LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Miss Sara Mavty returned to Ypsilanti this week.

A fine work shirt for 98 cents and a better one for $1.25.—Swift's.

Wm. Ward was in London last week taking electrical treatments on his arm.

Get your Sugar now. Pure Cane Sugar $7.25 per hundred.—P. Dodds & Son.

It may be too early to plant potatoes or onions, but spring advertisements should go in at once.

Luxite Hose a dollar a pair, Hole-proof $1.75, both great value.—Swift's.

A fire in the drying room of Butler's Woolen Mills, Strathroy, almost totally destroyed the building Tuesday morning.

Mr. Walter Strangway of Windsor, representing the Johns-Manville Co., spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Class.

Easter Millinery—the last word in correct style—moderate prices.—A. Brown & Co.

Order your check books at the Guide-Advocate office. We are agents for the largest check book firm in Canada.

Silk Hose (Seconds) 49c and 69c, two specials, about half price.—Swift's.

Mrs. E. E. Doan returned to her home in the West after spending the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Wm. Ward, Watford, and Mrs. C. H. Corestine, Broke.

Fine weather brought out a good crowd to Mr. Letherland's sale on Saturday afternoon and the household goods sold at fair prices. The residence was not sold.

The first division in the House of Commons on Tuesday an amendment on a motion to go into Supply was defeated by 162 to 42. The Progressives lined up solidly behind the Government.

And now a coal strike seems unavoidable. Well, we can manage to get along for five or six months without coal and hope before that time the strikers will be anxious to go to work again.

Print Dresses and Bungalow Aprons at Swift's, the prices start at 79 cents.

Havecock Lodge, A.F. & A.M. will hold a Pastmasters' night on Tuesday evening next, when the third degree will be conferred on a candidate by former masters of the Lodge. Visiting brethren welcome.

The Excelsior Boys Class of the Methodist S. S. of which Billy Vail has been president and Alex Rapson secretary, elected their new officers as follows:—DeCoursey Rayner president, George Tait secretary.

Just because we have had some nice spring weather and the winter nearly gone, don't deceive yourself by thinking your troubles are over, the terrors of house-cleaning comes next, and then the lawn-mowing.

We have the best all wool dress goods for a dollar a yard, 44 inch, in Ontario, ask to see it.—Swift, Sons & Co.

Lieut. E. S. Copeland, war veteran, called on Mr. F. C. C. Newell this week. Lieut. Copeland was one of the original 1st Battalion of the C.E.F. and was a companion of Mr. G. Newell through some of the horrors of the big war.

Let's Get Acquainted—Members of the A.Y.P.A. of Trinity Church kindly take notice of this invitation to attend a "get acquainted" evening in the school room on Tuesday evening, April 4th, at 8 o'clock. A record attendance is expected. Sec.

20th Century Clothing the standard of Canadian quality.—A. Brown & Co.

The Merchants Bank exists no more—not even in name—for on Thursday last the main office and all the branches adopted the name "Bank of Montreal." All correspondents and business forms, letterheads, in fact everything that once bore the old name have been changed to the name of the absorbing bank.

While working in Chamber's cement shed on Tuesday afternoon, Corney McGraw met with an accident that will confine him to the house for some weeks. Piled up bags of cement started to slip unnoticed and falling struck McGraw on the legs breaking his left one between ankle and knee. He was taken to Dr. Newell's office where the fracture was reduced and then conveyed to his home. Mr. McGraw has a wife and several small children, and to add to his misfortune has been out of work the best part of the winter.

Big drive in overalls, black, heavy twill $1.75—its a winner.—Swift's.

Lord Byng, governor-general of Canada, and Lady Byng will pay an official visit to Sarnia on April 18.

In addition to an avocation, every man should have a hobby. Some have made a hobby of the cultivation of flowers and have found that a great deal of pleasure and profit may be derived therefrom. Join the Horticultural Society and try it the coming season.

Real Standard Shirts at Swift's, ask to see them.

