

'Tis plain Respondent never knew
Of any such agreement,
Nor did contract, by word or act,
'Ere he upon the sea went."

Lord Chelmsford said, "My Lords, I can
Have little hesitation,
'Tis plain as day they must convey
Safe to his destination

This passenger whose cash they took,
For service to be rendered,
Who never heard or read a word,
Of what to us is tendered."

Lord Hatherly,—"'Tis shown to us,
The clerk who kept the wicket,
Beyond a doubt, did not point out
The words upon the ticket.

And they were printed on the back,
Unlikely to be seen,
There's naught to show the Court below
In error to have been."

And Lord O'Hagan, from the Isle
That's green and has no frosts,
Said, "Sirs, I feel that this appeal,
Should be dismissed with costs."
