

McGILL UNIVERSITY

Office of the Secretary and Bursar

June 25th, 1935.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I write to inform you that the Governors of the University at a meeting held on the 7th of June decided that there should be a general tuition fee in the School of Commerce of $235.00. This includes Registration, Laboratory, Health and Diploma Fees, but does not include the Students' Universal Fee of $17.00, nor the deposit of $10.00 Caution Money.

This new fee is to apply to students in all Years, both those at present registered and those entering the University for the first time.

Yours faithfully,

A. P. S. Glassco

Secretary.

 Or, for Women Students, $12.00.
