Mercantile Summary.

AMOS A. LAWRENCE, a widely-known business man of Boston, died on Sunday. He was born in 1814.

For the next four weeks Messrs. Greenshields, Son & Co., will occupy sample room No. 40 in the Rossin House, Toronto.

SEVEN passenger steamships arrived in New York from Europe on Sunday, with 2500 steerage and 1200 cabin passengers.

We note a dissolution of the wholesale jewelry firm of H. & A. Saunders, Montreal. Mr. Lewis Saunders continues alone.

MESSRS. A. HARRIS, SON & Co., of Brantford, have stopped work in their shops for three weeks, for machinery and other repairs.

A CONTRACT has been awarded by the authorities in this city to the Canadian Rubber Company for 4,000 feet of their "Paragon" rubber hose. Mr. McIlroy's company was to the fore on the occasion but did not secure the contract.

MR. FRANCIS MURPHY, the successful temperance reformer, was not far wrong when he said: "The political third party has not got a man to sign a pledge that I know of. I regard the prohibition nominations as so many obstacles to true temperance reform."

At a meeting of the creditors of G. Boivin, wholesale shoes, Montreal, held the other day, an offer of 40 cents in the dollar, cash, was made, as anticipated in these columns last week. The majority of creditors have already signified their acceptance of the offer.

THE Springfield Republican relates that when Henry O'Reilly, who died there last week, wanted, 40 years ago, to put up a telegraph line between Philadelphia and New York, a New Jersey railroad refused him permission to do it along its way on the ground that the telegraph would enable people to do business without using the railroad.
