

District of Connecticut, ss.

L. S.

BE IT REMEMBERED; That on the eighth day of March, in the thirty-ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America, JOHN R. JEWITT, of the said District, hath deposited in this office, the title of a Book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit,

A narrative of the adventures and sufferings of John R. Jewett; only survivor of the crew of the ship Boston during a captivity of nearly three years among the savages of Nootka Sound: With an account of the manners, mode of living, and religious opinions of the natives. Embellished with two plates, representing the ship in possession of the savages, and a portrait of their Chief, Maquina.

“ Dire scenes of horror on a savage shore,

“ In which, a witness sad, a part I bore.”

In conformity to an act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, “ An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts, and Books, to the proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned.”

HENRY W. EDWARDS,

Clerk of the District of Connecticut.

A true copy of Record, examined and sealed by me,

HENRY W. EDWARDS,

Clerk of the District of Connecticut.
