ST, PATRICK'S NEW PASTOR.

Father Quintivan Appointed as Father Dowd's Successor-Sketch of the New Pastor.

The pastorate rendered vacant by the death of the revered and lamented Father, bowd has been filled. Upon the Rev. John Quinlivan. S.S., who has for several years been one of the suggestly arom of St. Patrick's, has been placed the honor as well as the burden of being the principal priest of that well-known Irish Catholic parish. The responsibility attached to the dignity is no light one, especially in view of the great administrative abilities for which the late pastor rendered blinself conspicious, not to speak of the many accomplishments which he possessed in so superlative a degree and the half century of splendid sacerdota which he possessed in so superlative a degree, and the half century of splendid sacerdota work which he so zealously performed. But it may safely be predicted that in Father Quintivan the balely deceased pastor of the leading Irish Church in Montreal will not be unworthily succeeded. Born in Strathford, Ont., on September the 17th, 1816, Father Quinitivan is hardly yet in the prime of life. His father as his patronymic would indicate, was a native of the Emeriad Irle; his mother was Scotch. He received his early education in that part of Canada, and made his classical studies in the school of the Basillan Fathers, Tozonto. Having graduated with high honors there, he came to Montreal to study philosophy at the Seminary of St. Sulpleo. On completing his course there, he studied the science of sciences, theology, for a period of four years in the Grand Seminary on Sherbrooke street, after which he went to the principal seminarien institution of the Sulpician Order in Paris, to render himself still more proficient in the study of sacred lore. Falling health, however, compelied him to rolurn to Montreal not long afterwards, where he was ordained by his Grace Archibishop Fabre, and he entered the Grand Seminary, this time as a professor. His principal parochial work has been performed in connection with St. Patrick's church, where the late Father Dowd found in him a capable assistant in the financial administration of the affairs of the parish. Father Quinlivan is of that retiring disposition which is characteristic of the profound scholar. He is an earnest, zealous and indefatigable worker, but takes great care to be thostentations in his energy. He is affable in manner and kindly in disposition; and while his pulpit oratory is of the chaste and quietly cloquent order, it is marked by the earnestness and logicality which never fail to carry conviction to the listeners. The TRUE WITNESS heartily congratulates him upon the well merited dignity that has been conferred upon him, and hopes that Providence will vouch a feet of him many long years in wite to carry on successfully the great mission that has been cultrusted to him.

Lenten Preacher For St. Mary's. The Rev. Father O'Bryan, S.J., whose pulpit cloquence has made him famous throughout the Dominion, is coming to Canada. He will deliver the forthcoming course of Lenten ser-mons in St. Mary's Church.

Missionaries for Lent.

The Rev. Father's Poherty, Grey, O'Bryan, Kavanagh, and Donovan, all of whom belong to the Jesuit Order, are forming themselves into a missionary band for the approaching season of Lent. They are open to invitations.

A Well-Known Clerical Visitor.

The Rev. Francis Ryan, S.J., formerly of this city, where he has hosts of friends, and now of the Church of St. Francis Navler, New York, passed through Montrent last week, on his way to Ontario, where he has gone to spend a few weeks' vacation.

St. Mary's Convent.

St. Mary's Convent, on Craig street, is in a flourishing condition, and its increasing popularity is evidently the fact that there are some three hundred pupils now in attendance. It is a distrebass institution for young girls through-out the country who are desirous of qualifying for diplomas. A findled number of pupils can be accommodated by the Sisters as boarders.

Church of the Sacred Heart.

Rev. Abbe. Dubue has resigned his position as cure of the parish of the Sacred Heart on account of ill-health. He will in the future devote himself entirely to religious work among children. He will be succeeded by Rev. Abbe Adam, at present cure of Hochelaga, and it is said that the Rev. Abbe Brissette, at present vicar of st. Charles, will succeed Father Adam.

Honors for a Quebec Priest.

The Rev. Auguste Gosselin, parish priest of nada Atlande railway, and Miss Annie Roger, of a life of Mgr. de Laval, has been elected corsecond daughter of ex-Ald. J. C. Roger, was St. Fereal, Montmorency county, and author quairies de Normandie" and of the "Societe qualities or Normange "and of the "Societe libre d'Agriculture, Sciences, Artset Belles Lettres du Departement de l'Eure," The first society meets in Caen and the other in Evreux, two cities where Mgr. de Laval resided before coming to Cunada.

