TO THE LADIES .- THE GENUINE BALM OF COLUMBIA FOR RESTORING THE HAIR

"Long hair is a glosy to a woman," says Paul, And all feel the truth of the pious quotation; Preserve it then, ladies, your glory may fall, Unless you protect it with this preparation.

If you wish a rich, luxurious head of hair, free from dandruff and scruff, do not fail to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia In cases of baldoess, it will more than exceed our expectabalduese, it will more than exceed our expecta-tions. Many who have lost their hair for twenty years have had it restored to its original perfect on by the use of this balm. Age, state, or condition, appears to be no obsticle whatever; it also causes the fluid to flow with which the delicate hair tubes are filled, by which means thousands (whose hair was grey as the Asiatic eagle) have had their hair restored to its natural color by this invaluable re-medy. In all cases of fever it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few ap-plications only are necessary to keep the hair from most pleasant wash that can be used. A few ap-plications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots, it never fails to impart a rich glossy sppearance, and as a per-fume for the rasor it is intequalled. It holds three times as much other miscalled hair restoratives, and is more effectionate. Caurtos —Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co, proprietors, on the wrapper of each bottle, or you are cheated with a counterfeit article.
