

	PAGE
II. 8. The guest-room	99-101
(a) What it is	99
(b) Some typical guests	100-101
9. Other ways of reaching individuals	101
10. Street preaching	101
11. Street chapels	102, 103
(a) Description	102
(b) How a service is conducted	102, 103
12. Other methods of work	103
13. Chinese converts	103, 104
III. Work in the country districts	104-113
1. Itinerating tours	104, 105
2. Opportunities for Christian work	105
3. Opening work at Pen Hsien	105-111
(a) An evangelist chosen	105, 106
(b) Arrival at Pen Hsien	106
(c) He meets an old friend	107
(d) A preaching place secured	107, 108
(e) A busy Sunday	109
(f) An evening meeting	109-111
(g) Results	111
IV. A visit to Pen Shou	111-113
(a) An urgent invitation	111, 112
(b) A triumphal entry into the city	112
(c) Offer to build a church	112
(d) An opening for Protestantism	113

CHAPTER VI.

I. Medical work in China	114-116
1. Healing disease	114, 115
2. Overcoming suspicion	115
3. As an evangelistic agency	115, 116
II. General sketch of medical work	116-119
1. Place of the doctor in our mission	116
2. His work	116, 117
3. The diseases of China	117, 118