

MANY PEOPLE THINK that if they have a slight cold or cough, the best thing they can do is to do nothing, but simply let it wear off. It is the indulgence in this fearfully erroneous idea that makes the dread scourge of Consumption so frightfully common—so common, that it is estimated that war is as nothing, and pestilence a bagatelle compared to it. Never neglect a cold till too late, but use Wingate's Pulmonic Troches, which give immediate relief. Sold everywhere for 25 cents.

SOMETHING NEW.—Ladies of Montreal will find a full stock of the celebrated Frank Lesslie Paper Patterns, at the salesrooms of the C. W. Williams' Manufacturing Co., 347 Notre Dame St. Also a full stock of the improved Williams' Singer Sewing Machines. Nothing better for a Christmas Present.
