TO BUY AMBULANCE BAZAAR WAS HELD

Six Hundred Public School Teachers Officiate at Sale for Soldiers

A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Many Citizens Patronize Event for Purpose of Helping Wounded Volunteers.

Toronto public school teachers to the number of 600 were responsible for one of the largest and most attractive bazaars of the season, held Saturday afternoon and evening in the wide, circular rotunda of Convocation Hall, under the auspices of the Janet Carochan Chapter I. O. O. F. An immense "McLaughlin" Red Cross ambulance was stationed at the main entrance, past which scores of patrons thronged at an early hour in the afternoon and reluctantly turned away again only after the last concert number was over, close to the Cinderella hour. The organization of the bazaar was perfect in every detail, the wonderful and extensive supply of finely-made articles for sale being a revelation.

Comfort and supplies for the boys in khaki were made a specialty, also books, fancy-work, home-made dainties and the art department showed that the convenors had not overlooked the fact that many purchasers would be filling their Christmas lists from the well-stocked booths.

Three Concerts Given. Besides the sale, three concerts were given, in which prominent local artists took part. Instrumental and vocal numbers were featured with an elaborate and effective "Pageant of the Allies." Prior to the afternoon concert a presentation of Richmond roses was made to Miss Carochan, in whose honor the chapter is named, and a nosegay of violets was also presented to the regent, Miss Knowles.

The head convenor of the bazaar was Miss I. M. Macdonald, assisted by Miss Marks, convenor of district one; Miss McCauley, convenor of district two; Miss Fulton, convenor of district three; Miss Moffat, convenor of district four; and Miss Dixon, convenor of district five.

Miss Sheppard was in charge of the tea room, a popular resort, where hundreds were served to a dainty tea or delicious hot supper by a large committee of energetic kindergarten teachers in white frocks and Red Cross caps and aprons. The tables and their convenors included: Mrs. McCauley, art work and dolls; Miss Logan, Red Cross supplies and books; Miss Fulton, fancy work; Miss Moffat, orange tree; Miss Hunter, home-made dainties and fruits; Miss Dixon, in the comfort and coziness of the supplies there were included all kinds of woolen articles for soldiers and over 110 pairs of beautiful hand-knitted socks made by the teachers in their spare time at home. The proceeds will be used to purchase a Red Cross ambulance.

TUBERCULOSIS DAY THRUOUT ONTARIO

Eighteen Hundred Ministers Tell of National Sanitarium's Work.

IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS Teachers Will Warn Pupils Today of Dangers of Consumption.

Yesterday was tuberculosis Sunday throughout Ontario. Eighteen hundred ministers of all Christian denominations in the province observed the day, which was the fourth annual tuberculosis day. The Jewish people observed the day on Saturday.

The National Sanitarium Association use this day to draw attention to the needs of consumptives, and to tell of the help they are giving the fighting victim in the struggle for restored health.

Over four thousand cadets and boy scouts were stationed outside the various churches to deliver literature, adding to the word of the minister.

Warning to Pupils. The department of education has instructed all teachers to instruct their pupils today on the dangers of consumption, and how to combat the disease. To this end the National Sanitarium sent out over twelve thousand pieces of special literature to the teachers of the province.

One physical examination each year was urged by many preachers as the best means of detecting the early stages of consumption, and any person in Toronto unable to pay a physician, will receive a free examination at the National Sanitarium, offices, 225 College street. This offer is open to needy persons all this week.

SEPARATION CHEQUES FOR MUNITIONS MEN Wives and Dependents of Canadians Employed in England Get Allowances.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 14.—The first of the separation allowance cheques for the wives and dependents of Canadian munition workers who went to Great Britain at the invitation of the British Government for the manufacture of war munitions, were sent out by the labor department on Saturday. It was found that the wages paid these munition workers were lower than they earned in Canada and that their families in the Dominion were suffering a hardship on the account. Accordingly the British Government agreed to pay a separation allowance of $4.50 weekly and to make it retroactive. About 1500 of these expert munition workers have gone to Great Britain, but it is unlikely that any more will go as Canada is now manufacturing munitions in large quantities.

Strand

The headliner of an all-feature bill on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, will be "The Bank," one of the latest and very best of the Chaplin successes, and one which gives Charlie Chaplin full scope for his genuine sense of humor without being marred by any objectionable features. Salsburg's "Wild Life of America," will also be presented. These are splendid motion pictures of birds, beasts and fishes, and no lover of wild animal life, in any of its many phases, should miss them. Particularly should children see pictures which combine so much entertainment with so much instruction. The bill will also include the tenth instalment of "The Goddess," and the "Fable News." And, as a special added extra feature, the Strand has arranged to present motion pictures of last Tuesday's big military parade.

Paderewski Sale

At the Massey Hall box office this morning, seats go on sale for the Paderewski recital announced for next Monday night, Nov. 22. In nine tours of America, the present one being his tenth, the great Polish virtuoso has given more than 800 concerts in at least 250 different cities and towns from coast to coast, and from Canada to the Gulf. At the age of 54 years, his latest birthday being celebrated on Nov. 6 last, he still maintains his supreme position at the head of those denominated "the world's greatest." Lustre has been added to his fame since the war broke out by his wonderful efforts in behalf of his war-stricken fellow countrymen in Poland, for whom he has raised thousands of dollars by appearances as a speaker on the concert stage.

