

WINDSOR HALL.

Louis XIV. A tablet is placed on the house, which reads: "Forrétier House. Here General Montgomery resided during the winter of 1775-6."

PLACE D'ARMES.

In this Square, past and present interests are united. On the north side is the Bank of Montreal, one of the wealthiest institutions on the Continent, having a capital of $12,000,000, and a reserve fund of $6,000,000. The style of its architecture, of the Corinthian order, forms a pleasing contrast to the buildings which surround it. The sculpture of the pediment, representing Canadian scenes, is the work of Mr. Steel, R.S.A. Some of the frescoes of the interior are considered very fine and should be seen. The northern boundary of the city, in 1721, extended as far as this building, the stone fortifications running through its site.
