

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by the publishers that the sale of this book, THE STORY OF METHODISM, by subscription only, is protected by decisions of the U. S. Circuit Courts. These decisions are by the U. S. Circuit Court of Ohio, rendered by Judge Hammond, and by the U. S. Circuit Court of Pennsylvania, rendered by Judge Butler, and are that "when a subscription book publishing house, in connection with the author elects to sell a book purely by subscription and does so sell it, through agents that are agents in the legal sense and not independent purchasers of the books, the house and author are entitled to the protection of the Courts as against any book-seller who invades their rights by attempting to buy and sell a book so published and sold."

HENCE THIS IS TO NOTIFY YOU that all our agents are under contract, as our agents, to sell this book by subscription only. They have no right whatever to sell it in any other way, as books only for individual interference with our to sell contrary to tions and our rights, book by you will ention of the Courts.

NOTIFICATION

this book can be infallibly identified wherever found, and the detection of the person selling this book to the trade, and the offering of it for sale by a book-seller, will be swift and sure, and summary proceedings against both book-seller and agent will be instituted.

WE TRUST YOU will receive this notice in the kindly spirit in which it is given, as it is made to inform honorable merchants and others who have heretofore bought subscription books in ignorance of the publishers' and authors' rights, as well as to protect ourselves and author, and our agents against infringements which discourage them, and rob us of the legitimate fruits of our labor and investment.

AGENTS and all other persons are particularly requested to inform us at once of the offering of this book for sale by any book-seller or other person not our accredited agent.
