None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile poisonous stuff with Hop or "Hops" in their name.

Why do the Wicked Flourish.

God lets the wicked live that all may understand that there must be another world for adjustments. So many of the bad up and so many of the good down. There must be a place where brilliant scoundrelism shall be arraigned and innocence arise from under the heel of oppression. Common fairness, as well as eternal justice, demands it. To the Grand Assize we must adjourn the stupendous injustices of this life. They are not righted here. There must be some place where they will be righted. God cannot afford to omit the judgment day, or a reconstruction of conditions. You cannot make me believe that that man, stuffed with abominations, having devoured widows' houses and digested them and looked with basilisk or tigerish eyes on his fellows, liking no music so well as the sound of breaking hearts, is going at death to get out of his laudan at the front door of the sepulchre and there get into a celestial turnout, already hitched up to drive tandem up the primrose hills, one glory riding as lackey ahead and another glory riding as postillion behind, while that poor woman who supported her invalid husband and helpless children by taking in washing and ironing, often putting her hand to her side where a cancerous trouble had already begun its work, and falling dead late one night while trying to get one of the children's garments ready for the Sabbath day, and going afoot into the front door of the sepulchre is to cross to its back door and find nothing waiting, no one to say: "I am glad you have come," and no one to show her to the King's gate. It cannot be. Solomon bewailed the prince's foot and the beggars' horseback, and there must be a time when the right foot shall get into the stirrup. To demonstrate to all the world that there must be another state for re-arranging these inequalities God lets the wicked live.—T. De Witt Talmage.

If you want to be miserable, think about yourself, about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay to you, and what people think of you.

"No man can tell but he who loves his children," says Jeremy Taylor, "how many delicious accents make a man's heart dance in the pretty conversation of these dear pledges."

KNOW THYSELF, by reading the "Science of Life," the best medical work ever published, for young and middle-aged men.

Keep doing, always doing. Wishing, dreaming, intending, murmuring, talking, sighing and pining are idle and profitless employments.

EPPS'S COCOA 'GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.'—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets by grocers, labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, Eng."

Patience is bitter, but its fruit is sweet.

Unprecedented Success.

For all purposes of a family medicine, Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the head of the list. It is used with unprecedented success, both internally and externally. It cures Sore Throat, Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites; relieves and often cures Asthma.

The golden beams of truth and the silken chords of love, twisted together, will draw men on with a sweet violence, whether they will or not.

Consumption Cured

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. MORSE, 100 PULASKI STREET, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

He who observes the speaker more than the sound of words will seldom meet with disappointments.

The History of Hundreds.

Mr. John Morrison, of St. Anns, N.S., was so seriously afflicted with a disease of the kidneys that droopy was developing and his life was despaired of. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him after physicians had failed.

Put this restriction on your pleasures: Be cautious that they injure no being which has life.

Avoid by all means the use of calomel for bilious complaints. Ayer's Cathartic Pills compounded entirely of vegetable ingredients, have been tested for forty years, and are acknowledged to be the best remedy ever devised for torpidity of the liver, costiveness, and all derangements of the digestive apparatus.

To study philosophy is nothing but to prepare one's self to die.

Orion Catlin, 49 Pearl Street, Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I tried various remedies for the piles, but found no relief until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, which entirely cured me after a few applications." Since Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil has become celebrated, unprincipled persons are imitating it. Get the genuine.

Indolence is the rust of the mind and the inlet of every vice.

A Human Barometer.

The man with rheumatism can feel the approach of bad weather in his aching joints. Hagyard's Yellow Oil cures rheumatism, aches, pains and injuries.

Short, Sharp and Decisive.

Fifteen days after date of closing will be allowed for letters to reach the LADIES' JOURNAL Office from distant points. The letters must not be post-marked where mailed later than the 15th July. So if you live almost anywhere on the other side of the Atlantic, or in distant places in the States, you will stand a good chance for these consolation rewards. All persons competing must become subscribers for at least one year to the LADIES' JOURNAL, for which they must enclose, with their answers, FIFTY CENTS, the regular yearly subscription price. Those who are already subscribers will have their term extended one year for the half dollar sent. Those who cannot easily obtain script or post-office order for fifty cents, may remit one dollar for two years' subscription, and the JOURNAL will be sent them for that time; or for the extra money the JOURNAL will be mailed to any friend's address that may indicate.

AN INTERESTING MAGAZINE.

The LADIES' JOURNAL contains 20 large and well-filled pages of choice reading; matter, interesting to everyone, but especially so to the ladies. One or two pages of new music, (full size,) large illustrations of latest fashions, Review of Fashions for the Month, Short and Serial Stories, Household Hints, &c., &c., and is well worth double the small subscription fee asked. It is only because we have such a large and well established circulation (52,000) that we can afford to place the subscription at this low price. You will not regret your investment, as in any case you are sure to get the LADIES' JOURNAL for one year. Everything will positively be given exactly as stated, and no favoritism will be shown anyone. Large lists of prize-winners in previous competitions have appeared and are appearing in every issue of the JOURNAL, any one of whom maybe referred to as to the genuineness of these offers. The LADIES' JOURNAL has been established nearly five years, and the publisher has been in business nine years. He can therefore be depended upon to carry out all his promises. He has always done so in the past, and cannot afford to do aught else in the future. Address, EDITOR "LADIES' JOURNAL," Toronto, Canada.

Good the Year Round.

At all seasons, when the system is foul and the digestive powers feeble, or the liver and kidneys inactive, Burdock Blood Bitters are required.

Truth, like the sun, submits to be obscured, but, like the sun, only for a time.

A CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—I will send a Recipe, free to any person desiring the same, that has cured hundreds of cases of drunkenness. It can be given in a cup of tea, coffee, or even in the drunkard's much loved whiskey, and without the knowledge of the person taking it if so desired. Enclose stamp for particulars. Address M. V. LUBON, 47 Wellington St. East, Toronto, Ont.

Let us ride fair and softly, that we may get home the sooner.

Does this Refer to You?

Are you troubled with biliousness, dyspepsia, liver or kidney complaints, or bad blood? If so you will find a certain cure in Burdock Blood Bitters.

If a good man thrives all thrives around him.

Prompt Measures.

Prompt means should be used to break up sudden colds, and cure coughs in their early stages. Hagyard's Peppermint Balsam does this most splendidly and effectually.

Be rigid to yourself and gentle to others.

A Trinity of evils. Biliousness, constipation and dyspepsia usually exist together. By disciplining the liver and toning the stomach simultaneously, they can be eradicated. The promptitude and thoroughness with which Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and great blood purifier removes this trinity of physical evils is a fact widely appreciated throughout Canada.

And may God hasten the time when war itself shall be buried. The grim old breaker of hearts! Carry him out on an old rusty shield. Lay down his miserable carcass in the most dim spot in all the earth. Bury his sword with him. Heap on his grave stones and broken chariot wheels. Let wail and orphanage clap their hands over his grave and the winds howl for his requiem, "This is the second death!"

Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effectual every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.
