Dr. S. WEIR MITCHELL writes:

"I have not for a long while read a book which pleased me more than Mr. Crawford's 'Roma.' It is cast in a form so original and so available that it must surely take the place of all other books about Rome which are needed to help one to understand its story and its archæology. . . . The book has for me a rare interest."

NEW YORK TRIBUNE

"Mr. Crawford knows his Rome thoroughly, and, furthermore, it is perhaps just because of his profession that he has succeeded where so many have failed. The history of Rome is packed with romance. What more fitting than that, for the purpose of the general reader, it should be retold by a man with inborn sympathy for the human side of history, and an equally instructive narrative gift."

HAMILTON W. MABIE

"With a rapid hand, and in a series of vigorous strokes, Mr. Crawford makes us see the 'City of the Hills' seven centuries before Christ; he recalls the Rome of the great age of conquests; of the Empire; of those years when the fires of life were dying; of the age of the barbarians; of the middle age; of the Renaissance; and of the modern time. The history of Rome is essentially a story, and Mr. Crawford's gift as a story-teller is a grand qualification for this work."