The season for sowing is approaching. Let us all prepare to scatter seeds of kindness, soy abundantly that we may reap a large harvest of true happiness, and have our gardens overflowing with peace and goodwill, and we can heap our measures with malice toward none and charity for all.

One of these business experts delivered an address in Toronto on "Making the Dollar Work Faster." The few we pocket get away from us so fast now that we don't really have a chance to get acquainted, and we certainly do not need any tips along the line of how to get any quicker action.

Did you get any of last week's bargains? The list stands for this week, read add. Come to Swift's now.

Rev. Murton Shore of Warwick, will be the special preacher at Trinity Church mid-week Lenten services this (Thursday) evening. As this will likely be the last chance for some time to hear this popular minister preach, his many friends in Watford should embrace the opportunity of hearing him. All welcome. Service at 8 o'clock.

Men's Easter Hats opened this week. Borsalinos $7.50, Kings $3.50.—A. Brown & Co.

Professor Kingston's lecture on astronomy given at the High School last Friday evening was much enjoyed by the large audience present.

This was the eighth lecture given under the auspices of the Reading Club this year. It is expected that the concluding lecture will be arranged for Friday, April 7.

Under the auspices of the Excelsior Boys Class an Easter concert will be given by the Junior members of the S.S. in the Methodist Sunday school room Thursday, April 13th. Collier, chief constable of Souris, Man., sends his subscription to the Guide-Advocate and says:—"Although away from the old town so many years I still feel an interest in the place and have been pleased to note the many improvements in the town, particularly the paving of Main street and the big skating rink. Keep her booming, folks, she is a good old town."

MEETING LAMBTON INSURANCE COMPANY

There was a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Lambton Farmers' Ins. Co., in their office on Main street, on Saturday last, 20th inst.

There were some 15 claims for fire to settle, most of them under $50. Two of them were for stock killed by lightning.

Geo. Williamson, Warwick, was paid $1188 for house and contents burned. Mrs. M. Workman, Sombra, for house $1000, and Lyle Tomlin, tenant, $450, his insurance on contents in fall; Harry Hutton, Moore, was paid $500 on house and contents destroyed. Settlement of claims of J. M. Hartley, Enniskillen, for barn, stable and granary burned, and insured for $500 was laid over for further information. The repairing of the Bear Creek Presbyterian Church that was badly damaged by lightning, while service was being held on Sunday, 19th February last, was left to be attended to by Inspector White of Corunna. Since Board adjourned an offer was received from the Trustees of Church, to repair same for $580.

"A Mock Parliament" will be presented under the auspices of the Warwick Community Organization of the W. I. on April 7 at 8 p.m., Orange Hall, Warwick. Adults 25c, children 10c.

On Friday evening, March 24th, the members of St. James' church, Broke, together with the neighbors presented Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lucas with a miscellaneous shower at their home on the 6th line, Warwick. The shower consisted of many useful gifts which were gratefully received by the young couple, afterward the ladies served a dainty lunch and the rest of the evening was spent in music, games and singing. All returned home satisfied that Mr. and Mrs. Lucas were a jolly good couple.

Rev. W. M. Shore, rector of St. Mary's church, Warwick Village, and St. Paul's church, Wisbeach, has tendered his resignation of the charge, but no definite action has been taken.

During his 18 years' incumbency here, Mr. Shore and his wife have both been devoted and faithful workers in the cause, and have hosts of friends who will regret a severance of the friendships. The drive to and from Wisbeach and the extra duties in connection therewith are almost too much for Mr. Shore's strength as time goes on.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kenzie held a delightful social evening last Thursday for the Senior Adult Bible class of Bethel S. S., which with a few friends made a company of about 40.

As Mr. Will Luckham who has been a member of the class during his stay here this winter, was to leave for the West on Saturday, the evening was arranged in his honor. A good program of games, contests, music and speeches in which all took part and an appetizing lunch made a happy evening. With best wishes to Mr. Luckham for a safe journey and with a hearty vote of thanks to the host and hostess the gathering was brought to a close with the singing of "God be with you till we meet again."

