

ting, with the humblest Acknowledgments, the prosperous Issue of them to their Gods.

And how ready was the Royal Psalmist to return Thanks, for the daily Providence and Protection of his God; but when any peculiar Mercies were vouchsafed to him, what Raptures of Adoration, Praise, and Confidence do we hear? I will love Thee, O Lord, my Strength; the Lord is my Rock, my Fortrefs, and my Deliverer, my God, my Strength, in Him will I trust. He knew the Power and Efficacy of Praise; he found by Experience, that with such Sacrifices God was well pleased. But not content to give Glory unto God in his more private Meditations and Devotions, his grateful Heart pants to spread forth his Creator's Praise; and with the most pathetick and warm Exhortations, he invites all Mankind to join in this most amiable
