS THEY PASS EACH OTHER

Alleged Defective Tracks on Richmond Street North.

A dip, or low joint, in the street car tracks on Richmond street, between John and Hyman streets, is causing passengers no little uneasiness and annoyance, besides making it dangerous, it is alleged, to travel on that line.

At no place on the entire local car system is there more than a foot space between passing cars, and in many places the cars almost rub sides.

At the point mentioned on Richmond street cars can scarcely pass without scraping the protecting boards on the sides of the cars just below the windows.

Two such occurrences have been reported within a very short time. The sensation of being on a car when such an occurrence takes place is not agreeable, to say the least, and unless something is done at once a serious accident may result.

Passengers on north and south-bound cars were roughly jolted the night before last, when the vehicles met at the low joint, and had anybody had his hand on the window at the time it must surely have been torn off.

When the matter was mentioned to Manager King this morning he stated that he would look into it at once. The inside tracks at the dangerous point, he thought, must both be low, causing the cars to lean in.

Was There a Brakeman

Relatives of Mr. Lamond Think Fatality Might Have Been Averted.

The relatives of the late John Lamond, who was killed at Colborne street crossing on Monday night, have informed Coroner MacLaren that they believe that the cars which killed Mr. Lamond were shunted down the yards and allowed to run along without any brakeman being in charge. They believe that if a brakeman had been on the train, as he is supposed to be, that he could have warned Mr. Lamond in time to prevent the fatality. Coroner MacLaren will investigate this point thoroughly at the inquest on Friday evening.

Westaway-Moore

Wedding of a Popular London Couple Took Place Today.

A quiet wedding was celebrated this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr. William Moore, 19 Oxford street, West London, when his daughter, Miss Mabel Alice McMillan Moore, was united in marriage to Mr. Percy Westaway, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. B. Wallwin, B.A., pastor of the Empress Avenue Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. E. Laneley, pastor of the Dundas Center Methodist Church. After the ceremony the young couple left on a short honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Westaway leave shortly for China, where they will become missionaries of the Methodist Church. They will be supported in this work by the Epworth League and Sunday school of the Dundas Center Methodist Church. On Sunday evening a farewell meeting will be tendered Mr. and Mrs. Westaway at the Dundas Center Church.
