

exercise with additions from Heb. i. 6—8, together with examinations on Greek, Hebrew and Church History.—All these exercises being highly satisfactory to the Presbytery it was unanimously agreed to license. Mr. Sedgewick, having given his assent to the Questions of the Formula provided for such cases, the Moderator declared him licensed to preach the everlasting gospel and give a suitable charge to the young Licentiate. Prayer was subsequently offered that the Great Head of the Church might furnish him largely with spiritual gifts, and make him an instrument of turning many souls to righteousness, and of largely benefitting the Church and cause of the Redeemer.

Mr. Sedgewick was appointed to supply the congregation of Newport during the month of January, thence to proceed to Sheet Harbour should he be continued by the Board of Home Missions any longer under the charge of the Presbytery. Rev. James Waddell was appointed to supply the congregation of Newport during the month of February.—Mr. Waddell was farther appointed to supply Clyde River, Barrington and Cape Sable Island during March and April, should the contemplated division of Shelburne congregation take place prior to that time.—Ch. Witness.