Popular Concert

Whether it be on the score of versatility or general merit, the program of the concert, to be given in Massey Hall, on Saturday evening, Nov. 20, has certainly never been excelled. This entertainment is tendered as a compliment to Wm. Campbell, in recognition of his valuable services to the musical profession during the past 13 years, and those popular artists whose names are constantly before the public have arranged to put on a unique program. The advance program gives promise of great things. All seats can be reserved. The plan will be opened this morning at the hall, and at Bell's, 146 Yonge street, at 9 o'clock.

THIS WEEK AT THE THEATRES

Grand Opera Week

Indications are that a large and fashionable audience will attend the inaugural of the grand opera week at the Alexandra tonight. So much has been said and written about the new San Carlo organization, its splendid choral section, the fine orchestra, and the new stars—many of whom have never been heard in Toronto—that a keen interest in the event is manifest. Verdi's big opera, "Aida," tonight, is one of the most impressive announced in the company's repertoire, and with the gowning and scenic investiture, which are worthy a $2 attraction. The Behman Show has the distinction of being the only burlesque attraction which has ever played a run of more than two hundred consecutive performances on Broadway, in New York.

Low Kelly, with the "Behman Show," at the Gayety Theatre.

Shea's George Howell and Company, presenting "The Red Fox Trot," a clever satire on the present dance craze, will headline a bright bill at Shea's this week. Theta and Winnie Lightner and Newton Alexander, in a clever singing and dancing sketch, are said to be very pleasing, while the California Orange Packers have an offering that is said to be a decided novelty. Julian Rose, the inimitable Hebrew comedienne, late Abe Potash, of "Potash and Perimeter," has a laughable monologue, while Rae Eleanor Ball, a violin virtuoso, is said to possess almost perfect technique. Henshaw and Avery will present an amusing little comedy sketch, while Robbie Gardner, the feminine bag-puncher, is said to be an athletic marvel. Reed brothers in "The Eccentric Walter," and the kinetograph, with new features, complete the bill.

Loew's All headline acts will be in the bill this week at Loew's Theatre. This remarkable aggregation will be featured by Mazette's Five, an act that consists of a collection of sensational acrobats, hand balancing and tumbling. The second feature of the bill is offered by Lee Bergs and Company, entitled "Old Folks at Home," a rural comedy series. The popular Wallingford series, in its fourth complete story, "The Mass Touch," will be shown. The two well-known comedians, Moss and Fay, alliance of comedy and song will keep the audience in a state of humor for 20 minutes, each member an act by themselves. Peppino, the master act by cordianist in classical and popular airs; Dorothy Herman, in an exclusive song and gown revue, besides well selected photoplays of the first run variety will complete the bill. As a special added attraction, the management have secured little Miss Mildred, the greatest of all juvenile entertainers, who has a remarkable way in which she puts over the songs she sings before the public. This is her first appearance in Canada.

The Hippodrome The headline attraction at the Hippodrome this week will be the sensational Bran Troupe of gymnasts, presenting a very difficult athletic feat in mid-air. Race Wilson, a Hippodrome favorite will sing some pleasing songs, while her impersonations are said to be very good. The feature film attraction will be another episode of the "movie" thriller, "Neal of the Navy." Charles Wilson is an amusing story-teller with some new yarns while Tabor and Clarke, "the singing mads," have a host of the newest song successes. A particularly attractive singing act is "The Musical Gardens," which combines vocal and instrumental selections. Prevet and Marshall in mystifying feats of illusion; Mears and Mears in song and dance features, and an amusing film attractions complete the bill.

HEAVY EXPENDITURE NEEDED CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Five years' time and an expenditure of approximately $27,000,000 is required for the rehabilitation of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Co., now in the hands of a receiver, according to special report of J. W. Kendrick, made public here today.

Marie Tempest—Grand Of delightful promise is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Marie Tempest, the leader among present-day comedienne, at the Grand Opera House this week, in the double comedy bill in which for several weeks past she has been appearing at the New York Lyceum Theatre, J. M.

Barrie's newest one-act play, "Rosamund," and Robert Marshall's, "The Duke of Killcrankie." In both plays it is promised that the English comedienne has roles giving her pleasing opportunity for the display of her sparkling sense of humor and brilliant, deft methods of comedy in which she excels. In addition to Mr. Brown, there also appear with Miss Tempest, Ferdinand Gottschalk, Grace Carlyle, Kate Sergeantson and Mercedes Gismonde in "The Duke of Killcrankie," and Miss Sergeantson and Reginald Denny in "Rosamund."

Gayety Low Kelly and the Behman Show will inaugurate their annual visit at the Gayety Theatre this afternoon. The Beauty Chorus and the Harmony Octette of young men of the college type contribute effectively to the well presented ensembles. Jack Singer has excelled even his past lavishness in
