

A writer in an article in the Messenger and Missionary Record of the English Presbyterian Church, referring to the results of the labors of Messrs. Moody and Sankey in the metropolis, says: "The Churches have been greatly quickened: the presence, power, and love of the Saviour have been realized by His people in a marked degree; individual Christians, long members, have been enabled by grace to re-dedicate themselves to God, with a more correct and comprehensive idea of the meaning and value of true spiritual life and labor; the various sections of the Church of Christ have worked together with much harmony and love; misgivings and petty jealousies have been dying out; the one-accord of the brethren has been all but attained; and the consequence has been a wonderful demonstration, to all who are willing to look, of the power of earnest, heart-felt prayer." The same writer says: "It would be a mistake, however, to suppose that all the good effected by the labors of our American brethren has been the quickening of believers. This alone would have been a great result, and would have told powerfully on the religion of London for many years to come. But we rejoice to believe that multitudes, both of men and women, have been added to the Church, of such as shall be saved."

At the farewell meeting, held on the 12th July, there were many ministers present. All present were deeply affected; Mr. Moody was so overcome by emotion, that he was unable to finish his address.

During their stay in London, Messrs. Moody and Sankey held, during the past four months, 60 meetings, in Camberwell, attended by 480,000 people; 45 in Victoria Hall, attended by 400,000; in the Opera House, 60 meetings, attended by 600,000; and in the Agricultural Hall, 60 meetings, attended by 720,000—in all 225 meetings, attended by 2,200,000. The amount expended for building, printing, stewards, etc., was $140,000. Messrs. Moody and Sankey decline to receive any compensation from the Committee.

DEATH OF REV. WILLIAM ARNOT.

The death of the Rev. William Arnot has called forth notices of greater or less length in all the religious periodicals of the day. The deceased was one of the most distinguished ministers of the Free Church, in Edinburgh. Previously he was minister of Free St. Peter's, in Glasgow. He was editor of the Family Treasury, and author of several popular works, including biographies of Dr. Hamilton and James Halley. His removal occasions a blank which will not be soon filled.

Missionary Intelligence.

INDIA.—LETTERS FROM MISS FAIRWEATHER.

RAKHA MISSION HOUSE, April 21st, 1875.

DEAR MR. REID,—Your second of exchange only came to hand this morning and I hasten to reply. Since last I wrote to you nothing new has happened here. We are all working away as usual. We are sleeping on the roofs now at nights, as that is the only endurable place after the hot