

islands of the sea pay tribute, more or less, to modern Swiss industry. The cotton of the sunny south is picked, baled and sent across the sea, to be spun among the Alps. The Chinese silk-worms reel their fairy threads to be sent to the weaving-looms

GUILD-HOUSES.