

We Wish This Page To Be Useful and Interesting to Every Feminine Reader

THE WOMAN OF TODAY

If You Were Editor How Would You Improve This
Page?—We Wish to Know

NOT A BIT "A-SCARED" SAYS HAROLD ALTHOUGH THE HORSE IS VERY, VERY TALL

Here is the very smallest jockey in the world! He is just "knee high to a grasshopper." But he isn't one whit afraid to sit astride the biggest horse in the stables! His name, boys and girls, is Harold A. Jordan. Mighty small to have such a long name and a middle initial, too, you may say. Yes, but then he is going to grow up pretty soon, and a big name sometimes helps to make a big man! The tiny saddle upon which Master Harold is sitting, in this picture, was made especially for him. See how short the stirrups are and how small the seat is. This little chap says that when he grows big he is going to ride the fastest horse on the race track. And he surely looks as if he intended to do it. How would you like to be away up on the back of that big horse, if you were just as little as Harold is?

HER HUSBAND DESIGNS WOMEN'S STYLES!

Yes, He's Paul Poiret, Designer of the "Harem," the "Slit" Skirt and the "Lamp-Shade" Skirt.

Two views of Mme. Poiret, wife of the celebrated Parisian dressmaker, who paid a visit recently to Toronto, and gave an address, in which he insisted that trousers for women were a certainty of the future. On the street Mme. Poiret wore a plaid skirt of yellow and blue, and yellow coat, white hat and yellow Russian shoes.

PROBLEMS OF THE FAIR SEX SOLVED BY CYNTHIA GREY

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

"Nice and Tasty Speech."

Dear Miss Grey: I have not written to your column before, so I venture now to ask a few questions:

1. When at a dance what would be a nice and tasty speech to say to a girl when asking her to dance with you?

2. How may a person learn to get in with the boys and girls and be sociable with them?

3. How may a person learn to keep up a nice, sensible conversation?

4. Do you consider Latin a very important subject?

5. Do you think a scholar in the first form should take it?

6. Do you consider Latin easy or hard?

Thanking you for your trouble, I remain,
GREEN EYES.

P. S. — What will remove superfluous hair without injury to the skin?

A. — For goodness sake, have more than one thing to say. If you can't think of any flowery speech simply say, "May I have the next dance with you?"

2. Join any local young people's society or club. Be willing to share in any sport or undertaking given by the members, and if you are courteous and pleasant you should not stand out in the cold for long.

3. Be sensible—then it should not seem difficult.

4. Yes, as a large part of our English language is derived from it.

5. Yes.

6. Rather difficult, but it often proves valuable to one in after years and repays the student amply.

7. I prefer not to answer questions pertaining to religion in this column.

The electric needle is probably the only safe method.

For Halloween Fun.

Dear Miss Grey: Please tell me how to entertain a few girls on Halloween. Tell me a short way to entertain them from when I meet them at the door till they go home in the evening.

I am serving a light lunch. What would be nice, but not too expensive?

Thanking you very very much,
IGNORANT H. N.

A. — Some Halloween games appeared on this page on Saturday last, and a few more ideas will be given shortly. A good idea for fun is to have a taffy pull, or to pop corn. For lunch, sandwiches, doughnuts, pumpkin pie and coffee are appropriate, with rosy apples and grapes for a finish. Autumn leaves or berries are nice for decoration on the table and around the room.

Married at Parsonage.

Dear Miss Grey: Answer as soon as possible:

1. When a girl gets married at the parsonage is it really necessary to wear gloves, and if so, when does she remove them? They have to be removed before the ring is placed some time, don't they?

2. Does a girl leave her hat on or not when she gets married at that place, as she is not wearing a suit, and if she does not wear a hat should she wear a wedding veil?

3. Are black patent leather pumps suitable for such an occasion?

4. If a girl had some few miles to drive, and as she does not wish to drive in her dress, where should she change it?

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

moved before the ring is placed some time, don't they?

2. Does a girl leave her hat on or not when she gets married at that place, as she is not wearing a suit, and if she does not wear a hat should she wear a wedding veil?

3. Are black patent leather pumps suitable for such an occasion?

4. If a girl had some few miles to drive, and as she does not wish to drive in her dress, where should she change it?

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubtless be quite willing.

5. Hoping I have not bothered you too much, thanking you in advance, and waiting your answer as soon as possible, I remain,
A YOUNG BRIDE-TO-BE.

A. — 1. Gloves should be worn, especially if your dress has short sleeves. The clergyman will instruct you about removing the left-hand glove.

2. If she did not wish to wear a wedding veil it would be quite correct for her to be married without one. The hat should be removed.

3. Yes, but if you decide to get a wedding veil, and your dress is white, a pair of white slippers would look better.

4. I think you should make an arrangement with the clergyman to change your dress at his home, if you have no friend living near by. He will doubt