Mercantile Summary.

We learn through a letter received from Mr. A. H. Day, grocer, &c., of Oshawa, that our mention of him last week as seeking to compromise with his creditors was incorrect, since he never made any proposition of the sort, and has no intention of doing so. We regret that we have been misled and that we have done any injustice to Mr. Day in this matter.

SOME days ago we received from Ingersoll a newspaper containing a marked paragraph which described the establishment and eulogized the success of a Mr. G. J. Shrapnell, provision and grocer dealer there. By the same mail came a letter from Mr. Shrapnell in which, speaking of the long hours he had labored, and the difficulties he had surmounted to attain the position he held, he gave us to understand that he could bring thousands of people to testify to the accuracy of the paragraph, if we saw fit to copy it. Desiring to know more of him through some other pen than his own we made enquiry about Mr. S. and found that his statement of affairs to his creditors showed liabilities of $17,286, and assets but $9,579, and that a writ of attachment has been issued against him. True, there is a store valued at $4000, but that is in his wife's name; there is also his dwelling worth another $1000, but that is in name of his wife's brother; and, unkindest cut of all, his wife declines, and we presume her affectionate brother also declines to become security for the compromise which Mr. S. now offers of fifty cents per dollar to his creditors in London, Hamilton, and elsewhere. The estate will pay, it is thought, about thirty cents to the dollar. We have no hesitation in ex-
