"ST. AUGUSTINE" Sacramental Wine.

The REV. DR. COCHRANE writes:—
BRANTFORD, May 23rd, 1895

Messrs J. S. Hamilton & Co
GENTLEMEN.—The St. Augustine Wine used in my own church on sacramental occasions, as well as in many other churches, I have always heard spoken of in the highest terms and is admirably suited for the purpose. Its deservedly high reputation for purity can be relied upon. The unfermented grape juice also commends itself to those who prefer that the wine should not be fermented and should have a large and increasing sale in our Presbyterian and other Churches.

WM. COCHRANE.

A LIGHT KEEPER'S STORY.

HIS WIFE WAS A PEARFUL SUFFERER FROM RHEUMATISM.

Her Joints Were Swollen and Distorted Her Nights Almost Sleepless and Her Appetite Gone—Suffered for Several Years Before Relief was Found.

From the Kingston News.

Mr. Hugh McLaren, lighthouse keeper on Wolfe Island, is one of the best known men in this section, and to his vigilance in the performance of his duties is due the safety of the many crafts sailing in that part of the St. Lawrence. Mrs McLaren, his wife, has been an invalid for a number of years, and in conversation with a reporter recently, Mr. McLaren stated that she was rapidly regaining her old-time health under the treatment of that most marvellous of modern medicines—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Asked if he had any objections to giving the particulars, Mr. McLaren replied that emphatically he had not if such publication was likely to benefit any other sufferer. He said: "A number of years ago my wife contracted rheumatism, and for a considerable time was a helpless invalid. Her joints were swollen and distorted; her nights were sleepless and her appetite poor and very fickle. During those years she experienced excruciating tortures, the pain never ceasing day or night. She had the benefit of skilled medical advice but the treatment afforded no relief, and we began to fear that her trouble had gone beyond human aid. On a number of occasions I had read in the papers of cases of rheumatism being cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this at last determined us to give them a trial. She had used some three boxes before any improvement was noticed: and then we began to note that she slept better and that her appetite was improved. Then the pains gradually began to subside, and after using about a dozen boxes she was able to get up and walk about. She continued the use of the pills for a while longer, and although occasionally she feels twinges of the trouble in changeable weather, she now enjoys better health than she has done for years, and can sleep as soundly as ever she did in her life, while her appetite never was better. I look upon Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a wonderful medicine, for I know they have done wonders in my wife's case, and I feel certain that if any who are afflicted as she was will give them a good trial, equally happy results will follow, and I therefore give this testimony freely, hoping it will benefit some other sufferer."

Mr. McLaren's strong testimony proves the claim made that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail, and that they deserve to rank as the greatest discovery of modern medical science. The public should always be on their guard against imitations and substitutes, which some unscrupulous dealers for the sake of extra profit, urge upon purchasers. There is no other remedy "just the same as" or "just as good" as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the genuine always have the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box.

At the annual meeting of the Toronto Board of Trade on Tuesday Mr. Stapleton Caldecott, the retiring president, reviewed the condition of trade in Canada during the past year. He alluded to the gradual recovery from the depression of the years 1893 and 1894, and congratulated the Board on the better business outlook for the current year. The new president, Mr. E. B. Osler, made a hopeful address on assuming office.

Adam Soper, Burk's Falls, Ont.: "I suffered much pain for months from kidney and bladder disease. I received skilled medical treatment, and tried all kinds of medicines, to no purpose; in fact, I did not obtain any relief until South American Kidney Cure was used. It seemed to fit my case exactly, giving me immediate relief. I have now used six bottles, and can say positively that I am a cured man. I believe one bottle of the remedy will convince anyone of its great worth."
