

Stronger relations with the EC are central to Canada's ties with the new Europe. Canada supports a strong and prosperous EC, one that is open to the world. Our objective is to expand high-level contacts with the EC, both at the head of government and ministerial levels, and to develop existing institutional ties at all levels.