WHAT THE NOVA-SCOTIANS THINK.

WHAT THE NOVA-SCOTIANS THINK.

[From the Halifax Sun, Sept. 24, 1848.]

We have never had any great faith in "quack medicines," as they are called; but at the same time, we think it quite possible many of these contain those healing properties, which from their beneficial influence on the constitution, have led to the many published laudatory certificates in their behalf. We have now to speak of our own experience. Last winter, for a length of time, we suffered from a heavy cold caught in the early part of the season—our cough being violent and harrassing—and more from curiosity than any belief in its virtues, we procured a bottle of Wistar's Balsam; and we are free to confess, that ere we had swallowed its contents, in fitful doses as prescribed, cough and cold had left us. As the Agent for the Proprietor of this valuable medicine is now in this City, we mention this fact in proof of its qualities, that he may have our testimony, be the value of it what it may, to add to that of others similarly benefited.

This medicine, coming from a respectable source, and carefully prepared by an experienced and skilful physician, is received by the public with confidence. Its efficacy has been proved in many obstinate cases of disease, and its fame has rapidly extended. It has been extensively used in every part of the country, particularly in the Middle and Northern States; and strong testimony from intelligent and highly respectable persons, has been adduced in favor of its merits as a remedy for Colds and Coughs, affections of the Chest, Diseased Liver, &c.

LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

The genuine Balsam is put up in bottles, with the words "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, Phila.," blown in the glass; each bottle bearing a label on the front, with the signature of H. WISTAR, M. D.
