With the June Brides

McCORMICK—RANKIN

A very pretty wedding took place at high noon on Saturday at James st. Union Church, Forest, when Lilian Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rankin, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Cecil McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick, Warwick, Rev. S. Anderson performed the ceremony and Miss Lorna Luckham of Glencoe played the wedding music. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a French gown of white georgette trimmed with crystal beads. Her long white veil of embroidered net was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lily of the valley and Ophelia roses, and wore the groom's gift, a rope of pearls. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Freda Rankin, who wore a dress of peach colored georgette, gold lace trimmings and hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Tom McCormick.

Mr. Henry Forbes and Mr. Art Wilson acted as ushers. During the signing of the register Dr. Woods of Arkona sang "I Love You Truly." A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet luncheon was served. The bride's table was decorated with pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left for a trip by boat to Cleveland and Detroit the bride wearing a sand costume. On their return they will reside near Watford.

HALL—WILLIAMS

A very happy event took place on Wednesday, June 17th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, 2nd line, Plympton, when their daughter, Edna Elizabeth, became the bride of Mr. Lloyd M. Hall, of Sarnia township, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall.

The ceremony took place under an arch of evergreens and peonies where hung a white bell.

Promptly at three o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. Frank Hall, Rev. Wm. Cox, Cong'l minister of Forest officiated at the ceremony. The bride looked charming in ivory satin de chene with overdress of silk lace and wearing the customary veil with corsage bouquet of Sunset roses and sweet peas, was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Williams, dressed in peach silk crepe, also carrying sweet peas and roses, while Mr. Geo. Hall acted as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests repaired to the diningroom which was tastefully decorated in pink and white and partook of a dainty wedding feast after which Mr. and Mrs. Hall left by motor amid showers of confetti and good wishes for London and points east. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm in Sarnia township.

GRAHAM—KENNEDY

One of the loveliest of June brides was Miss Ulah Bernice Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kennedy, Wortley road, London, whose marriage to Mr. Eric Graham, son of Major, the Rev. Archibald Graham and Mrs. Graham of Chesley formerly of London, took place Saturday afternoon, June 20th, at 2.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Donald McIntosh of Ingersoll, cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony, assisted by Major Graham.

The bride wore a charming gown of white silk taffeta, fashioned with a tight basque and full short skirt, bearing tiny frills on each side. A bandeau of pearls and shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley completed her costume.

During the playing of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the bride took her stand before the bay window of the livingroom, banked in pretty profusion with palms, ferns, pink and white peonies and roses. Here the wedding ceremony took place and during the signing of the register, Mrs. M. W. Turner of Detroit in a smart gown of white satin, sang sweetly, "Dawning." Miss Helen Oliver, cousin of the bride, presided at the piano wearing a becoming frock of navy georgette prettily beaded in steel.

Following the ceremony, at which only the immediate relatives were present, a buffet luncheon was held. The bride's table was lovely with its pink and white color scheme carried out in roses and tulle. Mrs. A. E. Kennedy, mother of the bride received wearing a graceful gown of black georgette showing touches of amber and gold bead trimmings and wore a corsage of Richmond roses. Mrs. A. Graham, mother of the groom wore a lovely gown of black georgette, handsomely beaded in steel, and corsage of roses.

For going away the bride donned a modish ensemble suit, the gown of nasturtium yellow crepe remain with coat of navy blue charmes, showing a lining of nasturtium yellow. The hat was of sand tone braid, small and lined with shell pink. Following a honeymoon of about two weeks to be spent in Muskoka, Mr. and Mrs. Graham will reside in Watford.

Out of town guests for the wedding included the groom's parents, Rev. Archibald Graham and Mrs. Rev. Graham, of Chesley; Miss Ethel Kennedy, of Toronto; Mrs. M. A. Nesbitt and their daughter Genevieve of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. W. Turner, of Detroit; Mr. Milton Prout, of Detroit; Dr. Clyde Kennedy, brother of the bride, of United Hospitals, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. B. S. Russell of Ingersoll; Miss Helen Oliver of Ingersoll and Rev. and Mrs. McIntyre, of Ingersoll.

HILL—WALKER

New St. James' Presbyterian church, London, was the scene of a pretty but very quiet wedding at two o'clock Wednesday, June 10th, when Geraldine, daughter of Mrs. Mary Walker, formerly of Watford, became the bride of Mr. William A. Hill, also of London, the Rev. Mr. Hannamson officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Chas. Walker, was becomingly gowned in poudre blue embroidered in gold. She wore a smart black hat faced with gold and an Isabella fox fur, gift of the groom. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Butterfly roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. Percy King, organist of New St. James' church, played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register Miss Gladys McEvoy sang delightfully "Until."

The groom's gift to the bride was a pretty silver bracelet studded with rhinestones. For travelling, the bride donned a smart ensemble suit of black satin-faced crepe, with blouse of canary yellow; a Morocco wrap and hat to match. Following a motor trip to Niagara Falls and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Hill will reside in London. Many lovely gifts were showered upon the young couple.

INWOOD WOMAN BADLY BURNED IN GAS EXPLOSION

John Clark and Harry Adams Also Suffer When Well Gas Blows Up

Three persons were badly burned near Inwood Saturday in a gas explosion. John Clark, who owns a farm a short distance from that village, operates a milk route in the village, and in his milk house, he has a water well to keep his milk cool. There had been gas escaping from the well and he had taken some steps to utilize the gas in connection with the milk business. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and her father, Harry Adams, were in the building when Mr. Clark lit his pipe.

When the match was struck the explosion blew out a door which opened on the inside. The clothes of all three were ignited. Mrs. Clark in her fright running from the blaze. The two men, with presence of mind, rolled in the grass and then extinguished Mrs. Clark's burning clothes by throwing water on her. The milk house which also caught fire, was put out by Mr. Clark. Dr. F. R. Urie of Inwood was called and although the men were burned about the arms their injuries are slight. Mrs. Clark did not fare so well as practically her entire body was burned. She was removed to the C. E. E. hospital, Petrolia, where it is reported she is resting easier.

Petrolia council decided to discontinue the tourist camp as it had not accommodated one tourist in two years.

Health in Harmony

"The best of all cures is the music cure. For instance: Wagner is good for the liver...." Music Item.

Music, so the adage tells us,

Tends to soothe the savage breast,

Now we learn it soothes our livers,

Stomach, kidneys, lungs and chest!

If you're feeling rather seedy,

Not up to your usual mark,

You can banish all your troubles,

With a little bit of Bach!

Wagner for a sluggish liver,

Richard Strauss for heart disease,

Chopin's good for scarlet fever,

Sullivan for housemaid's knees!

Yet I doubt this latest cure-all—

All my pain I freely own,

I owe to a piece of music—

"Wedding March" by Mendelssohn!
