FLATTERY, BRIBERY AND THREATS MADE

So Says Miss Boulton Political Meeting Last Night.

WERE ALL IN LETTER

Small But Enthusiastic Meeting in Interests of Cody and Henry.

Speaking at the meeting held under the auspices of the North Toronto Liberal-Conservative Association last night in the interest of Hon. G. S. Henry at the Eglinton Town Hall, Miss Constance Boulton stated she had received a letter from Mr. Galbraith, which she described as a thru the gates in three and a mixture of flattery, bribery and threats. It was stated in the letter that the women of East York resented her going there to tell them how to cast their votes. "I was asked to go there," said Miss Boulton, "and it seemed to me the honest thing to do was to say what I honestly meant." Speaking of the bribe offered, she said woman in politics. "I will not abuse Mr. Galbraith," said Miss Boulton, "as I do not know him, and it is not worth

Not a Large Gathering. It was not a very large gathering that listened to the many speakers, but what was lacking in numbers was amply made up in enthusiasm, and the speakers were greeted many times by loud applause, especially from the women, who were largely in the ma-

opponents of Hon. G. S. Henry and Hon. Dr. Cody," said Hon. T. W. Mc-Garry, "A man who has been to the front and has done his bit for his country is deserving of all praise, but that does not furnish a right for him to represent the people in the legis. Speaking of the opponent of Mr. Henry, he said Mr. Galbraith had said that the legislature had expired "If lature or the house of commons. that the legislature had expired. "If day. The military escort for the fun-that is so why is Mr. Galbraith a can-eral, which will be to Mount Pleasant didate if he believes the government is dead?" asked Mr. McGarry. "He is asking the people of his riding to send him to parliament, but can he take the oath? No, for he cannot and gone. The government was prepared to go to the people in June, and politically it would have been a wise movement, but in accordance with the cry of the opposition it was decided to extend the life of the legislature until after the war, and so give to the thousands of the control of the university of the thousands of the control of the University of the thousands of the control of the University of the thousands of the university of the un the thousands of returned men their right to help choose their representa-tives." Mr. Galbraith. Seven Millions Spent. Speaking of the work done by the Ontario Government, he said over-seven million dollars had been spent to date on war expenditure since the war began. It had been spent in recruiting, on the Canadian Hospital at Orpington, England, and on the Sol-

"There was a statement made by a certain public man that I wish to correct," said Mr. McGarry. He referred to a statement made by Senator W. C. Edwards, who had stated that the of Ontario was going to the dogs, and that it would soon be imto live in the province on count of the taxation, and the debi that was growing.

"I say that when Senator Edwards otic, and he was saying what was unrushing into debt. It is the only pro-vince in the world that has a splendid surplus in proportion to its expendi-tures." He pointed out that after four years of the war there was a total surplus of $3,000,000 with a revenue of about $14,000,000.

The Candidate Speaks. "I have been favored with the confidence of the electors of East York for five years," declared Hon. G. "And I appreciate the difficulties the workers are faced with today, the same as five years ago, and for that reason I must thank the electors for the manner in which they have stood behind me." Mr. Henry said he felt that his election would be due to agement of the theatre has been able the women of East York, and if they thought the Hearst government should be supported, it was their duty to give their support.

Mrs, James Lougheed urged all the women to assist in the work Monday. Dr. W. Jackes, M.L.A., Haldimand, spoke in highest terms of Mr. Henry and said he had never heard any member, whether Liberal or Conservative, say any other man should hold the portfolio. Ald. H. H. BASEBALL FANS MADE TO SHOW THEIR PAPERS

Some of the Toronto baseball fans vill no doubt look upon Aug. 13 as a somewhat unlucky day, for, in addition to bringing a temperature of over a hundred in the shade it was a day when it was necessary to show military papers on arrival at the Bay street ferry dock after the game. A total of 12 men who were without proper military papers, were apprehended. They were bonded for reappearance with their papers today and several held pending further in vestigation. WARM WEATHER PRODUCTION.

"Hearts of the World" May Be Seen at Allen in Comfort.

D. W. Griffith's "Hearts World," which is playing at the Allen Theatre this week and next week, is a production that can be enjoyed in spite of the hot weather. The manto keep the house exceptionally cool during the present hot spell. Washed air is forced over cakes of ice, making the air in the theatre always cool. More than a ton of ice is used daily during the summer months. But the picture is so intensely interesting that from the very start the udience is made to forget the excessive heat outside.

General Sir William Pelteney, Major, the Earl of Pembroke, and Captain, the Master of Sinclair, stepped from the R.A.F. launch "Brigadier" at the landing stage in front of the Harbor Commissioners' building, while Capt. Scholes with a party of newspaper men were securing the west channel in a vain effort to locate the boat which was to bring the party to Toronto. According to the pilot of the "Briugly moods and instead of thru the west channel, as had at first been decided upon, the launch was taken round by the east route in ortaken round by the east route in or-der to avoid the heavy swell of the open lake.

One Launch Breaks Down.
The "Brigadier" was convoyed all the way from Beamsville by two other R.A.F. motor launches, but one of them had a slight break down and the boat carrying the prince and his party arrived at the Harbor Commissioners landing stage well ahead of the escort. Captain Lou Scholes had left the dock, accompanied by a group of journalists, about half past six, and after a short cruise about the m the landing stage with the information that they had seen no trace of the boat carrying the prince and his party. In they resumed their search a few minutes later, sailing away in the westerly direction only to meet with a manufacture. second failure as the visitors had end tered the bay by the east channel durng their absence.

Received by Lieutenant-Governor. The Prince was greeted, as he set foot on the landing stage, with a few bars of the National Anthem, played by the Garrison Band, and welcomed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Sir John Hendrie. A military guard of honor composed of 100 men of the C.O.T.C. was drawn up in front of the Harbo Commissioners" building and presented arms as the Prince and his party landed from the motor boat.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, after words to the men who wore distinguished service ribbons, and shaking hands with them, was conducted the awaiting motor cars and left company of the lieutenant, governo for the government house, where hwill be an honored guest during histay in this city.

Official Welcome This Morning

The Prince will be officially welcomed to the province by Sir William Hearst, this morning, in front of the parliament buildings, at 10.30, when he will also present decorations to number of soldiers from this district Davisville Orthopaedic Hospital. After funch at the government house, Phince Arthur and his party will pay a visit to the Royal Flying Corps camps, and in his honor at the residence of the lieutenant governor.

On Thursday morning the Prince and party will leave for London, Ont. whence they will proceed to Ottawa.

Fearing that the trip across the lake in a motor launch might prove lake in a motor launch might be to too dangerous owing to the threatening thunderstorm, two R.A.F. girl chauffeurs, Miss Catherine Hanna and Miss Anderson, left by motor care and Miss Anderson, left by motor care to bring in early yesterday morning to bring in the party in case the water trip had to be abandoned. Their services were, however, not required as the heavy swell on the lake did not deter the Prince and his party from the lake