Rev. Father Doherty, S.J.

This distinguished Jesuit scholar and lecturer, who is already known to the Catholies of Montreal, has been recalled to St. Mary's College. During his long absence from the city he has been commerced with St. Francis Xavier Church in Liverpool, England, and with the Jesui Church of the same name in New York. In both of these cities he won golden opinions by its zeal, eloquetace, and cipe crudition. His many (riends here will be glad to learn that he will soon be amongst them again.

ST. ANN'S YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY. Forty-Eight New Candidates Added to the Roll of Membership.

The usual monthly meeting of the above society was held in their hall, Ottawa street, Sunday afternoon, the spiritual director, Rev. Father Strubbe, C.S S.IL, presiding, and was attended by about 200 members. The officers elected at the annual meeting last month were duly installed. The question of certain important amendments to the constitution was discussed at some length, and the matter was referred to a special committee, who will report on the same at the next monthly meeting. After the transection of other routine business, the names of 35 candidates for membership were proposed, to be ballotted for at the next meeting. Much enthusiasm was manifested in connection with the society's forthcoming entertalmments on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, the indications being that they will be very successful, financially as well as artistically. It was announced that the new set of instruments for the society's band had arrived from New York, and it was arranged that practice should begin at once, with a view to their being proficient for the procession on St. Patrick's Day, Great indignation was expressed at the announcement which evidently some evil-disposed person caused to be published in the press of Saturday tast to the cheet that a reception was to be given Sunday afternoon in the society's hall to a noted pugilist, and the president was instructed to write the press and given that contradiction to the announcement.

The Rev. Father Strubbe complimented the discussed at some length, and the matter was

The Rev. Father Strubbe complimented the members on their good attendance at all the exercises of the retreat, which closed Sanday, and urged them to follow up heir good resoit tions by continuing to be practical members of the society, and they might then rely on their being successful in overcoming the many temptations which beset young men.

St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society.

This flourishing society, which is probably the oldest Catholic total abstinence society in the world, will celebrate the fifty-second anniversary of its foundation on Thursday, the 18th inst. A splendid programme is being prepared, and the entertainment to be given will comprise a first-class vocal and musical concert, a lecture from Mr. J. D. Purcell, and addresses from the director Rev. Kennill, on the occasion of the death of his wife. Several new members who had been proposed were elected, and preliminary arrangements were made for the grand entertainment which is to be held on St. Patrick's night under the auspices of the Association. The dramatic piece which has been selected for production is "liory O'More."

St. Mary's Y. M. S.

The Rev. Father Salmon, the popular and ndefatigable pastor of St. Mary's Church, has received from the Very Rev. Father Mitchell, Vicar-General of the Diocese of Brooklyn, a large collection of copies of constitutions, rules, &c., of a number of Catholic young men's societies, to assist him in framing a constitu-tion for the Young Men's society of St. Mary's tion for the Young Men's society of St. Mary's parish, which he has just formed. Father Mitchell was some years ago attached to St. Patrick's Church in this city, where he is held in kindly remembrance. He is well-known for the great interest which he takes in the spiritual, moral, and social interests of young men. Though still a comparatively young man timself, Vlear-general Mitchell will, it is comidently expected in the Biocese of Brookiyn, be appointed successor to the late Bishop o'Longhim, who presided so many years over that important episcopal see.

Gental in his character, loyat in his friendship, the deceased physician was well known and esteemed, not only in Montreal, but throughout the entire province. After passing a brilliant course at the Seminary of Ste. Therese, he devoted himself to the study of medicine and was ministed to practice in Isfa. Although a brilliant career was opened to him in the profession he had chosen he was above all devoted to music, for which he had a grand talent, and his navnificent tenor voice quickly placed him in the very front rank of Canadian annaturs. In In 1878 Caliste Lavallee entrusted to br. Tradeel's artistic care the role of "George" in the opera of "La bame Blanche," which scored such a memorable success in this city. A few years later in the city of Quebec he was selected to short the principal solos in the cannata composed by Lavallee to celebrate the arrival in Canada of H. R. H. Princess Louise. Up to the date of his but fliness he was the leading tenor in the celebrated choir of the Church of the Cisu, and was also well and fevorably known to the musical public of Montreal as a leading attraction at occarly all the amateur converts given here for many years.
