FOSTER WILL BE BORDEN'S

Seating of Members in the New House - White and Monk Will Sit Together.

OTTAWA. Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The seating plan for the house of com-nons which was finally arranged by he chief whips on Saturday, gives a lear dea of the transformation which e chief whips on Saturday, sives ear idea of the transformation which ill be noticed in the house of comons when it meets on Wednesday. Premier Borden and his followers ili, of course, be to the right of the peaker, at least all of them who do not occupy the overflow colony of government supporters to the left of the restding officer. The premier will coupy the seat from which fir Wilder will be the house for the restding officer. The premier will coupy the seat from which fir Wilder has led the house for the real peaks and his deskmate, as in position, will be Hon. G. E. Foster, the oldest parliamentarian in the cablet. To his right will be the Hon. D. Monk , who is seated with Hon. V. T. White. To the left of Mr. Foster the front row are the Hon. Robert logers and the Hon. Frank Cochrane. The Hon. L. P. Pelletier is seated with Blondin, who is not a member of the seatenest.

David Henderson and Hon. John Haggart have front seats, as also have Haughton Lennox and W. F. Maclean.
Marshall and F. R. Lalor are desk

P. Marshall and F. R. Lalor are desk mates in the front row.

In the second row of the cabinet ministers Hon. C. J. Doherty is directly back of Mr. Borden, with Hon. J. D. Roid as his desk mate. Hon. Martin Eurrill and Hon. T. W. Crothers are desk mates, while Hon. J. D. Hazes and Col. Sam Hughes are placed together. In the third row are Hon. A. E. Kemp and Hon. G. H. Perley, and Hon. Dr. Roche and Hon. B. Nantel.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as was predicted, has no desk mate, evidently leaving room for either Hon. Geo. Graham or Hon. W. S. Fielding to enter later. On the ex-premier's left is Hon. W. Pugsley, who has as his deskmate, Hon. R. Lemieux. Other front seat Liberals are Hon. Chas. Marcil, Hon. E. Emmerson, Hon. Chas. Murphy, who is paired with Hon. Frank Oliver, Hon. Dr. Beland, Jacques Bureau, E. M. MacDonald and W. A. Charlton. Back of Sir Wilfrid Laurier is his chief whip, F. F. Pardee, and Hugh Guthrie as his deskmate. F. B. Carvell and Hon. A. MacLean are given prominence, as are also W. F. German, who opposed reciprecity, and Clark of South Esset.

FALL FROM SCAFFOLD FATAL William Prosser, Coment Worker,

Sustained Fractured Skull.

William Proser, Cowan-avenue, who fell 30 feet from a scaffold, fracturing his skull, at Reinhardt's Brewery, in Mark-st., died in the General Hospital yesterday. An inquest will be open ed at the morgue to night at 8.30. Prosser was a married man, an about 35 years of age, a cement worker in the employ of the Gardner Con-tracting Co. At the time of the acciie and another cement worker tanding on a scaffold which tilted to one side, throwing the men off their balance. The other man also fell, but escaped injury. Prosser fell on his head and the fracture was just behind

CATHARINES, Nov. 12 .- (Special.)-Lincoln Liberals will, on Sat-urday, decide a question, which has heen before the county since the an-nouncement of the provincial contest, namely, whether or not Dr. Jessop will have opposition for the seat in the legislature. The county executive held a caucus here yesterday, but beyond deciding to call a convention nothing was done. The members refused to may what was discussed, the it is understood that the majority favor letting the matter go by default. It has been deemed wise, however, to let the people decide, so the convention will be held.

BURNED AT HALIFAX

a Number of Sleighs

and Wagons. HALIFAX, Nov. 12 .- Fire at an early hour this morning burned the board-ing stables owned by Festus Marriott on Hollis-street, and destroyed seventeen horses, the property of physicians and others in Halifax. Four of the horses belonged to the Eastern Stage Coach Co., that runs a line along the shore from Halifax. A large quantity of sleighs and wagons were burne and one motor car, the property of Dr H. K. Macdonald. One of the horses destroyed was the property of the Canadian General Electric Co., for which they had refused $300 the day before. The fire broke out with great suddenness and nothing could be done to save the animals, or indeed any the property. Of the whole number the heroic work of John Kennedy, horses in the stables only one was rescued. This animal was got out by driver of the stage line. Marriott had no insurance, his policy having run out a month before. total loss will be under $10,000.

HORSE THIEVES BUSY

Horse thieves are greatly in evidence. Two fine horses were stolen within thirty hours of each other, and neither has yet been recovered.
On Saturday evening Paul McKellar, 294 Huron-street, left his horse stand. ing outside Adams' furniture store on Queen-street, while he transacted business, and when he returned his horse and trap were gone. On the previous afternoon a horse and carriage were stolen from the corner of Bay and Wellington-streets. Two boys were seen with this outfit a short time afterwards, but the police have nothing fur-ther to work on than their description. Mr. McKellar describes his horse as standing 16 hands, dark sorel, dock tail, white spot on forehead, left hind leg white and swollen. The animal weighs about 1200 pounds. The buggy had rubber tires, red gear and dark The harness was light and
