STRAWBERRIES TOOK TUMBLE

Wholesale Price at Market Today Was 8 Cents to 10 Cents Box.

SATURDAY A BIG DAY

For the Berries—Vegetable Prices Were About the Same Today as on Tuesday.

The heavy rains yesterday were responsible for the very small market this morning. In many parts of the country the roads were rendered scarcely passable, and this morning the market was remarkably small. Those who did succeed in getting in brought a good supply of strawberries but these were not compared with the demand, and after ten hours there was scarcely a berry on the market. The grocers and wholesalers bought up most of the fruit offered before the retail buyers arrived on the scene. The wholesale price ranged from 8 to 10 cents, and they retailed at from 10 to 12 cents for boxes of 25.

Saturday should, if the weather is favorable, prove a record day for this fruit, as the berries are ripening very fast and must be disposed of. The vegetable market was about the same today, though there was very little of any kind of produce offered. Potatoes were the only thing offered even in moderate quantities, and these were decidedly easier in price, 45 to 80 cents was the price offered, and the majority of the good quality sold at 75 cents.

Hay was considerably stronger today, running as high as $11.50. The supply was small today in this line as in most others. Oats were offered in fair quantities and the price remained the same as that for the past few days. Most sold at $1.60 to $1.65. Butcher's meats showed very little change, only beef was considerably easier, ranging from $7 to $8, according to quality.

POTATOES.
Toronto, June 23.—Potatoes—Wholesale market shows no signs just now of strengthening. Supplies are quite large on track here, with no urgent demand for them. Prices are unchanged at $1 to $1.05 per bag in store or $50 to $60 in car lots on track here.

COTTON.
NEW YORK.
New York, June 23.—Cotton—Futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 1/16 per lb. in response to the decline of one-quarter to one-half franc in the French market, and increased the loss during the day under liquidation and trade selling in the absence of bull support. receipts at primary ports and a slack spot demand. The close was barely steady with a decline of 1/16 to 3/16 points.
