

CONTENTS.

ix

	PAGE
Raleigh directs the colony to the Chesapeake. Its failure	76
Raleigh's assigns	77
Character of Raleigh	78
City of Raleigh	79
Voyage of Gornold	79
Zeal of Richard Hakluyt	80
Pring and Waymouth	81
Gorges and Sir John Popham	82
Character of the early navigators	83

CHAPTER VI.

ENGLAND PLANTS A NEW NATION IN VIRGINIA.

Condition of England favors colonization	84
The first charter	85
King James legislates for Virginia	86
Colonists embark	87
Arrive in Virginia. Jamestown	88
Search for a north-west passage	89
Gilbert and Popham plant the second colony of Virginia	90
Distress and end of Virginia on the Kennebec	91
Sufferings of the first colony of Virginia	91
Its dissensions. Wingfield. Ratcliffe. John Smith	92
Smith's captivity and liberation. Powhatan. Pocahontas	93
Smith saves the colony and explores the Chesapeake	94
Smith becomes president. Impatience of the London company	95
Smith's administration and character	96
His first voyage to New England	97
He fails to plant a colony there. His further career	98

CHAPTER VII.

VIRGINIA OBTAINS CIVIL LIBERTY.

The second charter of Virginia	99
The expedition to relieve the starving colony wrecked on the Bermudas	100
Lord Delaware governor of Virginia. Restoration of the colony	101
Sir Thomas Dale introduces martial law	102
Sir Thomas Gates relieves the colony	103
Henrico founded. Jealousy of Spain. The third charter for Virginia	104
Shakespeare predicts new nations in America	105
The French settlement on Mount Desert broken up	105
Marriage of Pocahontas and Rolfe	106
Dale's administration. Tenure of lands	107
Pocahontas in England. Her death	108
The dishonest administration of Argall	109
Yeamley's administration brings life to Virginia	110
Sir Edwin Sandys, John and Nicholas Ferrar	111
Acts of the first colonial assembly	112