The regular meeting of the Warwick W. I. was held in the Town Hall on Monday evening, March 20th. The meeting opened in the usual way after which a letter of thanks was read for our contribution to the French Orphans. Jack Main and Harold Barnes gave a very appropriate reading, "Dad and Me", describing old and new business in life. Greetings from England and Wales to the Ontario W. I. was read by Miss S. Barnes. The officers for the school fair were elected. Pres.—Mrs. J. Robinson, vice-pres.—Mrs. E. Morris, sec.—Mrs. A. Ross. A sum of money was also voted to be sent to the Russian Famine Fund.

The next meeting will be held in the Town Hall on April 13. Roll call to be answered with an Easter message.

The community evening of the Warwick W. I. was held in the Town Hall last Thursday. The chair was occupied by Miss A. Ross. The program consisted of community singing, an address by Miss Ross on Madam Murphy, a dialogue entitled "My Aunt From California" was splendidly rendered by seven girls, a very interesting paper on "What Canada Requires of The Canadians" by Mr. Kenneth Ross, Mrs. Main sang a Scotch solo which was much appreciated, a reading from the poems of Robert Service, one of our Canadian authors was given by Mr. Lloyd Cook, followed by community singing, a very instructive and inspiring address on "Intellectual Culture" was given by Mr. E. Bean. Every number on the program was much enjoyed by all and the evening was brought to a close by singing "God Save The King."

Fred Williamson has been engaged as farmer at the House of Refuge.

Do your wall-papering now while the stock is complete. We have all the latest designs of wall and ceiling paper. Let us show you.—P. Dodds & Son. 17m-4t

Mr. Charlton was on his way to Wardsville to conduct a service for Rev. Mr. Murphy, and in getting off the train at Newbury the door of the car closed suddenly on his finger.

The blacksmith shop of Manly Stubbs, Sombra, narrowly escaped being burned to the ground last Wednesday afternoon. A woman residing near the shop saw flames creeping along the roof unnoticed by the proprietor, who was in the adjoining building, and raised an alarm. The blaze was extinguished before much damage was done.

A farmer last fall said, when his brother farmers were complaining of low prices for hogs and high prices for feed and stated that they were going out of them, he decided it was a good time to go into them. Now when hogs are becoming fewer and prices much higher he has a fine bunch coming along. Today farmers are going back to hog raising and young pigs are bringing a high price.

Petrolia council has purchased a new team of horses for the Fire Department. They are sorrels and were bought from Welsh Bros., Enniskillen for $400.

Dr. James King died Friday afternoon at his family residence, Leamington. Death was due to a complication of appendicitis and influenza which lasted five days. Deceased was in his fifty-sixth year and had lived practically eight years in Staples, Ont., prior to his coming here 20 years ago. He was one of the most beloved and widely known physicians in Western Ontario.

Mr. (Dr.) J. F. James entertained at a delightful afternoon tea yesterday, when about forty ladies called to enjoy the charming hospitality of the hostess. Mrs. W. T. Goodison and Mrs. (Dr.) Bradley presided at the tea table which was lovely with pretty china, lace and deep red roses. Miss Jean Conn and Miss Margaret Bradley, assisted.—Sarnia Observer.

Saturday night about 11 o'clock Mr. James Beggs, Bothwell, had an experience that will cost a penny or two and one that might have cost him his life. Running short of gas he attempted to fill the tank in his Ford with gasoline. A lantern which was lit and standing in close proximity upset his calculation, and in a jiffy the car was in flames, the top, wood work and upholstery being consumed by fire.

The recent death of George Herbert Patterson at his home on the fifth concession of Dawn Township, removed one of the well-known residents of Lambton and a man with whom many Oil Springs people were well acquainted. He was ill only for a short time. He is survived by a widow, formerly Margaret Hinde, of Enniskillen, Russell Patterson of Dawn and William of Sarnia are brothers.

Mrs. W. Bodkin and Mrs. H. Case, of Bothwell are sisters. Three sons and five daughters survive.
