

	PAGE
INDIA	274
A Church designed, and Chaplains appointed for Bombay	276
First English Church built at Madras	277
Reasons why no extensive or systematic operations were then carried on in India by the English	278
AFRICA. Encouragement of the Slave Trade	279
Instructions thereon to Lynch, Governor of Jamaica. Sir Leoline Jenkins's Letter touching the redemption of Chris- tian slaves	281
THE WEST INDIES. Jamaica	284
Its Governors	285
The position of the Church therein	286
The first English Church built. Six more added before 1664. Her Clergy	287
Fifteen parishes constituted. The authority of the Bishop of London in Jamaica	288
Authority of the Governor to collate to Ecclesiastical Benefices. The efficacy of Episcopal government impaired by an Act of the Assembly	289
An asylum opened by our Church in Jamaica for French Pro- testants	290
St. Kitt's. Church built there. Disputes with the French	291
Nevis and Montserrat	292
Antigua	293
Slow progress of the Church at first in Antigua. Divided into five parishes in 1681	294
The Virgin Islands and Anguilla acquired	295
Barbados. Act for the encouragement of Faithful Ministers, 1661	296
Hindrances in their way. Godwyn's Negro's and Indian's Ad- vocate	297
Sermon of one of the Barbados Clergy, in behalf of the Negro	300
Ill treatment of the Negroes	301
Acts of the Barbados Legislature against Quakers	302
Godwyn's censure of the Parochial Vestries of Barbados. Grievous irregularities	304
The claims of Godwyn upon our gratitude	306
CAROLINA. Its early history	307
Yearlley's intercourse with it. His remarkable letter to Ferrar describing it	308