

"TRUE Irish Hearts" is as pretty an Irish play as one would care to see, and is very appropriately set in scenery. The company, too, is a good one. Kittie Coleman, the soubrette jig and reel dancer, is a strong leader in the cast and merits all the attention she receives. She is a very clever little actress and in her dancing brings down the house.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "True Irish Hearts" runs all this week at the Toronto Opera House.

LITTLE THREE-YEAR-OLD ARTHUR was pulling the cat's tail, when a gentleman said, "You mustn't do that; she will bite." The little fellow replied, "Cats don't bite at this end."

"I TURN it down," said the young lady who was playing euchre with a gentleman who had called upon her. "What do you make it?"

"Hearts," was the response.
"Hearts seems to be a favorite trump with you young men," she said, archly.
"What trump would you prefer?" he inquired.

"Diamonds—or," she added in an abstracted way, "seal skin sacks."—Merchant Traveler.

IT is as plain as the nose on your face, and there's no excuse for you overlooking it!" exclaimed a husband whose wife had forgotten to reduce the size of the button hole in his shirt collar. "But, deary, how can I help overlooking the nose on my face!" was the patient and placid answer that set him wild.
