Stock Notes

MR. JOHN H. DOUGLASS, M.P.P., Warkworth, Ont., writes: "My stock have wintered in excellent condition, with plenty of enquiry for fine stock of all ages. My crop of calves from White Prince (imp.) is the finest I have ever had. I have crossed White Prince (imp.) on several Silver King (imp.) sifers, and, I may say, I am more than pleased with the result. They are of the right dairy type and all light in color, and the most thrifty lot of Ayrshires I have ever raised. My Yorkshires are doing exceptionally well and are coming along fine, long, thrifty fellows of the right bacon type. We have plenty of grass, and everything looks bright for the stockman."
